TUESDAY MORNING, OCT. 21.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

From Yesterday's Evening Gazette.

The 102d Regiment at Antietam.

The following card, from Col. Thomas A. Rowley, of the 102d Pennsylvania Regiment, addressed to the editor of the New York Times, explains itself, and corrects an erroneous statement made by the correspondent of that paper:

In your issue of Sept. 27 the following paragraph occurs in the letter of your special correspondent:

"Max Weber's Brigade, in French's Division, bore its part in the sanguinary contest of Wednesday last, excepting one regiment, the Fifth Maryland, which, it is alleged, was taken from the field while the result of the battle hung in the balance, by its own officers. It is stated, also, that the One Hundred and Second Pennsylvania Regiment did the same thing."

As my regiment was not engaged in the battle at Antietam, (although having marched 25 miles on Wednesday, arriving late at night on the field, and on Thursday morning were moved to the front, but were not permitted to fight as the "rebs" had "skedaddled,") I write to have you correct the erroneous impression which the paragraph alluded to has made in reference to the One Hundred and Second Pennsylvania Volunteers.

My regiment has passed through many of the battles on the Peninsula, and suffered severely therefrom—but never can cowardice be imputed to officers or men in it. We have not learned to "skedaddle."

Please correct the matter and oblige yours,

THOMAS A. ROWLEY,
Colonel One Hundred and Second Pa. Vols.
Downsville, Md., Thursday, Oct. 9, 1862.

Allegheny City Teachers' Institute.

The Principals and Teachers of the Allegheny Schools met on Saturday, and organized a Teachers' Institute, in accordance with the expressed desire of the Board of Controllers.

Rev. D. G. Bradford was chosen temporary Chairman, and M. B. Goff Secretary.

An interchange of opinion between the members of the Board and the Principals and Teachers, led to a much better feeling than was anticipated.

A Committee on Permanent Organization, with Mr. Morton as Chairman, reported the following officers:

President—James E. Stevenson, Principal of the Second Ward School.

Vice President—Samuel A. Neale, Principal of School House No. 6.

Secretary—Milton B. Goff, Principal Third Ward School.

Executive Committee—First Ward, Mariam Smith; Second Ward, Susan B. Nichol; Third Ward, Elizabeth Wakeham; Fourth Ward, first precinct, Elizabeth Davidson; Fourth Ward, second precinct, Annie C. McCall.

The time of meeting was fixed on the first and third Saturday of each month, subject to the approval of the Board of Control.

On motion, the Principals were appointed a committee to prepare a memorial to the Board of Control in regard to salary, etc., after which the Institute adjourned.

A Patriotic Family.

Mrs. Mary Campbell, residing on Ledlie street, Second Ward, Allegheny, has no less than six sons in the United States service, namely:

Michael Campbell, Co. A, Capt. Hunter, 2d Virginia Regiment; aged thirty-one years.

John Campbell, in the same company and regiment, aged twenty-nine years.

Joseph Campbell, Co. D, Capt. Boreley, 2d Virginia Regiment; aged twenty-four years.

James Campbell, Co. A, Capt. Hull, 62d Pennsylvania Regiment; aged twenty-six years. This man was in all the battles participated in by the gallant 62d, and lost an arm at Malvern Hill.

Edward Campbell, Co. A, 62d Regiment, aged twenty-one years. This young man fell a victim to disease.

Frank Campbell, Co. B, Capt. Murphy, 123d Regiment. This lad is only seventeen years of age, and has not yet been in action.

The above is certainly a proud record for Mrs. Campbell, and one which very few mothers can present. If those who have given but one son are entitled to a nation's gratitude, what shall we say of her who has given six?

Steamboat Interest Confiscated.

In the United States Court, this morning, Hon. Wilson M'Candless delivered an opinion in the case of the steamer Isaac Hammett, seized here about eight months ago, under the confiscation law. The boat was owned by a Mississippi Coal Company, three-sixteenths being held by Victor Wilson, a resident of the State of Mississippi, and the remaining interest by Dunshee and others. The loyal owners, Messrs. Dunshee and others, claimed that Mr. Wilson was indebted to the firm in an amount exceeding the value of his interest; and they also offered testimony to show that he was not a rebel, but a loyal man. The Court decided that it could take no cognizance of the partnership relations in this case, but under the law the property was subject to confiscation. There was fortunately a saving clause in the act, under which the Secretary of the Treasury had power to relieve Mr. Wilson, whose loyalty the Court had no hesitation in admitting.

The Criminal Court.

The following cases were disposed of during the morning session, Judge Sterrett presiding:

Mrs. Mary Merriman, charged with assault and battery on oath of Miss Anna Miller, was convicted, but recommended to the mercy of the Court. An unexpected fact developed itself during the trial, to wit: that Anna, the prosecutrix, had so far forgotten herself as to occupy the bed of Mrs. Mary, which fact, coming to the knowledge of the Court and counsel, led to her detention on a charge of fornication. She was arrested on a process and committed to jail, and a true bill was immediately found by the Grand Jury. Alas! what fools some people do make of themselves by dragging others into Court!

Howell Davis plead guilty to a charge of assault and battery, and was sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars and costs.

Rose and John Mullen were indicted for forcible entry, and convicted. Motion made for a new trial.

Petty Burglaries in Allegheny.

During the past week, a number of petty burglaries have been perpetrated on Western avenue and vicinity. The depredations have been principally confined to the cellars, which have been entered and robbed of everything eatable. The cellars of J. H. Claney, Dr. Medara, J. Reymer, and Mrs. Lee, all on Western avenue, have been visited by these "foraging" scoundrels, who made a pretty clean sweep of everything worth taking. Canned fruits, preserves, pickles, bread, pies, butter, meat, and other articles of diet, were carried off wholesale. As a matter of course, there is much excitement among housewives in that locality, and their stores of fruit laid up for winter use are being more securely locked up, or removed to other parts of their houses. The police will make an effort to pick up some of the rascals.

CO. C, NINTH RESERVES.—Lieut. George Pierce, of Co. C, Ninth Reserves, who is now at his residence in Allegheny, has been honorably discharged from the service, his health being very much shattered, and it is feared he will never again be "the man he once was." Lieut. Kirkpatrick has been elected Captain, and Corporal Snively Second Lieutenant.

IN THE CITY.—Col. Thomas A. Rowley, of the 102d Pennsylvania, and Major Thomas Gibson, of the 2d Virginia regiment, are now in the city enjoying a brief furlough. Col. Rowley has been "pulled down" somewhat, but still his proportions are rather Falstaffian than otherwise.

DEDICATION.—A new Catholic church at Braddock's Field, St. Thomas, in charge of Father O'Farrell, is to be dedicated on Sunday next. Trains will leave the Connellsville depot at 9 a. m. and 2 p. m.

COMMON PLEAS.—Judge Ritchie is now engaged in the trial of causes in the Court of Common Pleas. The list is small, and will not occupy more than two or three days.

CONVICTED OF MURDER.—"Beck" Pool, on trial at Wheeling for the murder of Adam Buch, has been convicted of murder in the first degree.

SUBSTITUTES.—Two men will go as substitutes if paid liberally. Apply at No. 2 St. Clair street, Pittsburgh.

Our Book Table.

THE AMERICAN JOURNAL OF THE MEDICAL SCIENCES. Edited by Isaac Hays, M.D. Philadelphia: Blanchard & Lea.

We have so frequently commended this able Review to the patronage of the Medical profession, that we need say nothing on this head at present, but simply note the more prominent articles in this number. First, we have an interesting essay on a "New Excretory Function of the Liver, illustrated by three plates containing fifteen figures, by Dr. Flint. Then follow "Notes on Arrow Wounds," by Dr. Bill, U. S. A.; "Inoculating with Straw Fungi," by Dr. Salisbury; "Opium Poisoning treated by Belladonna," by Dr. Norris; "On Fracture of the Sternum," by Ashhurst; and "Some Experiments on Poisoning with the Vegetable Alkaloids" by Dr. Salisbury. The Reviews of recent medical works, the Bibliographical Notices, and the Quarterly Summary of Improvements and Discoveries in the Medical Sciences, condense an immense amount of information for which many volumes would have to be searched—at no small cost both of time and money.

A FRIGHTFUL FALL.—Donaldson, the rope walker, whose feats on Fifth street were witnessed last summer by thousands of our citizens, was severely injured last week, while performing at the Stark County Fair. He had a rope stretched between the tops of two trees, forty feet above the ground, and while performing thereon, one of his feet came in contact with a guy rope, and he fell to the ground, breaking his right arm in two places—the bone protruding several inches.

STILL ANOTHER REGIMENT.—William M. Moffit, Esq., Assistant District Attorney, has obtained authority from the War Department to raise another cavalry regiment in this and adjoining counties. He is a popular gentleman, and will make an excellent officer. We anticipate little difficulty for him in filling up a regiment, as the drafted men who will be sent to Camp Howe have the privilege of becoming volunteers by going into a three years regiment.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK.—Gody for November is out—giving the ladies ample time, after studying the subject in all the lights of these colored plates and plain (but still most intricate) diagrams, to make such preparation as may be needful to pay their devoirs at the shrine of Fashion in due season. Call for copies at Henry Miner's, next door to the Postoffice, or at J. P. Hunt's, Masonic Hall, Fifth street.

LATE TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[FROM OUR EVENING EDITION.]

Steamers Fired into by Rebels—Skirmish Near Island 10—The Rebels Defeated—The Battle at Corinth—Commerce Captured by the Rebels, etc.

CAIRO, Oct. 19.—The steamers Dickey and Continental were fired into, near Island No. 21, last Wednesday, by a rebel battery of 12-pounders, which the rebels had planted on the shore. The Dickey was struck three times. No one was hurt. The Continental was struck twice, once just above the water line. The gunboat Pittsburgh came up from Fort Pillow and shelled the woods in several suspicious places, but the rebels didn't reply.

A Federal force stationed on the Tennessee shore, opposite Island No. 10, attacked four hundred rebels, under Faulkner. Owing to the darkness, the rebels fired into each other, throwing themselves into confusion and causing them to retire, followed by our cavalry. Eight rebels were killed and ten wounded.

We captured thirty horses and several muskets. Faulkner, their captain, and twelve privates were taken prisoners and brought to Columbus, Ky., last night. Our loss was three killed and two wounded.

There is nothing of interest from Helena, except daily skirmishing. An attack from the enemy is not anticipated at present.

The Grenada Appeal, of the 13th, ascribes the rebel defeat at Corinth to the drunkenness of Gen. Van Dorn.

Information from Cape Girardeau says that 700 rebels, under Col. Jeffries, attacked and captured the town of Commerce. No particulars.

Prisoners in the Old Capitol—Emigration South.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20.—A number of prisoners have been sent hither recently by Gens. Sigel and Stoneman, who, together with persons arrested for violating the Potomac blockade, are now confined in the old capitol prison.

There seems to be no difficulty in emigrating to the South. Lately, about twenty secessionists left Washington, and the neighborhood, for the eastern shore of Maryland, where they safely crossed into Virginia.

From Fortress Monroe.

FORTRESS MONROE, Oct. 18.—One hundred and fifty recruits arrived on the Baltimore boat this morning. They are for several regiments in this vicinity.

The Baltimore boat also brought down 224 rebel prisoners from Fort McHenry. The prisoners were taken at the battles of South Mountain and Antietam, and belong to Virginia and Louisiana. They left for Harrison's Landing at noon to-day on the steamboat New York.

All was quiet at Suffolk this morning.

The Prisoners Captured by the Pirate Alabama.

BOSTON, October 20.—The Portuguese brig Acaso has been chartered at Fayal by the American Consul to proceed to Flores, and take the prisoners captured by the pirate Alabama, and subsequently released, to Boston.

Wounded Soldiers.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The steamer Creole, from Newbern, arrived at this port this morning; also the steamer Spaulding with the hospital ship Euterpe in tow. The latter has 256 wounded soldiers from the army of the Potomac.

For the Seat of War.

BOSTON, Oct. 20.—The Maine 27th Regiment, Col. Lapley, left Portland this morning for the seat of war.

COMMERCIAL RECORD.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

[Reported specially for the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

MONDAY, Oct. 20.—The general market has been tolerably active to-day with a fair demand for most of the leading articles. There is considerable excitement in Crude and Refined Oils, and prices have advanced. Flour is less firm though unchanged. Grain remains firm and with moderate receipts the market is fully maintained. There appears to be less doing in Groceries which may be attributed to the unusually high prices. Provisions are a shade firmer.

GRAIN—The market for Wheat is still excited and $1.15 is freely paid for Red from first hands and $1.18@1.20 for White. The receipts are liberal but not sufficient to meet the demand. It may be observed, however, that prices have gone down in the East and we may look for a corresponding decline here soon. Barley is now the leading article and has advanced to $1.20 from wagon. The receipts are fair and prices tending upward. Rye continues very scarce and the market is steady at 60c. Oats dull but firm at 50c from store and 50c for old. There is not much doing in Corn except in the small way, and we continue to quote at 55 to 60c.

FLOUR—The Flour market is hardly so firm though prices have undergone no perceptible change. The decline in the East will not effect the market much here as the stock is exceedingly light and barely sufficient to meet the local demand. Sales of 70 bbls Extra Family at $6,75@6,87; 100 do do at $6,75 and 200 do do at $6,50@6,75.

GROCERIES—The extremely high prices now prevailing has a tendency to restrict operations in groceries, and buyers, generally, take hold rather sparingly. We continue to quote Sugar at 10⅞ to 11⅞c; Coffee 27@27½; and Molasses 55@56.

PROVISIONS—There is a moderate demand for bacon Shoulders, with sales of 3,000 lbs at 5¾c; 2,000 do at 5⅞@6c; and 4,000 do at 6c. Sugar Cured Hams are scarce and firm at 11½c. We note small sales of country lard at 9½c. Pork is firm.

OILS—Crude is in good demand, and another advance has been established; Sale in tank of 5,000 bbls at 12½c. Refined is very firm with a sale of 200 bbls No. 1 at 40.

SALT—is in good inquiry at the advance; Sale of 120 bbls No. 1 Extra at $2,50 per bbl.

WHISKY—quiet and firm; Sale of 15 bbls Common at 35c, and 10 bbls Raw at 37c.

CHEESE—is in fair request; Sale of 100 bxs prime W R in lots at 10c per pound.

APPLES—steady with sales in lots of 103 bbls at $2 to $2,25 per bbl.

BUTTER—Sale of 500 lbs fresh Roll at 15@16c; Packed is selling at 11@12½c.

POTATOES—are rather slow sale and the market is dull; we quote good, qualities at 65@70c per bush from depot.

From Richardson, Spence & Co.'s Liverpool Prices Current.

Breadstuffs—The weather has been unsettled during the week, and most of the wheat offering by farmers is in very poor condition. This has caused a better demand for foreign wheat, and the tone of the trade closes firmer.

On Tuesday, wheat met a fair consumptive demand, but, being freely offered, last Friday's prices were barely maintained. Flour was slow at previous rates. Indian corn opened stiffer, but closed quiet at 29s 6d ⅌ qr.

At to-day's market the attendance of buyers was not large, and wheat sold only to a limited extent at the extreme rates of Tuesday. Flour more inquired for at late rates. Indian corn in fair request at 29s 6d to 29s 9d for prime mixed; white quiet at 30s 6d to 31s 6d ⅌ quarter. We quote wheat, red western, 9s to 9s 2d for Chicago; 9s 2d to 9s 3d for Milwaukee; 9s 3d to 9s 6d for amber Iowa; 10s to 10s 3d for winter southern 10s 3d to 10s 4d; choice samples of amber, Michigan or Pennsylvania, would command 10s 6d in retail; white western 10s 6d to 11s; southern 11s 3d to 12s ⅌ 100 lbs. Flour extra States 23s 6d to 25s; extra Ohio 23s 6d to 29s ⅌ 196 lbs. Indian Corn—Mixed 29s 6d to 29s 9d; white 30s 6d to 31s 6d ⅌ 180 lbs.

Beef and Pork still neglected and nominal.

Bacon in limited demand, and buyers have the advantage in price. Hams dull. Shoulders in good request, and rather dearer.

Cheese about 1s ⅌ cwt lower except for choice qualities which maintain their value.

Lard dull and lower. The sales are reported at 120 tons, and we cannot quote over 42s to 43s 6d for good to fine qualities.

Tallow about 6d ⅌ cwt cheaper, with little doing. Very fine quality is steady, and we quote Philadelphia Butchers' Association 48s, New York Butchers' Association 47s 6d, but city rendered can be had at 45s to 46s, as in quality.

Quercitron bark neglected.

Rosin—400 bbls common, ex "Lloyd's," sold at 27s to 28s ex quay, but store lots are still held for 29s ⅌ cwt.

Seeds—300 bags American sold at 38s for old, and 40s for fine yearling. Nothing done in flax or timothy seed.

Petroleum Oil—2500 bbls crude American sold at £16 ⅌ ton. Canadian offered at £12; refined sells at 2s to 2s 2d ⅌ gallon.

CRUDE AND REFINED OILS.—The Philadelphia Price Current under date of Saturday 18th inst, says:

The excitement noted in Petroleum at the close of our last report, caused by the destruction of an immense quantity at Oil city by the conflagration at that place, still continues, and prices have advanced materially. Crude has advanced 14½@16c per gallon, and full 6c on refined. Sale of 2,000 bbls of the former 14½@16c, part free on board, and 600 bbls at $1.25 each. 200 bbls refined sold at 40@45, pkgs at $1.25 each 200 bbls refined in bond, for export, on private terms. We quote at 37½@40c in bond, and 45@50c paid. Benzine is selling, in lots at 35 to 40c. Burning fluid is held at $1.00.

Our New York Exchanges of Saturday quote crude very firm and advancing at 22½ to 25, and refined 43 to 45.

BALTIMORE COFFEE MARKET, Oct. 18, P. M.—Coffee—The inquiry for Rio was fair, but transactions were confined to 250 bags prime quality at 28 cts per lb. The market closed unchanged and firm viz: Ordinary to fair Rio 24½@26c; good to prime do at 25½@28c; Laguayra at 27c, and Java at 32@33c per lb. Stock of Rio 16,030.
