OFFICE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
Saturday Morning, August 7, 1847.

FLOUR—No changes to note in the market, some enquiry prevails, and prices continue firm, with an upward tendency. Sales of 200 bbls in different lots at $4,50@4,62½, occasional sales in small quantities at $4,75 ⅌ bbl. Receipts are light, and the supply is market limited. Offers in one or two instances, were refused by holders at $4,62½ by the wholesale.

Grain—Market quite inactive, though the prices continue without change. Wheat from store is selling at 85@90 ⅌ bu. 90c was offered for 200 bu without sacks, but refused by the holder. Corn remains quite dull, with a downward tendency—Limited sales from store at 37@40c per bu, which figures more nearly sustained.—Rye—Sales amounting to some 300 bu at 40@45c per bu. Barley is dull at 35@40c—Oats—Sales 300 bu at 25@25c ⅌ bushel.

Provisions—Market quiet, and prices firm. We note sales 2,000 lbs bacon hams at 8½@9c, cash and time—1500 lbs shoulders at 6¾@7c—and limited sales of sides at 8¼@9c ⅌ lb—lard remains held at 7½@7½c.

Butter—Is in good demand in kegs, at 14@15c ⅌ lb, at which rates fresh sales of 1600 lbs in different lots, prices firm, with a tendency upward.

Cheese—Sales of 50 bxs W R, at 6½c ⅌ lb; small or quantities have gone at 6½c. The market is well supplied, and prices partially declined since our last quotations.

Dried Beef—Sales of 500 lbs at 9¼@9½c ⅌ lb.

Ashes—Sales of 3 cds pots ash at 4¼@4½, and 5 tres do at 4¾c ⅌ lb, mostly for per funds. The "Sodaash" is a new article in our market, and goes freely at the above quoted figures. We note limited sales of other kinds in the usual rates, not for selection, 7½@—pearls, 5½@—and saleratus at 4@4½c ⅌ lb. Supply in market partial, and the demand limited.

Hemp—Supply limited, and held firm at $100@$105 ⅌ ton, cash and time terms.

Feathers—Supply abundant, and sales to a moderate extent at 32@33c ⅌ lb.

Pig Metal—No recent transactions to note; the article is held at $30@33 ⅌ ton, 4 and 6 months.

Rice—Sales in a regular way at 5¾@6¼ for new and 5¾ for old. The supply has become quite limited and the article holds firm as above quoted.

Groceries—The market is quiet with no variation in prices from our last report. Sales of N O Sugar at 7¼@7½—molasses, 35@36c per gal.

Tobacco—Moderate sales of leaf 2¼@5¼ and 5½c ⅌ lb.

Whiskey—Market well supplied, and regular sales go on at per last quotations—ranging for the different qualities from 23 to 30c ⅌ gal.

Wool—No action further sales at $1,00@1,12½ ⅌ lbl.

Glass—Sales of 300 bxs 8 by 10, at $3,00 ⅌ box.

The Cotton Crop.—The situation has been called to the cotton crop, by some of our merchants, and we regret to state the worm is likely to do a great deal of injury to it. Two letters from Jefferson county, Arkansas, state that there are millions of worms on the grass, and the Memphis Enquirer makes the same remark in regard to the cotton crops in that neighborhood. The New Orleans Bee of a late date also makes mention of the injury received. From Alabama letters state the same fact. The crop seems to have suffered most from the worm in Arkansas, but serious damage has been done elsewhere from the rains, particularly in Alabama. We cannot doubt from the evidence before us, that in Louisiana, Alabama, Tennessee and Arkansas it not in other States both the worm and the grass has done real injury to the cotton crop.

PENNSYLVANIA IMPROVEMENT.—The receipts upon the Pennsylvania Canal for the month of July amounted to $182,812, or $37,507 more than during the month of July 1846. Since November 30, or in eight months, they have amounted to $1,019,851 83 or $307,076 more than the eight months from November 30, '45 to July 31, 1846. The following are the details of the most gratifying result:

The Cor. Vess Whose total wreck on the Aransas Bay, we have noticed, was lost on the 13th July. Those on board remained with the wreck all night, with ropes in hand, ready to lash themselves to parts of the wreck in case she should go to pieces. The lowest field together until daylight, when the people threw overboard their barrels, the greater part of which was driven ashore by the waves, and by noon all had gained the beach in one way or another. The boat is a total wreck.

She was owned by the Government, and built at this port.
