Supplies for the Sick.

Persons who send articles for the use of the sick should be very careful in making their selections. Large quantities of articles are contributed; while, by the time they arrive at their destination, are utterly unfit for use. Of course this is a loss to the people—because every article that perishes or is wasted, is so much deducted from the resources of the people, so much added to the burden of the war. The Express office and the railroad depots in Harrisburg are overstocked with packages, of which many may be called perishable goods; baskets of cooked poultry—bags of ripe fruit, decaying and actually offensive—cases of vegetables that can never be used in hospitals—all perishing, and all actually an expense instead of a relief to the department for which they were designed.

What is necessary for the people at a distance is to consider that the sick and wounded are not blessed with appetites like epicures, nor are they capable of devouring the strongest food like gormands. There are many comforts for the sick and the wounded, which every family is capable in part of making up—and when contributions of this kind are made, the wants of the soldier are of course satisfied. Let it be understood, then, that those sending articles for the hospitals at a distance, must be sure not to forward perishable goods. This will prevent waste, save the surgeons and nurses from charge much troable, and in the end, enable the good people of the country patriotically to aid the sick and wounded soldiers.

DIED OF THEIR WOUNDS—Lieut. Laughlin, Co. D, Ninth Reserves, and Wm. Porter, Co. A, same regiment, died recently from the effects of their battle wounds.

REV. W. A. PARSLEY visited the gallant and glorious Ninth Reserves, on Sunday last, at their camp on the Potomac near Sharpsburg, Md.

Troops from Harper's Ferry.

The Pittsburgh Subsistence Committee have been busily engaged, since midnight Wednesday, in supplying provisions for western troops from Harper's Ferry, now passing through this city, on their way to Chicago. The 80th Ohio volunteers reached the city at midnight, Wednesday, were amply provided for, and sent on their way rejoicing. The following troops arrived at noon to-day, and were furnished with a good, substantial dinner: 4th Illinois, Col. D. Cameron; 1st Indiana Battery, Capt. Rigby; 2d Illinois Battery, Capt. Phillips; 15th Indiana Battery, Capt. Van Sayler; and 15th New York Battery, Capt. McGrath. The whole number was 2,500.

These men are all from Harper's Ferry, having been paroled by Stonewall Jackson. They all tell the same sad story of Miles' (Reason) and an officer with whom we conversed thinks that Miles was killed by a shot from an Indiana Battery.

These troops are ordered to report at Chicago, but whether they are to be exchanged, or sent to fight the Indians, they cannot learn.

Casualties in Thompson's Battery.

The following is a list of wounded and missing in Capt. John Thompson's Pittsburgh Battery during the battle of Antietam:

Orderly Sergeant Robert M'Clellan, shoulder, by piece of shell, not seriously.
Serg't Richard Parrell, slightly in leg.
Corporal Wm. Donnelson, badly in right shoulder.
Corporal John J. Sweeny, in foot, great toe amputated.
Corporal Jas. M'Glaughlin, back, slightly.
David L. Audey, neck, badly.
Michael J. Sullivan, badly torn by explosion of a shell.
Thomas S. Henderson, leg, badly.
William Turpin, breast, slightly.
Samuel Stoller, leg, slightly.
Ewing Mitchell, side, slightly.
Missing—Nicholas W. Clark, John Besler.

DECLINES "ALL SUCH"—HON. JOHN C. R. White, Esq., having been announced as a Vice President of the late Democratic gathering, publishes a card, in which he says: "I was not present, and respectfully decline all such honor. As our country is in such imminent peril I think this no time for political or partisan gatherings. My allegiance and duties, as an adopted citizen, I consider of greater obligation, and more binding on me, than the triumph or success of any political party."

STABLES BURNT—FIFTEEN MULES LOST.—Early Wednesday morning, the stables attached to Ormsby's coal works, in East Birmingham, caught fire and were destroyed. Fifteen mules, tied up in the stables, were burnt up, together with harness and other property. The fire was caused by a "head lamp," attached to the cap of one of the workmen, coming in contact with some hay, while he was passing through the stables.

CAPT. R. B. BRADY, CO. K, 11th Reserves, who was killed in the battle of South Mountain, was the first to receive the fire of the enemy, and the first to fall beneath its withering effects. He was a resident of Jefferson county, and for many years, last editor of the Brookville Jeffersonian. He was a printer by trade, was employed for a time in the offices of this city, and was well known to many of our people.

ONLY A COLOR GUARD LEFT!—The 46th Pennsylvania Regiment, Col. Knipe—in which were two Pittsburgh companies, the "Frankes Infantry," Capt. Foulk, and the "Pittsburgh Rifles, Co. B," Capt. Morgan—must have suffered severely in the late battles. A correspondent says: "I noticed the other day that the balance of the regiment constitutes but a color guard for a new regiment."

WILL LEAVE ON FRIDAY.—Capt. E. J. Seibert, of the 136th regiment, will leave to rejoin his company on Friday. He will carry any letters, but no packages, which may be left at Wm. Sumner & Co.'s, 27 Fifth street, up to noon on Friday, by the members of his own or Capt. Larimer's company. He can be found at Sumner & Co.'s, on Friday morning, between the hours of eleven and twelve o'clock.

SHOT BY MINIERS.—James McBride, of Washington county, attached to the 18th regiment State Militia, was shot by Miners down on Friday last, by a guard. He was laboring under partial insanity, and wandering from his regiment at night, encountered the guard, refused to halt when commanded, and was shot in the arm. The arm was amputated, but M'Bride is not expected to live.

KNAPP'S BATTERY.—Col. Geary's (Twenty-eighth) Regiment, in the battle of Wednesday, was supported by a section of Knapp's battery, under command of Lieut. M'Gill. One of the guns was captured, and five horses killed. The regiment went into battle 650 strong, and lost 35 killed; 165 wounded and 18 missing.

THE EXHIBITION at the Theatre, for the benefit of the sufferers by the late explosion, realized the handsome sum of $275, which has been paid over to the proper committee. This is highly creditable to Manager Henderson and his excellent company.

LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[FROM OUR EVENING EDITION.]

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The President has recognized Leopold Schmidt as Vice Consul of the Kingdom of Saxony at New York and C. F. Adam Consul of the Grand Duchy of Michlburg Schwerin at Cincinnati.

The Post Office Department has received information from various sources that certain persons persistently divert postage stamps from their legitimate purpose by circulating them in packages, together with cancelled stamps, as currency. Owing to the use of stamps as the Department is embarrassed in the supply for mail purposes. The public, therefore, are interested in discountenancing their circulation as currency. In all cases of the infraction of the law coming to the knowledge of the Department this parties will be prosecuted, as it is a grave offence. This, of course, has no connection with the specially designated stamp currency.

Information has been received from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, stating that the difficulties with the Chippewas in Minnesota have been adjusted, but he is fearful that the trouble with the Sioux, in the same State, have just commenced, and will be of long continuance.

COMMERCIAL RECORD.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

[Reported specially for the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

THURSDAY, Sept. 25.—The general market remains quiet though steady, with no new feature worthy of notice in any of the leading articles. A rise in the river would produce a very good effect on business just now, as it is next to impossible to bring merchandise from the West to this market. We must confess, however, that the prospects for rain are by no means flattering, and some predict that there will be no rise in the river this fall—that it will remain as it is until winter sets in and then freeze up.

FLOUR—The demand continues fair while quotations remain unchanged. Sales in two lots of 130 bbls extra family at $5,50; 50 do at $5,70 for extra, and $5,50 for family; 100 bbls family at $5,50@5,60.

GRAIN—Wheat is in regular demand at $1,00@1,05 for Red from wagon and $1,03@1,08 for Penn'sylvania and Ohio White. Barley is in demand and would sell readily at 70 to 75c for Spring and Fall. Corn is unchanged; we quote at 55@56c. Rye is wanted at 55@56c. Oats command 43 to 45c for new and 48 to 50c for old.

GROCERIES—Sugar is steady with small sales at from 9¾ to 10¼c; sale of 5 hhds N. O. at 10¼c. Coffee is unchanged and may be quoted at 22¾@23¾. Prime N. O. Molasses are held at 54@55c.

BACON—The demand is moderate though prices are firm with an upward tendency. Sale of 3,000 lbs Shoulders at 5¾c; and 4,000 do do at 5¾c; 5 tcs Plain Hams at 9¾. Sugar Cured Hams have advanced to 12@12½c.

CHEESE—is firm with a sale of 100 bxs prime selected W. R. at 9c.

OILS—Sale of 150 bbls Crude at 7c; and 200 bbls refined carbon—not liable to tax—at 30c. No. 1 lard is held at 70 to 72c.

WHISKY—There is but little doing in this article though the market for common is firm at 32@33.

Allegheny Cattle Market.

THURSDAY, September 25, 1862.

The supply of cattle during the past week has not been as large as usual, but still was more than sufficient to meet the demand, which is almost entirely local. There were a good many lots of cattle changed hands on Monday, and at figures at least ½c ⅌ lb, more than could have been realized on Tuesday, and the difference was still greater to those who held on until Wednesday—as some did, thinking there would be Eastern buyers, and better prices, but in the, they were sadly disappointed, and at the close of the market were very glad to take such rates as buyers saw fit to give. The stock in market was better on an average than last week, though there were very few extra cattle, and not as many small inferior stock as there has been for some weeks past. There was a light demand for stock cattle and most of those on sale were sold, though at very low figures.

There has been considerable complaint among drovers of late, about their stock being detained on the O. P. Railroad. They say that it is often switched off at Manchester, and left standing there from two to four hours, before it is brought up to the yards. Now this is a great annoyance to drovers, and sometimes from this source alone they incur losses in not having their cattle in the yards at the proper time.

Below will be found the amount of cattle offered and sold, and an accurate list of the sales at the different yards:

CATTLE.

J Critchfield, 21 head of very good 850 lb cattle, retailed at about $20 ⅌ head.

Marks & Co. 50 head of Illinois steers bought at Chicago, sold at 2¾@3.

Cretes & co., 40 head of all kinds at 2@3.

HOGS.

There were about 4500 hogs offered, some 2000 of which were sold at prices ranging from $3,00 to $3,60, the latter price only for the best large sized corn-fed, and this is the only class of hogs that buyers seem anxious to take hold of at present, there being a very light demand for thin hogs, and those that are buying this hogs in the country at about $3 have only to bring them here to get the same price that they pay at home for them. We have no doubt but that good heavy fat hogs will continue to bring about the same price, by fetch now for a few weeks to come, as that kind are not plenty.

SHEEP.

We have to notice a very short supply of sheep this week, the whole number amounting to only 700, all of which were sold from $3¼@3,60; many more sheep have been sold had they been here, but they did not come, and they will not come unless the short supply shall induce buyers to pay extravagant prices; such prices as farmers and feeders are willing to pay in Ohio, and elsewhere for them. And we have no doubt but that many of those that are now buying to feed, will be glad to get the same money next March for them, that they now pay; we have seen it so before, and if we live, shall see it so again.
