The Sayres Post-Mortem.

WHY THE UNFORTUNATE WOMAN HELD SO TENACIOUSLY TO LIFE.

The post-mortem examination of the body of Mrs. Elizabeth Sayres, the victim of the tragedy in the Church of the Ascension, on the 18th ult., took place yesterday afternoon, at half-past one o'clock. Coroner Goddard and Dr. Henry C. Chapman were present, besides several of the Pennsylvania Hospital physicians. It was ascertained that the ball entered the back, between the seventh and eighth ribs, and took at first a downward course, ruptured a blood-vessel, the blood from which became clotted against the spinal column and by its pressure caused the paralysis. From the blood-vessel the ball went upward and penetrated the left lobe of the lung. The spinal column was not fractured, as was supposed before the examination. Coroner Goddard remarked that altogether it was one of the most interesting post-mortem examinations he had ever attended. The inquest will take place at 11 o'clock this morning, at the Coroner's office.

Personal.

That magnificent piece of architecture the new Brick M. E. church of Fredonia, erected at a cost of $30,000, was presided over for two years by that able and eloquent young divine, Rev. A. N. Craft. He was transferred to Titusville in the autumn of 1873, and there, as in Fredonia, his eloquent and fearless sermons are listened to by multitudes. All who have visited the camp ground on Chautauqua Lake have been impressed with the power of his logic and the beauty of his speech. From over-work and anxiety connected with his mission, Mr. Craft is occasionally subject to bilious attacks. Sensible in this as in all other matters, he does not hesitate to use for his relief what his judgment and experience dictate. Neither is he willing to "hide his light under a bushel," but speaks out in this as in other matters, on the side of truth, in tones that cannot be misunderstood—though brief, yet to the point. Here is what he says:

Fredonia, N. Y., July 14, 1872. Dr. Fenner—Dear Sir—I have used your Blood and Liver Remedy and Nerve Tonic, and find it the best remedy for a deranged state of the liver and bowels of any that I have ever used. Yours truly,

A. N. CRAFT, Pastor of M. E. Church, Fredonia, N. Y. For sale by dealers in medicine.

PETROLEUM CENTRE, PA. October 30, 1874.

My family has received more benefit from E. K. Thompson's Sweet Worm Powders, than all the medicine ever used in my house. My wife for six months doctored with the best physicians I could find in the country, but with no benefit. She would be taken with a pain in the pit of the stomach, and faint almost away. Her hands and feet would become cold, her heart palpitate, and often we thought she would die before we could restore her by using hot draughts and applications. I was finally recommended to try your Sweet Worm Powders, three doses of which had an astonishing effect, and being followed up a few days after relieved her of all pain and sickness; and if my testimony can be of any use, I am happy to give it in favor of the Sweet Worm Powders as a most wonderful medicine. Any one wishing to know the full facts, please address me as below.
