The Christian Commission—Letter from a Lady.

W. P. WEYMAN, Esq., Receiver of Christian Commission.—Dear Sir: It may seem of small moment, but I cannot refrain from expressing to you, the good results I have witnessed from the labors of the "Christian Commission."

I commenced visiting Camp Howe Hospital, trying to aid the sick there, with what my skill and the Government allowances supplied for their comfort. I found these means limited enough, amounting to only a fraction of what was needed.

But when your kind agent came to the Hospital with his capacious trunks and boxes, filled with every necessary comfort, no one save an eye witness can realize or imagine the happy change. There was a new life and soul given to all around. The steward and his nurses could then emphatically nurse the sick, for every facility was provided.

On Thanksgiving Day, if the members of the Commission had seen the pleasant, grateful look of the soldiers as their soiled bed linen was taken away, and replaced by smooth, white sheets and pillow slips, and their heads carefully laid back on the new pillows, and heard the feverish but grateful lips exclaim, "O, but that's nice!" I know they would have taken new strength and courage in the work.

Not knowing the extent of the supply, I commenced with only two or three of the beds, but seeing how pleased these men were, and reading the unuttered desire in other places, I inquired if there was more. "O, yes, plenty—as many as you want," was the reply. I was so happy and gratified, while I selected from the well ironed and carefully prepared store, that I heartily wished I could personally thank the kind hands that provided them for the suffering ones. Nor are these all. I know of nothing that would add to the spiritual and physical man which the brotherly love of the Commission had not in store for all.

The books, I found whenever read to the sick, called forth their gratitude and praise. The selections from the work entitled "Something for the Hospital," often having the most happy application. The New Testament, bound in separate epistles with their beautiful plain print possesses especial attraction. One young man, in showing me how many he had read, remarked, "I never before thought much of reading the Testament, but now it has a new interest, and I do not feel like quitting until I have read a book through." The hospital is now disbanded, but the Commission have written a lesson upon the hearts of careful observers there which will not soon be forgotten.

Feeling that it is scarcely possible to overestimate the good that is now being accomplished by your Benevolent efforts,

I am truly and respectfully, yours,

OAKLAND, Aug. 24. M. K. W.

Card from Frank Kelly, Esq.

FRANK KELLY, Esq., a well known Democrat, and an Alderman of the Third Ward, writes the following:

Card to the Public.—A communication appears in the Post of Monday morning, over the signature of "Democrat," containing a statement to the effect that I informed the writer that my name was used as one of the secretaries of the late Union meeting without my consent, and further, that I informed him I would vote the Democratic ticket at the approaching election. Though I could well afford to pass over statements made by a party who withholds his name, still I deem it due to myself and others to give his assertions an unqualified contradiction. My name was used, as secretary of the meeting referred to, with my full consent and knowledge; and as to my voting the Democratic ticket, I have never made such an admission to the writer or any one else. I am a war Democrat—for my country and the Union all the time—and I shall vote in such a way as in my judgment will best subserve the interests of both.

FRANK KELLY.

Senatorial Nomination.

The Republican Senatorial Conferees met at Prosperity, Washington county, on Friday last, and nominated John Lindsey, Esq., of Greene county, as their candidate for the Senate at the approaching election. Upon the above announcement the Waynesburg (Copperhead) Messenger remarks: "Mr. Lindsey has always been identified with the Democratic party, and enjoyed a large degree of its favor and confidence; and notwithstanding the declarations of the opposition to the contrary, we do not believe he has accepted or will accept the nomination. He is absent from home, and has been for some weeks; but will return in a few days, we understand, when the matter will be determined."

CAMILLE.—Miss Heron made her first appearance here last evening, in her famous character of Camille, and she was greeted with a very large audience, nearly every seat in the parquette and dress circle being occupied. The play was exceedingly well rendered, and the lady expressed herself highly pleased with the manner in which she was sustained by the company. It was the object of Manager Henderson to make the piece entirely unexceptionable, and he has succeeded. It will be repeated this evening.

CLEVELAND AND PITTSBURGH RAILROAD.—The New York Times says the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Company will probably begin their half yearly dividends upon the stock of the road $3,950,000, out of its net cash earnings, after paying the interest on the Funded debt of $4,200,000, in the course of a few days. The present intention of the Directors, we learn, is to make the first dividend at the rate of 3 per cent. per annum, or 4 per cent. for the half year, payable about the 15th October.

THE MORRIS MINSTRELS.—This splendid troupe were greeted by an overflowing audience at Concert Hall last evening, and everybody seemed delighted with the performance. The music was excellent; the jokes and witticisms were capital, and the extravaganzas were of the most novel and amusing character. There will be another rush for seats tonight, and those who wish to occupy the front of the hall must go early.

OPENING OF THE NEW CASTLE AND BEAVER VALLEY RAILROAD.—This road, which connects with the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne & Chicago Railway, at Homewood Station, and runs to New Castle, in Lawrence county, will be opened on Monday next. The officers of the new line have made arrangements with the Pittsburgh and Chicago road to run passenger trains through to New Castle until such time as they can stock the road themselves.

"DEMOCRATIC" MEETING.—The "Democracy" held a "one horse" meeting in the Diamond, Allegheny, last evening. The "faithful" were called to order by "Commodore" Kounts, and J. R. Hunter, Esq., as President, was the only officer announced. Andrew Burke, Esq., was introduced, and when we left he was telling the few persons present how very wicked it was for the President to suspend the writ of habeas corpus.

DEATH OF CAPT. THRALL.—Capt. Henry Thrall, well known in military circles, died recently at the residence of his father-in-law, Geo. B. Benham, Esq., of Columbus, Ohio. He acted, at one time as Assistant Adjutant General to Gen. Rosecrans, afterwards to Gen. Fremont, and was subsequently transferred to Gen. Schenck, in Baltimore, where he remained a considerable time.

Dispatch from Mr. Stuart—Hospital Stores Greatly Needed.

Although the Christian Commission has been steadily forwarding stores to the army of Rosecrans, the following telegram from the Chairman of the Commission shows there is urgent need for increased and immediate supplies:

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 21, 1863.—Joseph Albree, Treasurer Christian Commission: Send battle-field stores by express to Nashville for the wounded of Rosecrans' army, and a good corps of delegates. Our field agent there is very urgent for more men. Make an extra effort. GEO. H. STUART.

Let all stores be sent immediately to the store room of the Commission, No. 79 Smithfield street, and they will soon be on their way to cheer and comfort the noble men of the Western army. The Aid Societies in the country are earnestly requested to forward their collections to W. P. Weyman, Pittsburgh—money to Joseph Albree, No. 71 Wood street.

FREE EXCURSION TICKETS.—Call at the Auction Rooms of Davis & McIlwaine, 54 Fifth street, for free excursion tickets to the sale of property at Turtle Creek, Thursday morning next. The train will leave the depot on Liberty street, at nine o'clock A. M., precisely. This sale embraces a great variety of real estate, to suit every class of purchasers. See advertisement.

MEETING POSTPONED.—The Union Republican meeting which was to have been held last night at Mrs. Pack's house in the Fourth Ward, Allegheny, was postponed on account of the inclemency of the weather till next Thursday evening. It will then be held at the Old Market House, in the Diamond.

MEETING AT HEADQUARTERS.—There will be a meeting held this evening, at Union Headquarters, Wilkins' Hall, Fourth street. Addresses will be delivered by distinguished speakers. The room is comfortably furnished with seats, and open to voters of both parties.

HELD TO BAIL.—David Robb and John Robb were each held to bail yesterday by Alderman Taylor, of the Ninth Ward, for assault and battery.

Samuel Rizer was held to bail on Saturday by the same Alderman, for throwing a stone and severely wounding George Jebil of the Ninth Ward.

FALL GOODS.—The attention of our readers is called to the advertisement of Messrs. White, Orr & Co. Their stock of dress goods is unusually fine, as well as the articles pertaining to a lady's outfit in dress. The cloaks and shawls are charming, and the assortment is so large that one can easily get suited.

HOUSEKEEPERS should attend the large sale of Furniture, Carpets, &c., this morning, at 10 o'clock, at M'Clelland's Auction, 55 Fifth street.

FOR FALL AND WINTER WEAR.—The summer is past, and by the morning's frost, we begin to apprehend, that fall and winter will be shortly upon us, and we must provide ourselves with the material to keep us comfortable. A cold fall coat, or a good and well-made overcoat are the very thing, and we do not know of any place where our readers would suit themselves better than at Messrs. W. H. McGee & Co.'s clothing establishment, corner of Federal street and Diamond Square, Allegheny. They have also received a complete assortment of gentlemen's furnishing goods, and a great variety of new patterns for waistcoating, &c.

ATTENTION, RETURNED VOLUNTEERS!—The attention of our country's brave defenders recently returned from the seat of war, and of the public in general, is again directed to the very extensive and handsome assortment of the latest styles of French, English and American piece goods, for pants, coats and vests, lately received by Messrs. John Weier & Co., Merchant Tailors, No. 126 Federal street, Allegheny. A tasteful selection of gentlemen's furnishing goods will also always be found on the shelves of the establishment, together with a lot of ready-made clothing, got up in the best manner.

REPUTATION ESTABLISHED.—S. Bandall, Esq., Sullivansville, N. Y., says, in a letter recently, of Mrs. S. A. Allen's Zylobalsamum: "It is the best dressing for the hair we can get, and the most called for. Her Hair Restorative is a valuable remedy for baldness and greyness. I could procure more testimonials, but their fame is already too well established to require them.

PRYOR REDUCED TO THE RANKS.—A Richmond paper says:—A letter from the Army of Northern Virginia says that ex-Brigadier General Pryor and all the members of his staff are now in the ranks of the 3d Virginia cavalry, of Fitz Hugh Lee's brigade. Says the writer, Gen. Pryor was put on double duty for missing "roll call," not long since. Lieutenant Colonel——, of a Virginia regiment, is also a private in the Third Virginia. This war has conclusively shown that distinguished politicians do not always make successful warriors.

THE death of Charles Putnam is announced in a paper of Marietta, Ohio. He was a great-grandson of the famous General Israel Putnam, of the war of independence, and inherited many of the virtues of his noble ancestor. He was distinguished in the anti-slavery cause in Ohio, and died from illness of over-fatigue in repelling Morgan's invasion.

BOUCHER.—On Sunday evening, Sept. 27, 1863, WILLIAM HENRY, only child of C. A. and Anna M. Boucher.

The funeral will take place from the residence of his parents, No. 197 Fourth street, corner of Ross, on WEDNESDAY MORNING, at 10 o'clock.

THE LATEST NEWS
BY TELEGRAPH

OUR SPECIAL DISPATCHES.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette

WASHINGTON CITY, Sept. 21, 1863.

SECRETARY CHASE NOT GOING TO OHIO.

The heavy press of business in the Treasury Department will probably render Secretary Chase's visit to Ohio, during the pending canvas impossible, much, undoubtedly, to his regret.

FRAUD ON THE ENROLMENT BOARD.

In many cases it it understood that able bodied men presented to the Board of Enrolment, and accepted, are replaced before they arrive at the general rendezvous, by feable men answering to the same name, unfit for military duty. To guard against this trick the Provost Marshals will hereafter be held responsible for the delivery of the identical man passed and accepted at the rendezvous.

INCREASED RATE OF FIVE-TWENTIES.

Since the prompt delivery of five-twenties have commenced, the rates have materially increased.

INTERNAL REVENUE RECEIPTS.

Receipts from internal revenue to-day were four hundred and eighty-five thousand dollars. Receipts have for some time presented a steady increase.

MOVEMENTS OF THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC.

The movement of the Army of the Potomac commenced so as to send forward Buford's cavalry across the Rapidan. The crossing was effected without opposition. It is prophesied that but a feeble force of rebels intervenes between Meade and Richmond. The commanders who have resisted the accumulated evidence of heavy detachments sent from Lee's army southward, now seem inclined to admit the fact since the news of the Chattanooga battle has began to arrive. Rosecrans is fighting the whole Southern Confederacy.

THE VICKSBURG PAROLED REBELS RE-ARMED AND PUT IN THE FIELD.

The Bureau of Exchange here received a letter, a day or two since, from Commissioner Ould, at Richmond, notifying them that 13,000 prisoners paroled by General Grant had been returned to the field, and in exchange referred to the same number of our prisoners delivered at City Point. The whole statement in regard to the delivery was a lie. Not a man of ours had been returned for these 13,000, who were then armed and have doubtlessly participated in the late battles at Chattanooga.

From Missouri—Steamer Plundered—Affairs in the Border Counties—Arrival of General Hunter—Whereabouts of Quantrell and Coffee.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 21.—The steamer Marcella was boarded and plundered on the 15th, at Dover Landing, Lafayette county. Three soldiers of the 5th State Militia, returning home on furlough, were taken two miles into the woods and shot. The boat was not burned.

During the past week five thousand persons crossed the river at Lexington, mostly refugees from the border counties. Gass county, under Ewing's order, is mostly depopulated.

General Hunter has arrived to preside over the commission to investigate the burning of the steamer Ruth.

A Leavenworth special to the Democrat states that a messenger who came into Fort Scott on Wednesday night, reports Coffee at Cowskin Prairie, with fifteen hundred men. Quantrell had passed Ball's Mills with most of his command, on his way south, it is supposed to join Coffee. A company of the 21 Kansas colored, and a company of the 3d Wisconsin cavalry are a few miles from Coffee's rendezvous. Blunt is on his way up, with a small escort.

Lee's Army in Line of Battle—Railroad Repaired.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—All the Richmond papers of the 16th and 17th, received here, mention that Lee's army has been in line of battle for some days, between the Rapidan and the range of mountains, but they seem to intimate that it will remain on the defensive. This would seem to indicate that Lee's army is not strong, and is accepted as confirmatory to the reports that troops have been sent south from Virginia.

Another special to the Post, dated the 19th, says the railroad north of Washington, which was washed away, has been repaired.

WILLIAM A. WARD, DENTIST, Henshaw's Building, 3d floor, back; entrance on Liberty street. Office hours from 9 a. m. till 3 p. m. In order to a proper understanding on the part of those who may call upon me, I deem it my duty to designate some of the things common in the practice of dentistry, which I do not do. In the first place I do not give a day's credit to any one. I do not make cheap sets of teeth; I do not sacrifice, by their extraction, sound, healthy teeth, in order to insert artificial ones; I do not, in any instances destroy the nerves of teeth, thereby rendering them liable to the most painful disease, and their early loss the more certain. These, and numerous other things which I could specify, I do not do. In the choice of materials proper for filling the teeth, I make but a limited use of gold, experience having proved it the least of all effectual in their preservation. In all cases, however, involving the appearance of the teeth, I do not hesitate to make use of it. As to the quality of fillings or plugs of gold, a number of which I inserted in the years of '32-'39 are still bearing testimony to my workmanship, or perhaps I should say mechanical skill. sy18:tf
