MEDICAL.

IMPORTANT TO THE AFFLICTED.
Dr. Rose's Celebrated Remedies.
DR. JACOB S. ROSE, the discoverer and sole proprietor of these most popular and beneficial medicines, and also the inventor of the celebrated instrument for inflating the Lungs, in consultation for the cure of Chronic diseases, was a student of that eminent physician, Doctor Physic, and is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania, and for thirty years has been extensively engaged in the investigation of disease, and the application of remedies thereto.
Through the use of his inflating tube, in connection with his Prophylactic Syrup and other of his remedies, he has gained an unparalleled eminence in curing those terrible diseases, Fatal maladies, Tubercular Consumption, Cancers, Scrofula, Rheumatism, Typhoid Fever and Ague, Fevers of all kinds, Chronic Erysipelas, and all those obstinate diseases peculiar to females. Indeed so very form of disease was his success in the use of his remedies, to which humanity is heir—not by the use of one compound only, for that is incompatible with Physiological Law, but by the use of a variety of remedies, adapted to and prescribed for each peculiar form of disease:
Dr. Rose's Tonic Alterative Pills, when used are invariably acknowledged to be superior to all others, as a purgative or liver pill, inasmuch as they leave the bowels perfectly free from costiveness; as also his Golden Pills is admitted by the faculty to be a most peculiar properties adapted to female diseases, but being satisfied that a bare trial is sufficient to establish what has been said in the minds of the most skeptical.
The afflicted are invited to call upon the agent, and procure (gratis) one of the Doctor's pamphlets, giving a detailed account of each remedy and its application.
For sale by the following agents, as well as by most Druggists throughout the country:

COUGH, PAIN IN THE SIDE AND CHEST COUGH, with a severe pain in the side and chest, accompanied with a dry cough, I was induced, upon the urgent solicitation of my friend, to Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort, and I must say this medicine has answered my purpose admirably. My distress was produced by a severe hard cough, so great that it was with difficulty I could swallow my food. Indeed, my friends expected disease must have terminated in Consumption, or some fatal disease, but it not been cured by this judicious medicine. To all who seek to procure health I would advise the use of Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort.
JAMES GOWAN, 430 Rosewy.
This medicine facilitates expectoration, relieves fever, restores strength, and may be considered as a superior preparation for the cure and prevention of all diseases in the Chest and Lungs, and should be used at first to prevent the diseases have resisted the usual remedies. In the practice of this old and very respectable Physician, this Balsam of Liverwort has acquired an enviable reputation for its virtues, as superior to that of the abundant nostrums of the day, as was the character and profity of its inventor, to that of quacks and empirics.
CONSUMPTION CURED.—My son having a violent cold, used to cough violently, raising quantities of thick putrid matter, and finally he was confined over in bed, from weakness. He manifested every symptom of confirmed consumption. For six years he had low spirits to the last degree. His physicians, Drs. Vermoule & Anderson, said he was incurable, and must soon die. Yet I was determined to try Dr. Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort, and—strange as it may appear, this medicine has fully restored his health.

Jaynes' Expectorant.
SALEM, Columbiana co., O., Apr. 21, 1841.
DR. D. JAYNES: DEAR SIR:—I feel bound to you and the afflicted public, to avail myself of the opportunity of giving publicity to the extraordinary effects of your Expectorant on myself. Having been afflicted for several years with a very severe cough, hectic fever and its concomitant diseases, and seemed only doomed to linger out a short but miserable existence, until the fall of 1839, when, being more severely attacked, and having resorted to all my former remedies, and the prescriptions of two of the most respectable physicians in the neighborhood without deriving any benefit, or the consolation of surviving but a few days or weeks at farthest—when the last gleam of hope was about to vanish, I had recommended to me your Expectorant—and blessed by that Being who disposes of life in the size of the means—and contrary to the expectations of my physicians and friends, I was in a few days raised from my bed, and was enabled by the use of a bottle, to attend to my business, enjoying since better health than I had for ten years previous.
Respectfully yours, &c. JAS. W. ESTILL.

ROUSSEL'S AROMATICK VINEGAR.—The high fully sanatory, balsamic and tonic properties of this Vinegar render it far superior to Cologne water for the ordinary purposes of the toilet, surpassing the latter in its perfume. It prevents and removes pimples, tetter and asperity of the skin, it softens and refines the skin, rendering it soft and smooth. It correct the clammy and bitter taste of the mouth, imparting a fresh and pleasant breath. It cleanses and whitens the teeth, and hardens the gums: For all the above purposes, it is used with water in such proportion as may be found most agreeable. By inhaling it and rubbing it on the temples, it will remove headache, if applied instantly to a burn or bruise, it will evently prevent mortification. It correct vitiated air, and guarantees from contagion; it is therefore very useful for purifying and perfuming apartments. For sale by
