Our Lord has told us, "hear the church," its head St. Peter and all succeeding Popes, never told us hear the Bible, Martin Luther or Mr. Gillette. She does not teach the to-morrow, as some of our dissenting brethern do, who indeed should curse the day, and will sooner or latter, that the first "Reformers" caused them to separate from the church of Roman, and be carried about by every wind of doctrine since. Now especially we find them going to pieces, more and more everyday, on the hell question. Where now is that "one-faith, one Lord, one Baptism;" why now not listen to that church our Lord commanded us to hear and established for the express purpose of teaching us our faith? True Mr. Gillette and all of and advance their opinions without the most abstruse and difficult questions, everyone of them is a church in himself and infallible, so many members so many different opinions essentially differing, each of course infallible, so many minds so many churches. With the open pages of history telling us of the active part catholics took in the signing of the Declaration of Independence and of the blood they shed profusely on the battle fields in the warfare for the same we now find violently prejudiced dissenters proclaiming aloud that the only dangers now threatening the liberties of America are from the catholic people ancient dogmas and practices. Hence and their "essentally despotic church !!" Any impartial spectator can perceive that the catholics of to-day love the liberties of America as well as, if not more than, their protestant neighbors and did necessity require it would now, as in the past, spill their plood as freely. The following Coming home to our own America, accurately, the confession of faith find religious freedom deprived in almost all our government Institutions. and just now we learn that a Bill. brought up before our State Legislature at Harrisburg a few days ago by our honorable and worthy representative, C. R. Earley, to provide for free religious liberty of the inmates of all "the thumb screw and the auto de fe" State institutions, is about to meet strong opposition! Liberty, things are now so changed, thy name is intolerance!

The many truths embodied in this article may grate harshly to those heretofore unacquainted with them. but such must remember the characteristics of truth-like the operations of the physicians-hurt the diseased before curing. As Mark Twain says we must "speak the truth unblushingly," "facts are facts and facts are terrible things." A CATROLIC.
