This, we are aware, must appear incredible, but we have letters with numerous cases of Sick Headache, Pain in the side and Chest, Spinal Complaint, &c., &c. Together with numerous cases of Dyspepsia, Costiveness, Female Complaints, &c., &c. To prove the truth of the above cures of Sick Headache, Pain in the side and Chest, Spinal Complaint, &c., &c., we publish a few of the most astonishing and authentic circumstances, being troubled with the dropsy, and dreadful pain in my nervous affections, and very much debilitated, I was induced to try Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla, and after using only half a bottle, I was enabled to try half a bottle more, and I was induced to try it, and I did so, and am very thankful that I did so, for it has cured me entirely well, but am so far crippled up with the rheumatism, that I can hobble about very well in few weeks. My cough and pain in the side, and weakness have left me, and I am but very little, and am fast gaining my usual strength. I feel it a duty to give you a statement of my case, to publish if you please.

Opinions of Physicians.

Dr Townsend is almost daily receiving orders from physicians in different parts of the Union.

This is certify that we, the undersigned, Physicians of the City of Albany, have in our practice, the past year, prescribed Dr. Townsend's Sarsaparilla, and believe it to be one of the most valuable preparations of the Sarsaparilla in the market.

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, practicing Physicians in the City of Albany, have in our family been frequently prescribed Dr Townsend's Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, and from its known qualities, would recommend it to public use, as a medicine possessing superior efficacy over the generality of other advertised remedies inseveral instances.

Principal office, 126 Fulton st, Sun Building, N Y; Redding & Co State st Boston; Dr Dyott & Sons, 132 North Second st Philadelphia; Sill & Hance, Baltimore; and by principal druggists generally throughout the United States. What ladies and the Gentlemen.

Prepared and sold by the proprietor in the large square bottles, which contain a quart and signed with the written signature of B F TOWNSEND, and his name blown on the Glass.

Price $5 per bottle. Agents, New York Daily Express of April 9, 1847.

A pretty thing appeared in the streets yesterday. It was the advertising cab, or Sarsaparilla Express of Dr Townsend. The wheels had been taken off, and the body placed upon a large pole, on which was the following inscription: "Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla Express." Inside of the cab was a large bottle of the Sarsaparilla, and a man was constantly distributing pamphlets, and giving away the medicine to all who would accept it. The cab was drawn by two men, who were dressed in the most ludicrous manner, and the whole affair was very great, popularity it has gained.

Nervous Debility.

NEW YORK, March 27, 1847

Dr. Townsend:—I have been afflicted more or less for 3 years, with a dreadful sinking in the chest, giddiness in the head, loss of appetite, pain in the limbs, and general debility, brought on by the effects of a fever and ague, and cold to which I was subject to in my business as a dyer. I have taken other medicines, too numerous to mention, but with little or no success. Your friends persuaded me to try a bottle of your Sarsaparilla, from which I found great relief. I have since taken several more bottles, and I can unhesitatingly say it is the best medicine I have ever taken—the pain in my chest is gone, and I feel quite a different man altogether since I have taken your Sarsaparilla. I have now a better appetite than ever I had. My wife has taken it with the same beneficial results. I would recommend it as a family medicine generally, and I feel convinced that if so used there would not be half the sickness there is, and consequently not so many Doctor's bills, for while it restores appetite, it also gives to the stomach and bowels their regular tone; it keeps the blood in a healthy state, so that disease is not so likely to attack the system. And to all those who are not in a healthy state, I say try Dr Townsend's Sarsaparilla.

IMPORTANT TO THE LADIES—Chenue Hair Cream, a matchless article for the Growth, Luxuriance and Beauty of the Hair. This Cream, when once known, will supercede all other articles of the kind now used. When the hair is dead, harsh, thin, unhealthy, or inclined to fall, its application will make the hair soft and dark, and give it a healthy appearance; and will also make it retain its luxuriance and healthy color twice as long as the preparations which are generally used. Every lady and gentleman who are in the habit of using oils on their hair, should at once purchase a bottle of the Chenue Hair Cream, as it is so composed that it will not injure the hair like those other preparations, but will beautifully and perfectly satisfy every fastidious taste.

For testimony to its very superior qualities, see the following letter from Rev. M. Caldwell, 10 Messrs. Hendershott & Streich, Manufacturing Perfumers, Philadelphia.

Letter from the Rev. R. Caldwell, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Pulaski.

Messrs. Hendershott & Streich—Gentlemen: I take pleasure in adding my testimony in favor of the excellent preparation called the Chenue Hair Cream—for about two years ago, my hair was very dry, brittle, and disposed to come out; but having procured a bottle of the Cream, and used it according to the prescription, my hair is now soft, elastic and firm to the head. Many balsams and oils were applied, each leaving my hair in a worse state than before. This Cream, however, has met my expectations.

As an article for the Toilet, my wife gives it preference over all others, being delicately perfumed and disposed to rancidity. The ladies especially will find the Chenue Cream to be a decided favorite in their preparations for the toilet. Respectfully, &c.,

Pulaski, Jan. 7, 1847. R. CALDWELL.

Sold by the proprietors, at their Perfumery, 10 Arch st, Philadelphia, and by Dr. Cassel, 5th ward, and Joel Mohler corner of Wood and Fifth streets.

HARDEN & CO's

Passenger and Remittance Office.

HARDEN & CO. continue to bring persons from any part of Europe, on the most reasonable terms, and the most liberal terms, with their usual punctuality and attention to the wants and comfort of emigrants. Persons need not fear to be robbed by the swindling scamps that infest the seaports, as we take charge of them the moment they report themselves, and see to their comfort and despatch them without any detention by the first ships.—We say this fearlessly, as we defy one of our passengers to show that they were detained 24 hours by us in Liverpool, whilst thousands of others were detained months, until they could be sent in some old crab, at a cheap rate, which is generally the case with others.

We intend to perform our contracts honorably, cost what it may, and not act as was the case last season; with other offices, who only performed not all, or when it suited their convenience.

Drafts drawn at Pittsburgh for any sum from £1 to £100, payable at any of the principal towns in Ireland, England, Scotland and Wales.
