Laws Relating to Newspaper Subscrip tions and Arrearages.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary, are considered wish ing to continue their subscription.

2 If subscribers order the die If subscribers order the discontinuation of their periodicals, the publishers may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.

If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office where they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled their bills, and ordered them discontinued,
4. If subscribers move to other places

without informing the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former direction, they are held responsible. The courts have decided that "refus ing to take periodicals from the office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud." 6. Any person who receives a newspape and makes use of it, whether he has ordered it or not, is held in law to be a sub-7. If subscribers pay in advance, they are bound to give notice to the publisher at the end of their time, if they do not wish to continue taking it otherwise the publishers are authorized to send it on, and the sub-scribers will be held responsible until au express notice with payment of all arrears, sent to the publisher.
