The Barossa is perfectly harmless in its effects, working a cure by gently stimulating the liver to excrete from the blood all particles of matter that are poisonous to it, the stomach, heart, kidneys and other organs of the body.
When the liver is torpid or inactive, the whole system must suffer, undergoing a process of slow poisoning; the stomach is filled with carbonic acid and gas, inflaming the mucous membrane, or coating of the stomach. The Barossa neutralizes the acid, taking it up and carrying it off without further injury to the system. It is pleasant to the taste. Most people take it full strength from the bottle; a few mix it with a little water, which may be done if thought best.

George and South Carolina alone raise

There is said to be virtue in whistling, and Mr. Wachtel represents, as will be seen, some of the very best companies in the country, and as he is an energetic and accomonly ground for not according to call on him if they think of effecting insurance on the other." Perhaps the readers of the Ledger and Mail have a different opinion of the controversy which the word "hosti" would imply express.

J. S. Hyde will bring water, in a three-inch iron pipe, from the big spring on his Rough and Ready farm, for the use of his new store and boarding house, and we believe the intention is to supply all those on the line of the pipe, who desire it. The spring will furnish all the water necessary for a town much larger than Ridgway. The distance from the spring to the store is something over three thousand feet, and the cost of the pipe about $100.

"Pater put your trust in an old stocking than in a savings' bank" is a motto that will soon be regarded as one of the essential things to teach our children. This will be made clear, as, day after day, we read of the failure of these institutions where poor people have placed their hard-earned pennies and how a recently president has evicted the depositors and left for Europe. The latest case is that of the State Savings Institution of Chicago.

STATE FAIR AT ERIE.
The twenty-fourth annual exhibition of the Pennsylvania State Agricultural Society will be held at Erie commencing Sept. 24th, and continuing five days.

This old society has been in existence for twenty-six years. The officers are selected from each of the Congressional districts in the State, and are gentlemen of the highest character, energetic, enterprising and progressive.

The exhibitors are assured that every attention will be paid to their wants and convenience. Visitors will find such an exhibition as will fully justify them in spending a few days at the Fair. The exhibition will prove both instructive and pleasant.

The buildings erected on the splendid site along the lake shore in 1872 have all been refitted and repaired.
Machinery Hall been rebuilt and the Increased fully one-third.

From the indications thus early shown this exhibition promises to more than equal that of 1873, when every available inch of space was covered by machinery, stock, &c.

We advise all to visit the State Fair at Erie, and spend at least two days.

Death of Edwin Paine.
EDWIN PAINE first saw the light of day in the State of Maine, on the 30th day of June 1852, being at the time of his death a few months more than forty-five years of age.
When about six years of age his parents moved to New Hampshire, where he lived until the fall of 1859 when he came to this county and engaged in the lumbering business, a business he followed successfully the rest of his life, leaving at his death a fortune of from $20,000 to $25,000, a good part of it in cash. He was married to Miss Katherine McCreedy on the 25th of November, 1866, by Rev. J. A. Boyle, and leaves a family of six children, four boys and two girls, the youngest a girl, but a little over a year old.
He died from a spinal complaint, after an illness of several weeks, a great portion of the time being confined to his bed and suffering intense agony, on Thursday, Sept. 6th, 1877, and was buried in the Catholic cemetery at Centerville on the following Saturday. Mr.
Paine was an industrious man, and good citizen, and his early demise is sincerely regretted by his numerous friends and acquaintances.

While standing on a swing and propelling it William Tinger, of Huntingdon county was seriously injured. The Huntingdon Local says:
"The swing rose higher and higher, and when at its greatest height, Tin-ger's hold from some cause let go, and he was precipitated over the tops of some of the trees into the middle of the creek, a distance of about one hundred feet. The water in the stream was low, and the fall broke his thigh and high joint, and caused some less serious injury. He may recover but will be a cripple for life."

A GRIST AND SAW MILL BURNED.
—The destruction by fire of two fine, large mills, a grist mill and saw mill standing close together, on Soldier run, in Presoutville (east end of Reynoldsville), Jefferson county, on Saturday, the 25th ult., is a heavy loss
