COUGH, PAIN IN THE SIDE AND CHEST CURED—He came for long time been distressed with a severe pain in the side and chest, accompanied with a dry cough. I was induced to try your Balsam of Liverwort, by a friend, to Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort. I can say this medicine has answered its purpose admirably. My distress was completely relieved in a short and was so great that was not difficult to swallow my food. Indeed, I am satisfied that disease seated in the vitals, consumption, or some fatal disease, and it not been cured by the common medicine. To all who seek to prolong their lives, I would advise the use of Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort. JAMES GOWAN, Sen.
This medicine facilitates expectoration, reduces fever, removes the cough and pain, and may be considered as a superior preparation for the cure of consumption and all diseases in the Chest and Lungs, and should be resorted to, when other these diseases have resisted the usual remedies. In the practice of many of the most respectable physicians, this Balsam of Liverwort has acquired an enviable reputation for its virtues, as superior to that of the abandoned nostrums of the day. It was the character and probity of its inventor, to the public and empirics.
CONSUMPTION CURED—My son having a violent cold, used to cough violently, raising quantities of thick putrid matter, and finally he could not turn over in bed, he was so weak. He manifested every symptom of confirmed consumption. For six years he has been subject to the asthma. His physicians Messrs Vermoule & Anderson, said he was incurable, and must soon die. I at last bethought me to try Dr Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort, and strange as it may appear, this medicine has fully restored his health.

Jaynes' Expectorant.
SALEM, Columbiana co. O., Apr. 23, 1849.
DR. D. JAYNE—Dear Sir—I feel bound to you and your afflicted public, to a wall myself of this opportunity of giving publicity to the extraordinary effects of your Expectorant on myself. I have been afflicted for several years with a severe cough, hectic and its concomitant diseases, and seemed only doomed to linger out a short but miserable existence, until the fall of 1839, when, being more severely attacked, and having resorted to all my former remedies, and the prescriptions of two of the most respectable physicians in the neighborhood without derriving any benefit, or the consolation of surviving but a few days or weeks at farthest—when the last gleam of hope was about to vanish, I had recommended to me your Expectorant—and blessed by that Being who does things in large use of the means—and contrary to the expectations of my physicians and friends, I was in a few days raised from my bed, and was enabled by the use of a bottle to attend to my business, enjoying since better health than I had for long years previous Respectfully yours, &c.
JAS. W. FARELL.

DOUSSEL'S AROMATICK VINEGAR—The high ly fragrant, balsamic and tonic properties of this Vinegar render it far superior to Cologne water for the ordinary purposes of the toilet, surpassing the latter in its perfume. It prevents and removes pimples, tetter and asperity of the skin, it refreshes and whitens the skin, rendering it soft and smooth. It corrects the clammy and bitter taste of the mouth, imparting a fresh and pleasant breath. It cleanses and whitens the teeth, and hardens the gums. For all the above purposes, it is used with water in such proportion as may be found most agreeable. By inhaling a few drops of it on the temples, it will remove headache.
