SALEM, Columbiana co., O., Apr. 23, 1841. DR. D. LEE: DEAR SIR—I feel bound to yet and the afflicted public, to avail myself of this opportunity of giving publicity to the extraordinary effects of your Expectorant on myself. Having been afflicted with a severe cough, with a severe pain in the breast and its concomitant diseases, and secondly only doomed to linger out a short but miserable existence, until the last of October, when I became much worse, and having resorted to all my former remedies, and the prescriptions of two of the most respectable physicians in the neighborhood without derriving any benefit, or the least relief, I was given up by the physicians of Liverpool, to whom I had resorted for the last gleam of hope was about to vanish, I had recommended to me your Expectorant—and blessed be God, who does all things for the best, I made use of the means—and contrary to the expectations of my physicians and friends, I was in a few days raised from my bed of sickness and by the use of a bottle, to attend to my business, enjoying since better health than I had for ten years previous.

Respectfully yours, &c., JAE W. BRYAN.

MEDICAL.

COUGH, PAIN IN THE SIDE AND CHEST CURED—Having so far recovered from the effects of a severe pain in the side and chest, accompanied with a dry cough, I was induced, upon the urgent solicitation of my friends, to give the Indian Vegetable Pulmonic a trial, and I must say this medicine has answered its purpose admirably. My distress was produced by a severe cold, and I was greatly fearing that it would finally cound swallow my food. Indeed, I am satisfied that disease must have terminated in Consumption, or some other fatal disease, had it not been cured by this judicious medicine. To all who may be afflicted with Pulmonic complaints, this Balsam or Lavevort has so established a character for its virtues, as superior to that of the abundant nostrums of the day, as to the character and probity of its inventor, to that of quackery and imposition.

CONSUMPTION CURED.—My son having a violent cold, used to cough violently, raising quantities of thick phlegm, so that he could not turn over in bed, from weakness. He manifested every symptom of confirmed consumption. For six years he had been subject to the asthma. His physicians, Messrs. Vermoule & Anderson, said he was incurable, and must soon die. Yet I was determined to try Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Lavevort, and strange as it may appear, this medicine has effected a perfect cure.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.

Dr. Rose's Celebrated remedies.

DR. JACOB ROSE, the discoverer and sole proprietor of these celebrated and wonderful medicines, and also the inventor of the celebrated instrument for inflating the Lungs, in effecting a cure of Chronic diseases, was a student of that celebrated physician, Doctor Physic, and is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and for thirty years since has been engaged in the investigation of disease, and the application of remedies thereto.

Through the use of his inflating tube, in connection he has proved an unparalleled success in curing those dreadful and fatal maladies, Tubercular Consumption, Cancers, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Asthma, Fever and Ague, Fits, Spinal Complaints, Dropsies, and all those obstinate diseases peculiar to females. Indeed every form of disease vanishes under the use of his remedies, which he attributes to be owing to the use of one compound only, for that is incompatible with Physiological Law, but by the use of his remedies, adapted to and prescribed for each peculiar form of disease.

Dr. Rose's Tonic Alterative Pills, when used are in variably acknowledged to be superior to all other, as a purgative pill, inasmuch as they have the power to bowels perfectly free from costiveness, as also his Golden Pills is admitted by the faculty to possess peculiar properties in the cure of Liver Complaint, being satisfied that a bare trial is sufficient to establish what has been said in the minds of the most skeptical.

The above remedies are put up and sold upon the agent, and procure (trials) free of charge, the agent giving a detailed account of each remedy and its application.

Dr. McLane in Tennessee.

THIS is to certify that I purchased one vial of Dr. McLane's Worm Specific, some two months ago, and gave to a son of mine, some seven years old, two teaspoons full, and although the amount may appear large, I have no doubt but there was upwards of TWO THOUSAND WORMS passed from him, measuring from one quarter of an inch to two inches long.
