☞ Office in the Warehouse of W. B. Holmes & Bro. No. 57 Water, near Market street, Pittsburgh.

N. B.—The success of this Company since the establishment of the Agency, in this city, with the prompt liberality with which every claim upon them for loss has been adjusted, fully warrant the agent in inviting the confidence and patronage of his friends and the community at large to the Delaware Mutual Insurance Company, while it has the additional advantage of a substitution among the most durable individuals—as having an ample paid-in capital, which by the operation of its charter is constantly increasing, and fidelity to each policy insured his due share of the profits of the company, without involving him in any responsibility whatever, and therefore as postering a liberal principle during life of very obnoxious fetter, and in the most attractive form. nov4

COPARTNERSHIPS.

CO-PARTNERSHIP. LOGAN & KENNEDY have this day associated with them in the Hardware business, Phillip Wilson and Edward Gregg. The style of firm will hereafter be Logan, Wilson & Co. This arrangement renders it desirable to close the old business as soon as possible. All persons whose liabilities have matured, are especially requested to make immediate payment.

Pittsburgh, Jan 1, 1849.

LOGAN, WILSON & CO.—Importers and Wholesale Dealers in Foreign and Domestic Hardware, Cutlery, Saddlery, &c., 129, Wood street, Pittsburgh, have now fully prepared with a recently imported stock of Hardware, Cutlery, &c., to offer very great inducements to western buyers, being determined to compete in prices with any of the Atlantic cities. Also on hand the extensive assortment of Pittsburgh Hardware, viz. Shovels, Spades, Forks, Hoes, Vices, &c., all of which will be sold at the lowest manufacturer's prices.

Dissolution.

THE partnership so long existing under the firm of McCord & King, was by mutual consent dissolved on the 1st inst. The business will be closed at the old stand, by either of us, using the name of the firm for that purpose. Being desirous to have our business closed with as little delay as possible, we would respectfully request those indebted to call and settle their accounts. JOHN D. MCCORD, ja18 H. B. KING.

Co-Partnership.

JOHN D. MCCORD having associated with him his brother James M'Cord, under the style of McCord & Co., will continue the Hat, Cap and Fur business in the old stand, Wood street and Smithfield, at the old stand, corner of Wood and 5th streets, where they solicit a continuation of the patronage so liberally bestowed on the old firm. JOHN D. MCCORD, ja18 JAMES B. MCCORD.

IN retiring from the old and well known firm of McCord & King, I most respectfully recommend the patronage of the public my successors, Messrs. McCord & Co. H. B. KING.

DISSOLUTION.—The partnership hitherto existing under the style and firm of Wightman & Dallas, is this day dissolved by mutual consent, (Joshua Dallas having disposed of his entire interest to H. Wightman.) The business of the late firm will be settled by H. Wightman, who is authorized to use the name of the late firm for that purpose. H. WIGHTMAN, J. DALLAS. jan1 1849 ly

THE Subscriber is now prepared to manufacture all kinds of Cotton and Woolen Machinery, at the shortest notice. Orders left at H. Wightman's Engine Shop, corner Liberty and Water streets, will receive prompt attention. H. WIGHTMAN.

THIS establishment long and widely known as being one of the most commodious in the city of Baltimore, has recently undergone very extensive alterations and improvements. An entire new wing has been added, containing numerous and airy sleeping apartments, and extensive building rooms.

The Ladies' department has also been completely reorganized and fitted up in a most unique and beautiful style. In fact the whole arrangement of the House has been remodeled, with a single eye, on the part of the proprietors, towards the comfort and pleasure of their Guests, and which they confidently assert will challenge comparison with any Hotel in the Union.

Their table will always be supplied with every substantial and luxury which the market affords, served up in a superior style, without any way of Wines, as they will not be surpassed.

In conclusion the proprietors beg to say, that nothing will be left undone on their part, and on the part of their assistants, to render this Hotel worthy the continued patronage of their friends and the public generally.

The prices for board have also been reduced to the following rates:

Ladies' Ordinary,
Gentlemen's $1.75 per day.

N. B.—The Baggage Wagon of the House will always be found at the Car and Steamboat Landings, which will convey baggage to and from the Hotel, free of charge. mar21
