MEDICAL.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.
Dr. Rose's Celebrated Remedies.
DR JACOB ROSE, the discoverer and sole proprietor of these most popular and beneficial medicines, and also the inventor of the celebrated Medicated Inhaling Tube, in effecting a cure in Chronic diseases, was a student of that eminent physician, Doctor Physic, and has practised with great severity of Pennsylvania, and for thirty years since has been engaged in the investigation of disease, and the application of remedies thereto.
Through the use of his inflating tube, in connection with his Prophylactic Syrup and other of his remedies, he has gained an unparalleled reputation in curing those dreadful and fatal maladies, Tubercular Consumption, Cancer, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Asthma, Fever and Ague, Fevers of all kinds, Chronic Dysentery, and all those obstinate diseases peculiar to females, and every form of disease which are under the ken of his remedies, to which numerous testimonials can be adduced by the faculty to possess peculiar properties adapted to female delicacy and to all, who are satisfied that a bare trial is sufficient to establish what has been said in the hands of the most skeptical.
The afflicted are invited to call upon the agent, and procure (gratis) one of the Doctor's pamphlets, giving detailed accounts of each remedy and its application.

COUGH, PAIN IN THE SIDE AND CHEST CURED—Having a for long time been distressed with a severe pain in the side and a hard cough with a dry cough, I was induced, upon the urgent solicitation of a friend, to Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort, and after using three bottles was relieved in purpose admirably. My distress was produced by a lever hurt, and was so great that it was with difficulty I could stand low my foot. Believed, I am satisfied this disease must have terminated in Consumption, or some fatal disease, had it not been cured by this judicious medicine. To all who seek to prolong their lives, I would advise the use of Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort.
JAMES GOWAN, 426 Hewey

This medicine facilitates expectoration, reduces fever, restores the strength, and may be considered as a superior preparation for the cure and prevention of all diseases in the Chest and Lungs, and should be resorted to, even after these diseases have caused the usual remedies. In the practice of this old and very respectable physician, the Balsam of Liverwort has acquired an enviable reputation for its wonderful virtues, superior to that of the abundant nostrums of the day, as was the character and probity of its inventor, to that of quacks and pretenders.
CONSUMPTION CURED.—My son having a violent cold, used to cough violently, raising quantities of thick putrid matter, and finally was not able to rise in bed, from weakness. He manifested every symptom of confirmed consumption. For six years he had been subject to the asthma. His physicians, Messrs. Vermoule & Anderson, said he was incurable, and must soon die. Yet I was determined to try Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort, and strange as it may appear, this medicine has fully restored him to health.

Jayne's Expectorant.
SALEM, Columbiana co., O., Apr. 24, 1841.
DR. D JAYNE: DEAR SIR—I feel bound to you and the afflicted public, to avail myself of this opportunity of giving publicity to the wonderful effects of your Expectorant on my self. Having been afflicted for several years with a severe cough, hectic fever and its concomitant diseases, and expectorating so much as to linger out a short but miserable existence, until the fall of 1838, when I was severely attacked, and having resorted to all the popular remedies, and prescriptions of two of the most respectable physicians in the neighborhood without derriving any benefit, or the consolation of surviving but a few days at most, at the farthest—when the last gleam of hope was about to vanish, I had recommended to me your Expectorant. Contrary to all hope, I commenced taking it in the use of the means—and contrary to the expectations of my physicians and friends, I was in a few days raised from my bed, and were enabled by the use of a bottle, to attend to my business, enjoying once more health than I had for ten years previous.
Respectfully yours, &c.
For sale in Pittsburgh, at the Patent Tea Store, 72 Fourth street.

B. A. FAHNESTOCK & Co's Pneumonic or Cough Mixture has a great advantage over many other Cough preparations, in its pleasant taste and it can be used without inconvenience. But its value as a Balsam consists in the speediness of its cure. We have known some of the most desperate coughs, some of which had been running on for a considerable length of time, yield almost immediately to its power.
In our wholesale trade we have had during the past winter, every one is liable to take cold, unless great precautions are used.
Persons who are under exposure to the inclemency of the weather often lay the foundation of a hearing cough, which needs a quick remedy to prevent serious results.
We have numerous certificates of cures which it has performed, many of which are from persons in this city and the surrounding country, and may are a sufficient reference without saying another word in its favor.
Prepared and for sale, wholesale and retail, by B A FAHNESTOCK & Co, corner of Wood and 1st and Wood and 6th sts.

Dr. McLane in Tennessee.
THIS is to certify that I purchased one vial of Dr. McLane's Worm Specific, some two months ago and gave to a son of mine, some seven years old, two teaspoons full, and although the amount may appear large, yet I have no doubt but there was upwards of two thousand worms passed from him, measuring from one quarter of an inch to two inches long.
