A Fine Set of Teeth for 50 Cents.

WHITE TEETH, PURE BREATH, HEALTHY GUMS.—Yellow and unhealthy teeth, after being once or twice cleaned with Jones' Amber tooth paste, have the appearance of pearl, and continue so, and at the same time its so perfectly innocent and exquisitely fine, that its constant daily use is highly advantageous, even to those teeth that are in the best condition, giving them a beautiful polish, and preventing a premature decay. Those already decayed it prevents from becoming worse, and in most cases it stops the coming loose, and by perseverance it will render the foulest teeth delicately white, and make the breath delicately sweet. B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE.

A FILTHY weeks since, one or my children, aged about five years, was attacked for several days, and the illness increased so alarmingly that I feared death would be the result. Having heard of the good effects of Fahnestock's Vermifuge when administered to the children of my neighbors, and thinking my child might have worms, from some of the symptoms, I gave it one and a half teaspoonfuls of the Vermifuge, and to my great astonishment it almost immediately disembarked between 250 and 300 large worms. Its health was soon restored, and it is now remarkably well. Previous to taking the Vermifuge, the worms would occasionally rise in its throat, and I often feared it would die from strangulation.

Joynes' Expectorant.

SALEM, Columbiana co., O., Apr. 24, 1841.
DR. D. JAYNES, Dear Sir:—I feel bound to you and the afflicted public to make a public acknowledgment of giving publicity to the extraordinary effects of your Expectorant on myself. Having been afflicted for several years with a severe cough, which at times and its concomitant diseases, and seemed only doomed to linger out a miserable existence, until in the fall of 1839, when, being more severely attacked and having resorted to all my former remedies, and the prescriptions of the most eminent physicians, I was given up by the neighborhood without deriving any benefit, or the consolation of surviving but a few days or weeks at furthest, and in the last plans of hope was about to vanish, I had recommended to me your Expectorant—and believed by that being who does all things in the fitness of the time, I commenced using it, contrary to the advice of my physicians and friends, I was in a few days raised from my bed, and was enabled by the use of a bottle, to attend to my business, enjoying since better health than I had for ten years previous.
Respectfully yours, &c. JAS. W. EARLE.
