AFFLICTION

BY N. W. WRITE.

Beside a cheerful winter fire,
Three children drew their little chairs,
And laughed and talked with busy tongues,
Of cakes, and toys, and childish cares.

The mother, with an aspect mild,
Sat smiling at their guileless joy;
While frequent from her knee she raised,
And kissed a beauteous infant boy.

One was not there to glad the scene,
For duty tasked his nightly toil:
And for his wife and little ones,
From this 'twere peril to recoil.

And these were all the world to him—
His wife and prattling household band:
Home's soft endearments smoothed his cares,
And labor met a willing hand.

But ah! that fated hearth—that shrine—
That idol of his full heart's all!
There sorrow fixed her sable throne,
And gloom o'erspread it like a pall.

Death came in secret to those babes,
And touched them in the vernal hours;
And one by one their pulses ceased—
They withered like the gentle flowers.

Meekly the mother bowed her head,
While swift the scalding tear-drops came:
"The Lord did give and take away,
And blessed be His holy name!"

Within the village church-yard, paled,
Four little graves are side by side,
And one large slab, that covers all,
Tells who's beneath, and how they died.

Independence, February, 1847.

The Work of God in France.

It affords us sincere pleasure to witness the progress of Scripture truth in France, by whatsoever instrumentalities the work may be accomplished. For a number of years it has been common for American Christians to consider themselves specially adapted to the work of evangelizing that interesting nation, and yet American zeal has hitherto contributed but very little to the undertaking. We have admired the enterprize and perseverance of our British brethren, we have deplored the national prejudices, in the way of their Missionary operations, we have rejoiced that no such lots or hindrances are in our way, and—we have done nothing for the conversion of France. In the meantime, our British brethren have been toiling hard, and with all their disabilities have done something for their neighbors—God has blessed their labors. A number of valuable men, such as colporteurs and local preachers, have been brought into the field, by their instrumentality; and what is of perhaps greater importance, the National Reformed Church has been quickened and stimulated into action, and is putting forth more powerful efforts than France has realized since the Revolution.

Converts from Popery are multiplying in almost every direction. It is estimated by the Foreign Aid Society, that within three or four years past no less than twenty thousand souls have been redeemed from Romish superstition and ignorance, and brought into the different evangelical communions which are organized in the kingdom. Among the colporteurs employed by the Evangelical Society of France, one hundred and two are converted papists.

It is worthy of remark that the gospel progresses with greater celerity in rural than in urbal districts. In many of the former, thousands of Romanists are calling loudly for Protestant pastors to come over and help them: and when a minister enters one of those departments, he is received with every demonstration of delight. Papal and priestly influence is on the wane, and the truth, as it is in Jesus, is winning glorious triumphs. Those who have taken up the idea, that he who has seen Paris has seen all France, will be astonished to learn that while the Reformed religion has but a small hold upon the inhabitants of the great Metropolis, there is a powerful and widespread excitement among the population of La Haute Vienne, La Charente Inferieure, and L'Yonne. This awakening has been brought about, under the blessing of God, upon the labors of those who are employed by the Evangelical Society. The Baptist Missionaries also give encouraging statements in reference to the work under their supervision. In these gracious outpourings of the Holy Ghost we greatly rejoice; and are encouraged to hope that they may prove to be the commencement of a great moral revolution which shall extend all over the continent of Europe. To movements like these do we look rather than to any scheme or contrivance to secure the unity of the Church in order to concentrate its power for the conversion of the world.

Mason and Dixon's Line.

In political discussion, we hear so often of Mason and Dixon's Line, that perhaps it may not be amiss to copy the following account of it from the columns of the Norristown Register:

"As early as the year 1682 a dispute arose between William Penn and Lord Baltimore respecting the construction of their respective grants, of what now form the States of Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland. Lord Baltimore claimed to and including the 40th degree of north latitude; and William Penn mildly yet firmly resisted the claim. The debatable land was one degree of 69 English on the south of Pennsylvania, and extended west as far as the State itself.—The matter was finally brought into the Court of Chancery in England, and, after tedious delays, on the 15th day of May, 1750, Lord Chancellor Hardwicke made a decree awarding costs against Lord Baltimore, and directing that commissioners should be appointed to mark the boundaries between the parties.—The commissioners so appointed met at Newcastle, on the 15th day of November, 1755, and, not being able to agree, separated. After further litigation and delay, the whole matter was settled by the mutual agreement between the surviving heirs of the original litigants.

"In the year, 1761, Mr. Charles Mason, of the Royal Observatory, was sent to Pennsylvania, with all the needful astronomical instruments, to measure a degree of latitude. That duty he performed, and a report of his proceedings was made to the Royal Society of London, for the year 1767.

"This Mr. Mason and Jeremiah Dixon were appointed to run the line in dispute, which appears to have been done in conformity with the Lord Chancellor's decree. This is the famous 'Mason and Dixon's line,' and the boundary between Pennsylvania on the south and Maryland on the north. Any one desirous of more detailed information will find it in Douglass' History of America, published in Boston in 1751; Proud's History of Pennsylvania, the Memoirs of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, and Vesey's Reports, 352, Penn vs. Lord Baltimore."

No one can estimate the value of a pious, discreet, and faithful mother.

MEDICAL.

DR. ROSE'S DESERVEDLY CELEBRATED CHRONO-THERMEL MEDICINES.

CONSISTING of his Prophylactic Syrup, a certain remedy for all CONSUMPTIVE and Scrofulous affections; Cough Syrup, Croup, Syrup, Concentrated extract of Sarsaparilla, decidedly superior to all other extracts, having given relief when all others have failed, being through a new process more concentrated than any other ever offered to the public. ASTHMATIC ELIXIR, having effected permanent cures of that stubborn disease, when of more than 10 years standing, hence it stands without a rival in that much dreaded disease.

Dr. Rose's LINIMENT, for all cases of weakness or pain, and a complete substitute for blisters.

Dr. Rose's TONIC MIXTURE, an infallible cure for chills and fevers, and indeed is more of a specific for fevers of all kinds than bark or Quinine.

Dr. Rose's INCOMPARABLE VERMIFUGE, where known, is used in preference to any other Vermifuge preparation.

Dr. Rose's TONIC ANTI-DISPEPTIC, for all diseases of the Stomach and bowels, Cholera affections, &c. Too high an encomium cannot be passed on the merits of this medicine, in the cure of Dispepsia, and all diseases that result from weakness of stomach or bad digestion.

Dr. Rose's FEMALE PILLS, a most valuable remedy for those general complaints to which females are subject.

Dr. Rose's TONIC ALTERATIVE PILLS—No pill ever before offered the public so happily combines the qualities of a valuable medicine as an anti-dispeptic, LIVER or Stomachic pill, correcting those diseases, and thereby preventing consumption. A young Lady 25 years of age, having a diseased liver for some time, her strength prostrated and appetite gone, was completely restored in six weeks by the use of the Anti-dispeptic mixture and these pills alone.

Dr. Rose's CHRONO-THERMEL STRENGTHENING PLASTER, for weakness of the back, side, breast, &c.

Dr. Rose's SPECIFIC EPILEPSY, the most certain remedy for all cases of fits or convulsions, whether in infants or adults. So certain a specific is it for this formidable disease that the most obstinate cases, and those too of long standing, have yielded at once.

Dr. Rose's RHEUMATIC MIXTURE—After many years of diligent research the compound was discovered, and is never failing efficacy places it in efficiency above all others for the cure of Rheumatism.

Dr. Rose's ASTHMA COMPOUND, a certain remedy for spitting blood, indeed for discharges of blood whether from Lungs, bowels or other parts of the body.

Dr. Rose's SYRUP for Cholera and Bowel complaints—This mixture will effectually cure bowel complaints, Dysentery, Cholera Morbus, and Cholera. At the time the Asiatic Cholera was raging in Philadelphia it was found to be the most successful in arresting the virulence of the disease, and of all those who used it.

What may be said of one of these remedies may be said of all; their value will only be appreciated by those who try them. Letters from those who have been cured of the various maladies that abound in the human body might be given, but we are willing to rest the matter on the merits of the compound. We have in our possession testimonials in various forms, so condensed and efficacious that its healing power has astonished many. A case of Cancer, occurring in the wife of the late Governor of Delaware, was completely cured in a few months. The cancer had been twice cut out by prominent Surgeons, and renewed itself with increased malignity, yet notwithstanding the debility of Constitution and removal of the soft parts, the use of the Syrup proved completely removed every vestige of the disease.

Cases innumerable of the various cards that have followed the use of these remedies are in our possession, but it is not deemed necessary to enumerate them as the use of them will recommend them to all.

"I HAVE SOUGHT AND FOUND IT."—Eureka.

CONSUMPTION CAN BE CURED BY USING DR. DUNCAN'S EXPECTORANT REMEDY.

Cincinnati, O., March 24, 1847.

Dear Sir—This is to certify to the public, particularly to those afflicted with a disease of the Lungs, or Consumption, that in the Spring of 1843 I was attacked with a severe cold which soon became seated upon my lungs, showing all the symptoms of an approaching Consumption. My cough was tight and troublesome, attended with copious night sweats; I spit up daily a considerable quantity of blood, mixed with phlegm, which was quite matter. My situation became serious and alarming. During this time I was attended by two of our most skillful Physicians; they did the best they could for me, when at length they gave up all hopes of my recovery, thinking me that nothing more could be done—that my lungs were fatally diseased, and beyond remedy. I was then persuaded by a friend of mine to make a trial of Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy, which my Physicians persisted against, saying that this medicine would do no good, and would spit me more to my suffering. I told them it was my last and only hope, and that if I must die of the disease, (which was evident to me,) there would be nothing lost. So I sent to the Cincinnati Office and obtained 3 bottles of the truly Valuable Medicine, and commenced using according to the directions, which, instead of adding to my suffering, immediately gave me relief, at once arresting the troublesome Cough raising the pain and tightness in my Chest, giving me a new life and strength, which soon enabled me to be about again. This medicine continued its good work, which is so nobly commenced, until I was made a sound man. I have since been attending to my business, (upwards of 3 years) and still am healthy as I wish. I have recommended Dr. Duncan's Expectorant Remedy in many instances to those similarly afflicted and it has always proved successful so far as I have witnessed its effects. My sister is using this medicine at present, for a Diseased Liver and an Affection of the Lungs, which she has suffered with for some time; she has nearly recovered by the use of this medicine, and I confident she bottles that I take with me to-day will complete her cure. I am sorry to know that there are thousands of valuable persons wasting away with this dreadful destroyer—CONSUMPTION—When it only possible for them to procure this medicine in time, before it be too late, many lives might be prolonged and their families and relations again rendered happy. This medicine will give instant relief, and at the same time arrest the hard and painful Cough, remove the tightness in the Chest give strength to the enfeebled and emaciated frame, and in most cases, I am certain, will perform a perfect cure.

Consumptive's Consolation.

Does sickness weigh upon your heart?
Or pains afflict your breast?
Try Dr. Duncan's Healing Art,
And it will give you rest.

It clears away the misty cloud
Disease spreads over the soul,
And whispers through the gloomy shroud,
"Your health may yet be whole."

See yonder rose of lovely hue
Its withering with decay;
It scarcely ups the morning dew,
Before it fades away.

The Worm of Death was in the stem,
And strengthened as it grew—
And when it bloomed, (a lovely gem,)
It nipped through and through.

That Worm of Death might be defied,
If Dr. Duncan's art were tried;
And many lovely damsels saved
The fate of an untimely grave.

Recommended by Dr. Castle, 293 Broadway, one of our best Dentists, and by most of the principal operators in the United States, and even extensively used by the Nobility of England and France.

A large proportion of the disease, I is afflict mankind arise from some derangement of the stomach or bowels, which a timely use of the Cubeb or Lozenges would effectually obviate. Persons of bilious habits should always have a box at hand, and take a dose whenever they feel the least derangement in the bowels. A judicious use of these Lozenges would prevent thousands of cases.

SOMETHING IN SEASON—We learn the Dr. Jayne's medicine, for the cure of the SORE THROAT, has been doing wonders during the late unpleasant weather under foot. It is better to attend to slight colds in time, and to procure the remedy applied from skilful physicians, than from unknown and irresponsible quacks. CITIZENS PORTABLE BOAT LINE.

1847.

FOR THE TRANSPORTATION OF ALL KINDS OF MERCHANDISE TO AND FROM Philadelphia, Baltimore, New York and Boston.

THE encouragement this line has received since its commencement, has induced the proprietors to increase the stock by adding a number of first class boats; and instead of giving receipts as heretofore as agents, we will give our own receipts for freight shipped by this line.

The boats are all portable, consequently freight is taken the whole distance without transhipment, thereby preventing damage from frequent handling to the boats, and as each boat is owned by the Captain who runs them, which is a sufficient guarantee that there will be no delay on the route.

A year has been entirely relieved of the most painful chronic disorders, some of which have completely baffled all former efforts of medical art. Indeed many of the first physicians of this city, who disapprove of the Galvanic and Magnetic Machines, constantly recommend the application in their practice, and with the exception of those who are too prejudiced to give it a trial, the invention has received unanimous favor with the most intelligent among the American Faculty. MEDICAL AND SURGICAL OFFICE, No. 65 DIAMOND ALLEY, a few doors below Wood street, towards the market.

DR. BROWN,

Having been regularly educated in the medical profession, and been for some time in general practice, now confines his attention to the treatment of those private and delicate complaints for which his opportunities and abilities peculiarly qualify him.—

Eleven years assiduous devotion to the study and treatment of these complaints, during which time he has enjoyed the most extensive practice and has cured more patients than can ever fall to the lot of any private practitioner, gives him every reason to place the utmost confidence in the speedy, permanent, and satisfactory cure of all afflicted with delicate diseases, and all diseases arising therefrom.

Dr. Brown would inform those afflicted with private diseases which have become chronic by improper treatment, or by the use of any of the common nostrums of the day, that their complaints can be radically and thoroughly cured, by having given his attention to the study of such cases for many years, and succeeded in hundreds of instances in curing persons of inflammation of the bladder, and the kindred diseases which often result from those cases where others have consigned them to hopeless despair. He particularly invites such as have been long and unsuccessfully treated by others to consult him, when every satisfaction will be given them and their cases treated in a careful, thorough and intelligent manner, pointed out by long experience, study and investigation, which it is impossible for those engaged in general practice of medicine to give any one class of disease.

☞ Hernia or Rupture—Dr. Brown also invites persons afflicted with Hernia to call, as he has paid particular attention this disease.

Skin Diseases; also Piles, Fistula, etc., speedily cured Charges very low.

LIVER COMPLAINT—Another cure performed by using the original, only true and genuine Liver Pill.

ABERDEEN, Brown county, Ohio, March 20, 1847.

Mr. R E Sellers: In April last my wife was attacked with Liver Complaint, and had the advice of two physicians who tried various remedies with producing any good effect. Having heard of your celebrated Liver Pills, I concluded to give them a fair trial. I purchased one box of Mr. Scott, Aberdeen, and gave them according to the directions, by which she was greatly relieved. I procured a second box, which entirely cured her, and she now enjoys excellent health. I have used them myself, and pronounce them the best family medicine I have ever tried. Yours, respectfully,

MEDICAL.

SAND'S SARSAPARILLA: For the removal and permanent cure of all diseases arising from an impure state of the blood or habit of the system, viz:—

Scrofula, King's Evil, Rheumatism, Cutaneous Cutaneous Eruptions, Tumors or Pimples on the Face, Blotches, Blotches, Blood Boils, Chronic Sore Eyes, Ring Worm, or Tetter, Scald Head, Enlargement and pain of the Bones and Joints, Stubborn Ulcers, Syphilitic Symptoms, Scirrhus or Lumbago, and Diseases arising from an injudicious use of Mercury, Lactico or Drapery, Exposure or Imprudence in Life. Acute, Chronic Constitutional Disorders.

IT is timely administration has been attended w. 4 the happiest results in many anomalous affections, but is chiefly intended to fill the void which exists between cathartic and aperient medicines; hence its media operandi is that of an alterative directly—indirectly, proving a lasting tone to the system.

It is highly concentrated for convenience and portability, containing nothing but the expressed essence, and is the representative of the Sarsaparilla Root, in the same manner as Quinine is of Peruvian Bark, or Morphine of Opium. It is an established fact, that a few grains of either Quinine or Morphine contains all the medicinal value of a large quantity of the crude substances, hence the superiority of these preparations and no invalid would desire to drink a gallon mixture when a half pint contained the same medicinal value. The Sarsaparilla can be diluted when taken agreeable to the directions, and made to suit the taste of the patient.

☞ The following certificate addressed to the Agents at Chicago, furnishes conclusive proof of its great value in cases of Fever Sores.

CHICAGO, Ill. Sept. 18, 1846.

Messrs. Stebbins & Reed—Gents: In May, 1845, I obtained at your store a bottle of Sand's Sarsaparilla, and was then confined to my bed, without sleep for a week, occasioned by violent pain from a regular fever sore of long standing, on my right leg. My physician advised me to have the limb amputated, saying it was the only means likely to preserve my life. After using half the bottle the pain began to subside, and by the time I had used nearly three bottles, I was able to dispense with my crutches, and before I had finished the fourth bottle, I was as well and sound as ever I had been. I have no hesitation in saying that Sand's Sarsaparilla was the means, under Providence, of saving my limb and life. I most cheerfully recommend it as doubtless the best article extant for the purification of the blood

Yours, most respectfully, JAMES MILLER

The following certificate is only another link in the great chain of testimony to its merits:

SOUTH BOSTON, Canada East, April 18, 1846.

MESSRS. SANDS—Gentlemen: Exposed as we are to the attacks of disease, and so frequently disappointed in proposed remedies, we cannot but look on the efforts of successful practitioners with interest and gratitude. This is true respecting your valuable preparation of Sarsaparilla. I have for some time recommended it, and with a decided advantage, to those who have tried their prescriptions were still more distressed. I tried it myself, and found it to be a perfect cure, and I continued using your excellent medicine, at which time I was to be seen by everyone in my bed. After using a few bottles I am now able to walk about, ride out, and enjoy a comfortable degree of health, which I attribute entirely to the use of Sand's Sarsaparilla. Please accept my assurance of gratitude and regard.

JOHN M NORRIS

Being personally acquainted with the above statement, I hereby certify that the same is true.

FARMER TESTIMONY.—The following is an extract from a letter received from Rev. Wm. Phillips, Hanover, dated

HANOVER, Va, Oct. 22, 1845.

Messrs. Sands: I have been affl cted with a severe pain in my side, occasioned by a bad liver, for the space of twenty years suffering at times what language cannot convey, but since taking your sarsaparilla I have been free from pain, so much so that I have been able to attend to my business, and procured another for the last three months. I whole family have tried the Sarsaparilla, which medicine and thoroughly tried the Sarsaparilla, which I can recommend in truth and sincerity to all those who are in any way afflicted with the diseases of scrofulous complaints. There have been some remarkable cures effected by its use in this neighborhood. A child of mine was reduced to better health than she had been enjoyed for ten years, and Mr. Wm. Wyatt, who had been afflicted with the Erysipelas, was entirely cured by the use of a few bottles.

Yours truly, WM. WALDRIDGE

ASTHMA.

what has relieved him in a short time from his difficulty of breathing, Cough and suffocation? He will tell you it was the Olosaonian, or All-Healing Balsam. SHERMAN'S OLOSAONIAN, OR ALL-HEALING BALSAM.

Ask your friends if they know of anything that will so speedily stop a long and tedious Cough, Raising of Blood, Bronchitis, Dyspepsia Consumption, Hoarseness, Influenza, and diseases of the Throat and Lungs, which have so long baffled the skill of the most eminent Physicians. There never yet has been a remedy introduced to public notice which has been productive of so much good in so short a space of time as SHERMAN'S OLOSAONIAN.

Astonishing Cures.

MR. BOND, the celebrated Indian Doctor baker, 89 Nassau street, Brooklyn, states that his wife has been afflicted with Asthma for 30 years, and could not find permanent relief from the best medical advice which, for years, she had lived in Brooklyn could procure, was induced to try this great remedy. She is now nearly well. The Olosaonian Balsam was suffered to speak for itself, and was tried, and was also cured by it. Mr Bond is now so well that she is able to attend to her duties. Neighbors are astonished at the great relief derived through the day without any annoyance from her distressing malady.

HENRY JACKSON, 13th street, near the Catholic Cemetery, states he was induced to the store for the purpose of obtaining a bottle of the Olosaonian, having been afflicted with the Asthma for more than 20 years, and was so far relieved by the use of one bottle that he purchased a bottle and rode home.—Four days afterward he walked from his residence to the store without fatigue, a distance of over two miles, to tell of the wonderful relief which he had experienced from using about one half of one bottle.

Consumption of the Lungs.

MR. CONROY, 35 White street, was so low in the month of December last that he was given up by his physicians. His friends entertained no hope of his recovery. He was persuaded to try the Olosaonian, and to have some faith in its efficacy, which he did. He now enjoys health and is now able to walk about the streets.

MR. ATTREE, the wife of Wm H. Attree, James Harman, Esq. and Geo. W. Hays, Esq. can all bear testimony from their own experience of the healing properties of this Great Remedy in Consumption of the Lungs.
