WEDNESDAY MORNING—OCT. 14, 1863.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

The Result in Allegheny County.

We congratulate our readers upon the glorious result of the election held in Allegheny county yesterday. At present writing (two o'clock A. M.) we have returns from fifty-nine districts, leaving but seventeen districts yet to hear from. In the districts already in, the result for Governor foots up as follows:

Curtin	14,206
Woodward	8,225
Curtins majority	5,981

We have large Union gains in nearly every district, as compared with the vote for Governor in 1860, and the majority for the Union ticket will not fall much short of 8,000. The reader is referred to the table for the vote in the several districts heard from.

We omit the returns of the vote cast for the county officers—first, because they are very meagre; and secondly, because there are no doubts whatever of the triumphant election of the entire ticket. We shall publish them today.

Grand Political Jubilee!

Concert Hall was thrown open for the reception of the loyal public last evening, having been secured by the Executive Committee, for the purpose of receiving and making public the returns of the elections held in Pennsylvania and Ohio. The hall was densely packed, at an early hour, and the scenes which followed the announcement of success after success of the Union ticket, beggars all description.

The returns were read off by Thomas J. Bigham, Esq., in his stentorian voice, and peculiarly amiable style. As he warmed up, he became highly excited, and his extraordinary gestures, and most ludicrous contortions of countenance, kept the audience in a perfect uproar of laughter and applause.

Whenever a lull occurred, the audience would demand a speech, and in this way exceedingly patriotic and telling addresses were extorted from John M. Kirkpatrick, Esq., Thomas M. Marshall, Esq., B. G. Childs, Esq., Hon. Wm. F. Johnston, Hon. J. K. Moorhead, Hon. James L. Graham, Major A. M. Brown, Col. T. M. Bayne, Hon. P. C. Shannon, and others.

The German Glee Club was present, and favored the audience with a song.

Mr. Marshall, about midnight, obtained a copy of the Post, just issued, which contained a very doleful leader, acknowledging the defeat of the traitor Woodward, and coming to the sage conclusion that "the Democrats would submit with the best grace in the world." This "leader," was read and commented upon by Mr. Marshall, to the infinite amusement of the audience.

Mr. Bigham was then called upon for a song, and attempted to "start up" Auld Lang Syne, but he signally failed. The failure, however, was just what the audience expected and desired, as everybody knows Mr. Bigham "has no ear for music." This excitement at this point was indescribable.

Capt. McHenry then recited the pretty army song—"I fights mit Sigel," which was received with uproarious applause.

Mr. Bigham and Mr. Marshall followed in stirring and rollicking speeches, after which the audience sang "old John Brown," with thrilling effect.

The audience dispersed about one o'clock, fully satisfied with the result of the elections in Pennsylvania and Ohio, and rejoicing at the overwhelming defeat of treason and Copperheadism.

To-Night Messrs. Goodwin & Co's. celebrated Polyorama of the War opens at Masonic Hall, and because of the great success it has everywhere met with, we expect to see an immense audience present. This is without doubt the finest painting in this country, and whenever it is exhibited meets with unexampled success—the largest Halls in the United States being too small to accommodate the crowds that are eager to gaze upon its matchless beauties. The management evinces a commendable liberality in the various departments of their business. They will, we learn, during their brief stay in Pittsburgh, give the entire receipts of an exhibition for the benefit of the Subsistence Committee. This generous act, performed by them when here on January last, won for themselves a host of friends.

But few, if any entertainments have ever met with that distinguished success that everywhere attends this, the original Painting of the War, and we do not hesitate to admit that Masonic Hall will be the scene of an overwhelming throng, hundreds of whom will be unable to gain even an entrance to the Hall. All, therefore, who would secure a seat must go very early or suffer a disappointment.

Effie Henderson.—It was our intention to notice the return of this talented actress earlier, but the heavy press of business is our only excuse. We must say that to record this estimable lady's presence again amongst us cause great pleasure to very many, indeed; and when we announce the common rumor of her again appearing before us upon the stage, we feel assured that the gratification is no less great to others than ourselves. Her Western engagement, from all accounts, were one continued triumph. We shall earnestly look for the announcement of her first appearance.

The Zanesville Courier says great competition has been going on among the coal dealers of that city, for a few weeks past, and the article has risen considerably. The outside demand has been greater than ever before, which has caused the advance price. Large contracts have been made in Cincinnati and other places, the coal to be delivered at the depot in Zanesville, for eight cents per bushel.

Mrs. Mary Ann Smith is now in this city, and desires information of her husband, Thos. C. J. Smith, a machinist, from Macon, Macon county, Mo. He left this city about ten years ago, and returned here about a month since. Any information concerning him will be thankfully received by her. She can be addressed through the Pittsburgh Postoffice.

Accident.—On Monday morning an accident occurred on the line of the Steubenville Railroad, resulting in the serious injury of a man named Wm. Lynch. The injured man was digging at an embankment, when it caved in, crushing him to the ground, breaking both legs, and otherwise injuring him. He was removed to Mercy Hospital.

Destructive Fire.—A most destructive fire broke out this morning, about one o'clock, in the Diamond. The grocery stores of Mr. D. Haworth, Mr. James Brownlee, and Mr. Wm. Haslage, Nos. 14, 16 and 18, Diamond, caught fire and were badly damaged. We have neither time nor space for particulars this morning.

Prof. Robert Kidd will give a course of instruction in vocal culture, elocution and light gymnastics, in Curry's Normal Institute, beginning Oct. 19th, and continuing ten weeks. Terms—special day or evening classes, meeting twice a week, $5; Saturday afternoon class, $3.

POSITION OF THE ARMIES IN VIRGINIA.

That both armies of the Potomac are moving and that nothing more serious than cavalry skirmishes have, as yet, taken place, are the facts of the day. All beyond is rumor, or surmise, or contraband. A Proclamation from Gov. Gamble—Affairs in Arkansas—Union Prisoners Murdered.

St. Louis, Oct. 13.—Gov. Gamble issued a long proclamation, charging that many evil-disposed persons are endeavoring to produce disaffection toward the State Government, with the avowed purpose of overthrowing it by violence should other means fail. Among this class of persons are some holding commissions from the State Government, and to effect this scheme the circulation of the most extraordinary falsehoods and misrepresentations regarding the purposes of the State Government are resorted to. He puts the people of the State on their guard against the plots of these conspirators, and he announces his determination to use all the force at his command to sustain the laws, preserve the peace of the State, and punish those who disturb it. Also, he admonished them that as it is the highest political rights of citizens to vote at elections, any interference, especially by the military, with the rights of qualified voters, will be regarded as an offence of the greatest magnitude. The Governor makes a lengthy defense of his own loyalty, and vindicates the State Government against the accusations of its enemies.
