The Proposed Amendments to the Constitution.

A second meeting of ministers and laymen having in view certain proposed amendments to the United States Constitution, met this morning, at 10 o'clock, in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. Rev. John T. Pressly, D. D., in the Chair. The minutes of Friday's meeting were read by the Secretary and approved.

The Report of the Committee (made on Friday) was amended to read as follows, and then adopted:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that an amendment to the Constitution of the United States be adopted to substance, as follows:

1st. We, the people of the United States, recognizing the being and attributes of Almighty God, the Divine authority of the Holy Scriptures, the law of God as the paramount rule, and Jesus the Messiah, the Saviour and the Lord of all, in order to form a more perfect union, etc., etc.

2d. We suggest that a National Religious Council be held on the 4th of July next in the city of Pittsburgh, for the purpose of considering a proposed amendment.

3d. We request that a committee of five be appointed to extend the invitation contemplated in the second suggestion to the ecclesiastical bodies to meet this spring and to have the same extended to all other bodies throughout the nation.

The Chairman appointed Rev. Dr. Gracey, Rev. Dr. Douglas, Rev. Dr. Wilson, Rev. W. J. Reid and Rev. S. T. Stewart, to act as the committee mentioned in the third suggestion.

At 12 o'clock m. the meeting adjourned sine die.

Outrageous Assault—Sunday Liquor Selling and Shoulderism.

Some of the tavern keepers (we have no idea how many) had their backs doors open on Sunday, and a good deal of drinking was done in a quiet way. Among those who had been imbibing was a stevedore named Patrick Kane, a resident of Lawrenceville, who fell into the hands of some rowdies at the corner of High and Webster streets, in the Third Ward, and was beaten in an outrageous manner. It is alleged that he had quarrelled with or offended some persons in a tavern on Wylie street, and between nine and ten o'clock was followed down to the locality above named, when he was assaulted. He was struck a terrible blow on the left side of the nose, cutting the face, smashing the bridge of the nose, and knocking that very useful organ considerably out of line. Reallegro that the blow was inflicted with iron knuckles, (a most murderous weapon) and the appearance of the wound indicates that it was not made with the fist. The nose was flattened down and drifted to the right side, the cheek was laid open for about two inches, and the man was so stunned that he had to be conveyed to a neighboring house for treatment. The assault was as cowardly as it was aggravated, and it is hoped that the perpetrators will be arrested and punished. Kane is perfectly blind to-day, both eyes being entirely closed from the effects of the wound. The sight, however, is not injured.

Contraband Trade at the Penitentiary.

Among the prisoners released from the penitentiary, on Sunday, was a colored man named Charles McKenzie, a resident of Erie county. He had made arrangements, previous to his discharge, to supply one of the prisoners inside with a quantity of tobacco, and take shoes in exchange. McKenzie accordingly appeared, this morning, at an early hour, at a certain point opposite the prison wall, and on giving the signal agreed upon to the man inside (a prisoner employed in the cook house, we believe) he threw over the wall a pair of shoes and a butcher knife. McKenzie was to sell the shoes and buy tobacco, which was to be thrown over the wall for the use of the aforesaid cook.

The trigger was arrested by officer Bowden, with the shoes and knife in his possession, and on being taken before Capt. Birmingham, the Warden of the prison, he confessed to the arrangement as stated. He was badly frightened, apprehending that he might again be sent back, and endeavored to extract a promise from the Warden that he would not beat him if he was sent back again.

An information has been made against McKenzie for selling liquor to convicts, (the shoes which were thrown over the wall being the property of the State,) and he was committed to answer at the next term of Court.

Casualties in the Pittsburgh Rifles, B.

Mr. F. W. Moore, formerly Captain of Co. F, 46th Pennsylvania Regiment, has received a list of the casualties in that company, which was enlisted here under the name of the Pittsburgh Rifles, Co. B. The list was made out at Stafford Court House, Va., on the 5th inst., and is as follows:

Wounded—John Jordan, finger shot off. Henry B. Ewing, side.

Missing—Lieut. H. J. Davis, Corp. Cyrus Kade, Privates William Daily, Morris J. Davis, William S. Ryan, William Hayward, Archy M. Johnston, John McManus, Edward McTighe, Mathew Wilson, Charles A. Pittford and John Vodrey.

Casualties in the 63d Regiment.—Capt. H. S. Wright, Provost Marshal, has received a letter from an officer in the 63d Pennsylvania regiment, giving a brief account of the part taken by the Third Corps in the late battles. The corps suffered severely. The 63d crossed the river with over three hundred men, and lost over one hundred.

Lieut. Col. Kirkwood, who commanded, was severely wounded, having had his thigh bone broken.

Captain Weaver and Captain Smith were both killed.

The Second Lieutenant of Company D was wounded, and a man named Thompson was severely wounded and is missing.

Sergeant David Glass is missing.

No other names are given.

Mrs. Demorest's Quarterly Mirror of Fashions.—The ladies, of course, are well acquainted with the claims of this publication, and will only require us to announce that the number for the Summer of 1863, with colored engravings, a pattern wood-cuts, patterns, "New fall street new and and valuable dress patterns" is now ready. It may be obtained at Mr. Henry Miner's, next door to the Post-office, at Mr. J. W. Pittock's, opposite the Post-office, and at Mrs. W. A. Hildenfanay's, 140 Fifth street, near Wood.

Murder in Ohio County, Va.—During the arraignment growing out of the late veiled raid, a man named Carlton Creighton, residing in Ohio county, Va., while engaged in getting a coffin for his wife, was killed by some of a mob of men who had overtaken them. Creighton had his team with him, and fired a rifle ball through the wagon at the man who fired it said to be a Mr. McCoury, a resident of West Alexander, Washington county, and an elder in one of the churches there.

J. M. Buchfield, corner of Fourth and Market streets, has just received and is now opening a large and well selected assortment of cassimeres, fine black French cloths, which he is prepared to offer at very reasonable rates. In addition to this a large and beautiful assortment of dress goods, shawls, cloaks, etc., has also been received, to which the attention of ladies is especially directed.

Body Found.—The body of Mr. Jas. Elliott, aged twenty-nine years, drowned in the Monongahela, at Six Mile Ferry, on the night of the 14th of April last, was found on Saturday, 9th instant, by the Osts, opposite Nantucket. He was employed as a coke burner, at Lewis & Brownstone, about six miles in the country.

Drowned.—Mathew Flaherty, single man, residing at the Point, was drowned off the towboat Robert Lee, in the Allegheny, opposite the mouth of Sligo's Run, on Thursday last. His body has not been recovered. He was formerly on the boat, and had been on it but a short time.

Art Bazaar.—A man named George Fobes, employed in shifting cars at the union depot of the Pennsylvania Railroad, had his horse washed between two cars, a day or two since. He resides on Harrison street, in the Fifth Ward.

Pittsburgh Sanitary Committee.

The following copy of a communication has been handed to us by Wm. McCreery, Esq., and we trust all our readers will give it an attentive perusal: The Sanitary Committee of Pittsburgh have forwarded about $2,000 worth of vegetables and other supplies within the last week, and it is to be hoped that the generous public will continue to supply them with funds sufficient to carry out the work they have commenced, and thus save our brave brothers in arms from sickness and scourge:

Murfreesboro, Tenn., April 16, 1863.—Dr. J. S. Newberry, Secretary Western Department U. S. Sanitary Committee, Louisville—Dear Sir: The shipments forwarded from Nashville to this depot of Sanitary stores in the last three days have arrived in good order, and enable us to increase largely our issues to the hospitals and regiments.

Among the goods forwarded, the 175 bbls. onions and potatoes, and the smaller supply of pickles, dried apples, etc., from the Pittsburgh shipment are especially valuable at this juncture. I have visited all the hospitals and many of the regiments, and urged the Surgeons to issue more of their sick or those showing symptoms of scurvy suffer for the want of these vegetables. All seem highly gratified at the prompt supply of the articles now especially needed.

You can say unhesitatingly to the donors at Pittsburgh that by this one shipment, setting aside all questions of humanity, they have done more to increase the efficient fighting strength of the army than they would have done by securing a full regiment of new recruits. And you will remember that each regiment of volunteers obtained last summer cost the citizens who stayed at home, in the one item of bounties paid for recruits, from $50,000 to $100,000, and some of them very much more.

From those regiments, the ordinary hardships of the service have turned out the weak and sickly, and those who from unnoticed or concealed constitutional infirmities were unfitted for the service. In every new regiment raised, this weeding process is a hard but inevitable necessity. In all the regiments now in the field we have the hardy, inured soldiery. Thanks to the prompt response of the people, they are not to be allowed to succumb to the diseases frequently produced by the long continued use of "army rations." Let the supplies continue to come in as they have come for the last few days and the scurvy which has begun to show itself in very many of the regiments, will quickly disappear, and regiments of sturdy, stalwart men will be saved to the service at a very small part of the cost of merely recruiting untried men to fill their places. All this in addition to the suffering avoided or alleviated here and the sorrow and affliction prevented in the soldier.

Our system of distribution is such that no hospital or regiment can fail to receive its fair proportion, and I know of no surgeon here who does not heartily approve of our work, or does not heartily bless the munificence which is giving us the means of relieving the wants of their men. I find none who do not say that the system adopted is the best that can be devised to secure a steady and impartial supply to those most needing relief. There is no exception, that I am aware of, to the hearty co-operation we are receiving from all the military and medical authorities.

Yesterday I furnished additional tools and seed, and ten barrels more of potatoes for the hospital garden, and on visiting the grounds found between thirty and forty men busily at work preparing the ground, enclosing it and putting in the seed. The products of the garden will be ready when the supply of vegetables from the North temporarily fails, as it must of necessity in the latter part of the summer.

Let the supply be kept up now, and the blessings of those ready to perish will rest upon the donors, and they will be doing quite as much for the cause as they could do were they in the field in the ranks of new regiments.

Yours truly, M. C. READ,
Agent at Murfreesboro.

Railroad Accident.—On Saturday night, a workman named Michael Hilands, employed on the Pennsylvania Railroad, was thrown from the track at Bennington Station, near Gallitzin, and perhaps fatally injured. He is supposed to have been drunk, and to have fallen asleep on the track.

Arrival of Paymasters.—The Harrisburg Telegraph says: Major Errett and several other paymasters are in the city preparatory to assisting in the payment of the nine months' man, who are expected to arrive and be mustered out of service in this city.

The annual meeting of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny Orphan Asylum Society will be held in Excelsior Hall, Allegheny, on Tuesday next, at the hour of 3 o'clock p. m. The orphans will be present, and an address will be delivered.

Miss Martha Quinn is requested to call on Mr. John Mackin, 454 Penna. avenue, and get a package of money sent by her brother, James Quinn, of the 155th Regiment.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Mail Dispatches to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

WASHINGTON, May 9, 1863.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that in the case of income received partly from Government securities and partly from other sources, the exemption and deductions allowed shall, so far as practicable, be deducted from the latter, so as to give full effect to the provision taxing Government securities but one and a half per cent.

Measures purchased for maintaining lands by farmers are considered repairs.

Billiard tables kept for public use are taxable tax (10) dollars in addition to the license tax.

Quartermaster General's Office, Washington City, May 12, 1863.

OWNERS OF STEAM VESSELS are invited to send to the Quartermaster General's office tenders for their charter or sale.

Tenders should contain descriptions of the vessels, their dimensions, enrolled or registered tonnage, whether side-wheel or propeller, whether copper or iron fastened, size and power of engines and boilers, and should state the price at which they are offered, the long or short charter, with the estimated rates of the vessel in case of loss, or in case the government should prefer to purchase, instead of chartering.

Owners of steam vessels already in the service of the Quartermaster's Department are requested to make known to the Department any reduction in their present rates which they may be willing to grant, and also the price at which they will sell the last or present vessel.

All such tenders should be addressed to the Quartermaster General of the United States, at Washington, and should be addressed to "Proposals for the charter or sale of Steamers."

When received they will be considered, and the Department will endeavor to reduce the heavy expense attending army transportation upon the ocean and tide waters by substituting, whenever it can do so, chartered vessels of equal capacity for those now employed.

COMMERCIAL RECORD.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

Office of the Pittsburgh Daily Gazette, Monday, May 11, 1863.

Gold remains without material change in New York, being quoted to-day at 149. The rumor current on Sunday, that it had declined to 145, was premature. Here, the rates for coin are unsettled, and we quote nominally at 145 for Gold and Old Demand Notes; buying, and 135 for Silver. There is no change in Government Certificates of Indebtedness or Eastern Exchange.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is steady with a regular demand, while prices remain about as last quoted. We continue to quote at 6c for Shoulders; 7½c for Sides; 8½c for Plain Hams, and 10@11c for Plain and Canvassed Sugar Cured. Lard is quiet with small sales of City at 11c. Sales of 15 bbls Mess Pork at $18@18.25.

GRAIN—The Grain market is very quiet, the transactions being limited, and almost entirely of a local character. Sales of 2,000 bush Malt at $1.50; 1 car prime Ear Corn at 85c, and 800 bush Oats at 75c—delivered. Wheat is nominal with small sales of Red from wagon at $1.20, and White $1.40.

FLOUR—There appears to be no demand scarcely for Flour, and the market is very dull though prices remain unchanged. We note small sale from store at $5.00 for Extra, and $5.50@$7.00 for common to choice brands of Extra Family.

GROCERIES—The demand is fair and the market steady, while prices remain about as last quoted. Sugar ranges from 11¼c to 12½c; Coffee 33 to 34c, and Molasses 55@60c. Sale of 10 bbls new Molasses at 60c and 10 bgs Coffee at 33c.

POTATOES—are in good supply and dull, and prices are gradually dropping, ranging from 70 to 80 cents per bushel; sales of 600 bushels at 75c, and 50 bbls at $2.25 per bbl.

DRIED FRUIT—dull and unchanged; sale of 33 bbls Dry Apples at $1.37, and 25 bush prime Peaches at $3.25.

BUTTER & EGGS—unchanged. Sales of 10 bbls Butter at from 20 to 23c for common to prime Roll, and 10 bbls Eggs at 11c.

CHEESE—is firm with a fair demand at 14c for prime old W R, and 14½@15c for Hamburg and Goshen.

BEANS—steady with sales of 15 bbls prime Small White at $3.00 per bushel.

SALT—is steady with a regular demand at $1.75 per bbl for No. 1 Extra from store.

Pittsburgh Oil Market.

May 11.—There has been no particular change to notice in Crude to-day with the exception that it was a shade firmer. This may be attributed perhaps to the fact that it has advanced to $3.00@3.50 per bbl at Oil City, and $3.00@3.50 at the wells. We continue to quote at 13@13½c in bulk and 18½@19c in barrels, and we notice sales of 400 and 1100 bbls in bulk at 13½c; 103 bbls at 13½c; 140 bbls at 13½c, and 500 bbls at 19c, f.o.b. The rather unfavorable advice from New York does not appear to have much effect on the market either here or at the wells.

Refined is rather unsettled, there being considerable difference between the views of buyers and sellers. There is a continued good demand, both for present and future delivery, and the market is firm, though as we have before stated, prices are irregular. Good City brands of prime white oil may be quoted at 32@33c in bond, and at 40c free, though some holders are asking higher figures.

Benzine is inactive and dull, and in the absence of sales, we omit quotations. It has again declined in New York.

RIVER INTELLIGENCE.

The river continues to recede rapidly at this point, with scant eight feet in the channel, according to the pier marks last evening. The weather yesterday was clear and hot, a pretty indication of rain.

The only arrival since our last is the Emma Graham from Zanesville. The White Rose from Saint Louis, and the Cottage and Leclaire, from Oil City, are due to-day.

The New York was making preparations last evening to leave for Cincinnati and Louisville, with all the freight she could take, and a fair number of passengers.

The St. Louis Democrat, of Saturday, says:

The Emma Floyd left for Pittsburgh with a very small amount of freight. She may go up the Wabash or some other place, and fill out.

The Red Cloud has been placed in good business order, and is now looking for Pittsburgh. She will probably leave this evening.

The Eclipse, which leaves today for Pittsburgh, has succeeded in getting a good trip, but it will soon be better. She will get 2,000 barrels flour at Saint Mary's and Chester, and 100 hogsheads tobacco at Evansville.

The ill-fated steamer Majestic was insured for $10,000 in St. Louis and $25,000 in the city. Capt. Jno. P. Kelsey owned one half of her and Capt. Wm. H. Hadley, of this city, the other.

The Sir Wm. Wallace, Capt. Chenoweth, leaves for Cincinnati, Louisville and St. Louis this evening without fail. Shippers should bear this in mind and send down their freight as early in the day as possible. The Wallace will take freight and passengers for any point between here and St. Louis.

The fine, new and pretty steamer "Thistle," Capt. Brennan, is up for Cincinnati and Louisville this evening, positively.

The Iowa, Capt. Fulton, is announced for St. Louis and all points on the Upper Mississippi.

The prompt and punctual steamer Emma Graham, Capt. Ayers, returns to Zanesville on Monday, and is in Mr. W. G. Wilson still retains charge of the office.
