PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE

COMMITTEE FOR OCTOBER.

GEO. OGDEN. S. P. VON SCHNEIDAU. W. H. DENNY.

REVIEW OF THE

PITTSBURGH MARKET,

FOR THE WEEK ENDING OCTOBER 23, 1849.

The market, during the past week, has, if any thing, been less active, but we notice no marked change in the general quotations.

The weather, for the most part, has been very unsettled. We have had considerable rain, without, however, causing any further rise in the river: but there is still a sufficiency of water for the smaller and middle class boats, and a fair amount of business is still doing in that quarter.

ASHES—There is, if any thing, a better feeling manifested in the market, without, however, any material change in quotations. Sales of 5 tons Soda Ash at 3½@3¾c, cash and time. Sales of 20 bbls Scorchings, a superior article, at 4c, 4 mos. Sales of other Ashes have been confined to moderate lots at the following rates:—Pearlash, 6c; Saleratus, 5½c, and Potash at 5c ⅌ lb.—We notice fair receipts, and full supplies in the market.

ALE—A good business is doing by our brewers at prices ranging according to quality and description of bbls, at $7 to $8 ⅌ bbl, cash included.

BACON—Hams continue quite scarce, and sales have been confined to limited lots at 6c for prime begged, and 12@12½c for extra sugar cured family brans. T c receipts have been confined mostly to Shoulders and Sides, and the market is pretty well supplied with those descriptions. Sales of 2c casks Shoulders and Sides in different lots, at 5c for Shoulders, and 5½@5½c for Sides.

BUTTER—Roll and keg Butter begin to arrive more freely, but as a large proportion of it being shipped east the supplies left in this market are comparatively light. Sales of 10 bbls roll, in cloths, at 12@12½c. Keg is sold regularly at 9@10c, according to quality.

BEAN—We notice small supplies in store, with moderate sales at 112½@ ⅌ bu.

BROOMS—Receipts have been quite full, and the market is fully supplied. Sales are regularly effected at prices ranging according to quality, from $1,75 to $2,25 ⅌ doz.

LOCAL MATTERS.

REPORTED FOR THE PITTSBURGH DAILY GAZETTE

District Court of the United States.

Trial of John S. Bosler, Editor of the Fayette Whig, charged with stealing letters from the Uniontown Post Office.

FOURTH DAY.

Witnesses for the defence examined.

Tuesday, Oct. 23.

James Thorndell, sworn—Have known Mr. Bosler two years; I recollect of his coming to Pittsburgh about the 1st of August; when he came to Pittsburgh with Ebbert, I sent $70 with him; the money was open; I counted it out to him; think I know the money; it consisted of one twenty dollar note, two tens, and other small money; can't say what bank the $20 note was on; it was an old note, considerably worn; I sent the money to Mr. Lehmer of Pittsburgh, and Bosler brought me back a receipt dated on the 15th of August.

I have had an opportunity of knowing Mr. Bosler, and he has always borne a good character.

Cross examined—I know there was one twenty dollar note and two tens; I think the $20 was on the North Western Bank of Virginia; it was much worn
