A BLOODLESS VICTORY!
STATON'S EXTERNAL REMEDY,
CALLED
UNT'S LINIMENT,

IS gaining a notoriety unequalled by any similar medicine. It requires no puffing to give it a reputation; it has been for some time, silently and surely secured, and now when its beneficial effects have been witnessed by so many, the expressions of gratitude are continually appearing, and those who have been made whole, by its virtues, are desirous that the afflicted should no longer remain ignorant of its durable and infallible efficacy.

MR. E. Stanton, the Proprietor, is constantly receiving testimonials of benefits received from its use, many of the cures effected almost exceed belief; in one case a child had been a cripple for 8 years, having wrenched the spine when at the age of 2 years a fall from a chair. Medical treatment failed; four bottles of the Liniment restored him to strength, and he now joins with his playmates in their joyful gambols, as robust as the healthiest of them, only a small hump on his back to remind him of early sufferings.

A case of RHEUMATIC GOUT entirely cured by the application of this wonderful medicine:

NEW YORK, May 17, 1846.

G. Eastman—Sir: I have been attacked several times with fever years with a severe pain, attended with great inflammation in my foot and great toe, and have been up from 4 to 6 weeks at each time, not being able to bear my weight upon my foot. On the 29th of April, New York for Danbury, Ct, when I again was seized with this complaint. For three successive days I thought I could not close my eyes for pain. At night I was in great misery, but I had a bottle of Dr Stevens's bottle of your Hunt's Liniment. I applied it well three times, and in 15 minutes I was entirely relieved and slept the rest of the night. In the morning I was able to attend to my business the next day, and have been troubled since, although the same pain has returned at times, it is not so severe, and yet day. I consider it a most valuable medicine, and would not be without it. Yours, &c. SHERWOOD THOMAS.

Persons desiring Liniment to add at the extraordinary price of 25 cents per bottle, will find it well worth the money, and pass the truth around. That KEVIL'S HATS are the cheapest to be found. And if your Iron City go boom with a vengeance, I will find their name and not the maker's.

Gentlemen in want of good Hats would do well to call at the NEW HAT STORE, 152 Wood street near Liberty, and next door to McCully's Flour Warehouse. The subscribers are determined to sell first rate Hats, of all kinds, of Pittsburgh manufacture, at ten per cent less than any other manufacturer.

☞ Don't forget the name and number of the store.

TO HATTERS & COUNTRY MERCHANTS.

W. H. P. EHRARDT,
No. 133 North 3d st. above Race, opposite Branch,
Philadelphia.

HAS constantly on hand a large assortment of new and fashionable Caps of all kinds, on which he invites the attention of the Trade, and Wholesale Purchasers, to his stock, which is larger than usual, and unrivalled in bringing in such persons as can possess by the nothing extract Hats, the Caps of which will be sold low. Exhibition of Franklin Institute, Philadelphia.

Jas. Sanderson and Royal Cotton by Wm Ehrardt, No. 133 North 3d st Philada; neat and neatly made. One of these caps deserve some notice on account of its convenience; one side is of cloth, and the other of silver, and can be worn either side out, and yet look well. The silver side can be worn outside in bad weather, and the best improvements in modern mill machinery. Millers and millowners who have horse-power selected in a hurry particularly, often remain against, and the large merchant mills, more frequently in the purchase, or repairs of iron Smut Machines, to say nothing of the inconvenience of business in a mill, occasioned by stopping to renew or repair the machinery, are assured that the purchase of Lull's Patent, will remove the necessity of further trouble and expense, for the same mill, as it is confidently believed that they will last a lifetime, with little if any repairs. Hundreds of these machines are now in use, and many of them have cleaned hundreds of thousands of bushels, and are now declared by the owners, to be in all respects, as good as when they first commenced, and without any other dressing or repairs of any kind. About 300 machines, of every variety of style and Patent, most of them of the Patent of Lull, are now in use, some 3 months have been displaced by the later machines, and is confidently believed few years will elapse, before the liver of the Patent will be superseded by some kind of iron. For particulars, see handbills.

Affirders for Smut machines, mill stones, of the finest fabric, other machinery, the subscriber: 241 and 246 Liberty st., near the canal, Pittsburgh, will be promptly attended to. JAMES W. WALLACE.
