M'LANE'S LIVER PILL—In offering this medicine to the public, the proprietors are well aware that they have to encounter a host of competitors, generated by the countless impositions which have been palmed upon the public under the shape of patent medicines. We are convinced, however, that it is only necessary to give their remedy a trial to place it in public estimation far above all medical agents of the kind ever offered to the public. It is the invention of an enlightened, experienced and learned physician, who for many years used it in his own practice, when its great success induced him to offer it to the public at large. SELLERS' IMPERIAL CHEAP STORE

South Pittsburgh, Feb. 3, 1849

My wife has been troubled with a violent cough for six or seven years, so bad was her cough that physicians (in Ohio, where I formerly lived,) told me she had the Consumption. After we removed to this city I obtained for her, time and again, different medicines, but they were of no kind of benefit to her. Some two months since, I purchased a bottle of your Cough Syrup, the use of which has done her more good than any medicine she has ever taken. I have also used Sellers' Vermifuge in my family with fine success.

Cross Examined—by Mr McCandless—not Mr Davis to take part in the prosecution

Examination resumed—The reason she got the assistance of Mr Davis was because she was in bad health herself.

Mr Davis Sworn—Was acquainted with Miss Logan, got acquainted with her a few days before her death when he was introduced to her as a sick person, saw her after death, saw the lid screwed down, followed it to the burying ground, saw the body buried, saw it covered up, made an examination of the grave afterwards on Wednesday, the 28th of January, was employed by Alexander Cameron, made this examination in consequence of a communication which had been made to him, that the grave had been violated, he took with him Dr Swift and observed that the grave presented a disordered appearance, Mr. Cameron and himself opened the grave, found the grave empty, the lid of the coffin, broken, and violence had evidently been used in the operation, water was in the grave, threw oil his coat and went down into the grave to see whether the grave clothes had been left but could and nothing, a search warrant was procured, with which he went to Dr. Dickson's present, on Federal street, beyond the market, this was on the day after he opened the grave, was accompanied by four public officers, went to Dr Dickson's found him and Dr Herron at home, the constable in whose hand the warrant was supposed to Dr Dickson on the suspect who was present, he was at home, as he said, his family would have been annoyed in his absence, the Doctor asked where they would commence the search, would they commence in the garret, the officer said he would prefer commencing in the dissecting room at the rear of the house, the Doctor had a difficulty in finding the key, when Dr. Herron proposed to go home, and get my some small building in the rear of the dissecting room, where he could open the door, this dissecting room is part of the stable, in the second story, which is divided into two parts, one for this purpose, and hay is kept in the other, on a table in the room he observed a dead dog, and also part of a human skull, Drs. D and H. were both in the dissecting room when the constables were making a search, not more than five or ten minutes were occupied in making the search, he then discovered a passage leading to the hay mow, discovered a bundle of straw which was headed up, and had a green appearance, Fox, the officer, followed him, whose attention he called to the barrel, another smaller barrel was also in the mow, containing a number of old bones; both barrels had a very disagreeable smell, discovered a number of bones in the dissecting room, Dr. Dickson had ability to rent, having now been tested for several years in this place, both in this county and in Ohio; to their interest to give this new branch of Pittsburgh manufactures their attention
