DECLARATIONS ON VITAL TOPICS.

On the whole, the platform is considered the best adopted by the Republicans of Pennsylvania in years, and to Messrs. O'Donnell, Elliott, Leeds, McManus, Smythe, Knight, and Davis, of Philadelphia, together with Brown, of Alleghany, and John Cessna, is the credit due for its construction and final passage in the committee. Appended is the full text of the paper:

The Representatives of the Republican Party of Pennsylvania, in State Convention assembled, do resolve: First While we recognize and respect the differences of opinion existing among us as to the course pursued by President Hayestowards the South, we are in hearty accord in honoring the patriotic motives which have guided him, and in hoping that the results of this policy will be peace, good will, and the complete recognition of the equal rights of all men in every section of the country, and to the efforts of his Administration to carry into effect the principles of the platform upon which he was elected we pledge our hearty and cordial support.

Second. The Electoral Commission having been created at the urgent solicitation of the Democratic party, and after the oft-repeated declarations of its leaders in both houses of Congress that no faction could cavil at its decisions, we witness with profound astonishment the assaults of that party creation because its decisions disappointed their expectations of official patronage; which assaults, so far as they seek to impair the confidence of the people in the just title of the President to his high office, are equally childish and foolish, but may become extremely mischievous in assisting to decisions of lawful tribunals.

Third. We respectfully earnestly entreat all members of the National and State Legislature to assist the return of prosperity to this great country by adopting such measures to that end as are in their power; to devote less attention to partisan strife, and more attention to the business interests of the country, in order that wise and proper laws may be passed to lessen the burdens of labor and increase its rewards; to encourage, and restore to activity legitimate industrial enterprises, and to enable the country to find a foreign market for its surplus products and manu-

Fourth. That the Republican party in passing the homestead law inagurated and is firmly committed to the Catz, John Moore. policy that the public lands belong to the people, and should be sacredly reserved to actual settlers free of cost to whoever will occupy them in good faith, and that all laws permitting the acquisition of more than one hundred and sixty acres of such public land by any one person should be repealed.

Fifth. That we are opposed to the policy heretofore prevailing of renewing patents by act of Congress, and we favor such a revision of the patent laws as will hereafter prevent the renewal of any patent.

Sixth. That the long and successful existence, under the laws of Congress, of the double-coin standard warrants us in demanding an early repeal of the various election boards will attend the legislation which demonetized to their duties thoroughly and see that silver and established an almost exclusive gold standard, and we therefore favor a return to the free use and be of good Republican standing, or uarestricted coinage of the dollar of 1798, and its restoration to the position the county ticket put in nomination it held as a legal tender during the eighty years of our national existence, thus preserving the equality of the commercial value of the silver dollar a regular poll list and tally sheet and with the gold dollar, keeping both in circulation.

Seventh. That the administration of Governor Hartranft calls for our warmest approbation. He has established a State policy which has justly endeared him to the people of this Commonwealth, and has amply justified the confidence placed in him. The steady reduction of the State debt during his administration and the successful refunding of a large portion of the debt at a lower rate of interest are the best possible evidences that the State has been well and economically maintained, and that the people have everything to hope from a continuance of the Republican party in power. Eighth. We are in favor of law, and against lawlessness and anarchy, with all their attendant horrors and election board. erimes. Equal rights in making laws impose equal duties in obeying them when made, and we tender our hearty thanks to Governor Hartranft and the officers and soldiers of his command for the prompt, and we hope the effectual, suppression of the lawless disturbances which recently occurred in entitled to a seat in the convention.

this State. Ninth. That we hold in equal respect the right of capital to control its this matter and send a full delegation investments, and of labor to determine the value of its service. That we deprecate any assertion by violence of the rights of either, and we assert it as the duty of all citizens to hold their respective rights within the just limitations of the law, and that any attempt to coerce either by unlawful means should be properly repressed by such lawful authority as the exigency decided opinion on any question of effort will do much to strengthen us, trade, and that it still cherishes the delusion that expressions of political pinions ought either to mean anything or nothing, as may best tend to secure the restoration of that party to the control of the offices and the treas-AND THE STATE ADMINISTRATIONS ury of the Commonwealth. We are confident that the intelligent citizens of this great State will continue to entrust the conduct of its affairs to the party which has been zealous in the maintenance of its credit, vigilant in defence of its honor, prompt in the enforcement of its laws, and whose past administration of its government has been honest and competent, and day of September. 1877 fearlessly faithful to the best interests condition within her border. Eleventh. That we renew our oftrepeated declarations in favor of said County Convention. adequate protection to American industry, and now that manufacturers are languishing and workingmen are out of employment, the common interest demands a still closer adherence to the protective policy which the Republicans of Pennsylvania have always sustained. The country has never yet prospered under free trade, as it never can or will, and, as all tariffs are levied primarily for revenue, it would be a bad government which is not just enough to its people to arrange its revenue imports so as to encourage and build up the growth of home manufacture.

Twelfth. That we favor such legislation in State affairs as will first substitute adequate salaries for fees; second, secure our municipalities from the dangers that attend the existing facilities for contracting debt, and third, provide adequate guards against a recurrence of the frequent and large losses to which the people who do business with banks and bankupon the august tribunal of its own ing institutions have heretofore been subject.

Republican County Convention.

At a meeting of the Republican County Committee of Elk County, at Ridgway, on Thursday, the 30th day of August, 1877, it was resolved that diminish the popular respect for the the several Townships and Boroughs in said county named below, shall invigorating effects. compose the election boards at the From J. A. Logan, W. W. Ames. It was also resolved by said committee that the Republican voters in each township and borough of Elk County meet on Saturday, Sept. 15, 1877, at 7 o'clock P. M. at their respective places for holding elections, for the purpose of electing delegates to the Republican County Convention, to be held at Hagerty's Hall, (over the post-office) on TUESDAY, SEPTEM. BER 18, 1877, at 2:30, o'clock P. M. In conducting the primary meetings, no persons are permitted to vote for delegates except such as are known to who shall pledge themselves to suport by the Republicans. It shall be the duty of each election board at the primary meetings to keep return a certified copy of the same with the credentials of the duly elected delegates to the County Con-

In case any member of the said election board shall be absent, at the time and place for holding said primary meetings, the two members present shall appoint a substitute who shall act in place of the absent member. If two or more of said board shall fail to attend as aforesaid then six or more Republican voters, who shall first reach the place of meeting, shall at the expiration of one bour, from the appointed time for opening the polls, proceed to fill the vacancies, and the acts and certificates of the persons so appointed shall be recognized as if done by the regularly constituted

I trust the members of the County Committee will attend to their duties thoroughly, and see that the duly elected delegates come to the convention with properly certified credentials, as in case of failure to produce such credentials the delegate is not n29t6. Let the Republicans of each and every township take an active interest in to the convention, for there are matters of importance to the Republican party of this county to come before this convention, and every part of the county should be represented. Let us see that the party is well organized for the campaign, as without thorough organization, which we now lack, can we hope to advance the interests of the party to whose principles we are attached or to gain strength in our Tenth. That the Democratic party county where we are at present in a of Pennsylvania is afraid to express a most decided minority. Organized present political importance, except while continued disorganization will its open declaration in favor of free effectually weaken and destroy in course of time the party. Other counties make organization their aim and in time succeed in overcoming as decided majorities as we now have to contend with. Let every Republican do his whole duty and good results will be sure to follow.
