NEW TELEGRAPH OFFICE.
THE citizens and business men of Pittsburgh are respectfully informed that the Morse Telegraph Lines are now in complete operation between this city and Baltimore, Washington, and other Eastern Cities, connecting at Washington City with the Morse Line, the only one South to Richmond, Raleigh, Charleston, Augusta, Savannah, Mobile and New Orleans—and connecting in this city with lines running West and North to the principal towns and cities in the valley of the Mississippi, and on the Lakes. These Lines will receive and send messages as cheap as any other Line, and the operators and clerks will be found gentlemanly and accommodating.

New Publishing in Monthly Parts!
CONOGRAPHIC ENCYCLOPEDIA of SCIENCE, LITERATURE, AND ART, Systematically Arranged by G. Heck. With 500 quarto steel plates, engraved by the most distinguished artists of Germany. The text is related and edited by Spencer F. Baird, A. M. M. D. Professor of Natural Sciences in Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.
The Iconographic Encyclopedia will embrace all the branches of human knowledge, which can be illustrated by pictorial representations. These illustrations are arranged in strictly systematic order, on 500 large quarto steel plates, and are accompanied by letter press, printed in the finest style, on the best paper, in the most convenient form, of a large, handsome octavo.
The letter press will fill 1000 pages, and will be a thorough manual of the sciences, with constant references to the figures on the plates. Alphabetical indexes and tables of contents will make it practically useful and of easy reference.
The Iconographic Encyclopedia will be published in 25 parts, each containing 20 plates and 50 pages of letter press, issued in a convenient portfolio, in which subscribers can keep their copies in perfect order until all completed, when they can be bound.
One part is published every month, at the very low price of $1, which will enable all lovers of instruction in the most beautiful and practical form, however scanty their means, to become subscribers to the work.
☞ Four Nos. are now published.

ADAMS' EXPRESS!
WE would respectfully call the attention of "Merchants" and others to the following card:
"Having noticed "Messrs. Greene & Co.'s" late card, in which they assert that they offer facilities unequaled by any other EXPRESS, we are, in justice to "ourselves" and to the "public," constrained to say that if our arrangement in the East had not rendered our the BEST CONDUCTED and MOST RELIABLE EXPRESS, we would not have merited the liberal patronage we now enjoy—for could we have sustained ourselves for a series of years, and established a reputation MUCH TO BE PREFERRED by any other Line. Unless our arrangements for the speedy, cheap and safe transmission of goods and valuables of all descriptions, had been unrivalled, and in extending our Line to all the "Western and Southern" Cities, (having spared no means or exertion to make it perfect,) we feel confident that the inducements which we offer to the public are "unsurpassed," and that we are fully enabled to PERFORM what we PROMISE.

LOCAL MATTERS.

REPORTED FOR THE PITTSBURGH DAILY GAZETTE

Court of Quarter Sessions.

Present, Honorable Benjamin Patton, President Judge; and Wm. Kerr and Samuel Jones, Associate Judges.

The Hon. Chas. Shaler directed the attention of the Court to the case of a young lad, named Graham, only ten years of age, who was, on Saturday, sentenced to the House of Refuge. His parents were about removing to Steubenville, and wished to take him with them, although until they removed, they wished him to remain in jail. His Honor, Judge Patton, observed that there were six indictments for larceny and other offences against young Graham, and that he was a proper subject for the House of Refuge, as it was there only that he could be properly attended to. He therefore refused to reschid his former view of the subject.

Graham's mother, who was in Court, then left it, weeping bitterly.

Commonwealth vs Maria Nelson, alias Lady Bill, and Rebecca Kelly, indicted for larceny. We did not hear the verdict in this case.

ALLEGHENY RIOT CASE.—The trial of the Allegheny Fire Rioters will be taken up on Wednesday.

GRAND JURY.—The Grand Jury adjourned on Saturday, having disposed of all the cases before them.

SLEDDING STOPPER.—A number of sleds were taken from the boys who were sledding yesterday, by the police, and taken to the Mayor's office.

The weather yesterday was exceedingly fine; the heavy fall of snow on Sunday had furnished the lovers of pleasure with excellent sleighing, and a fine bracing atmosphere, and clear sunny ray, rendered them every facility for its enjoyment. The gay laughing countenances of the light hearted lads and lasses, as they drove along, greatly enlivened the otherwise dull appearance of our business thoroughfares.

The Euterpeans give another concert to night, at Wilkins Hall. We recommend the lovers of good music to give them a hearing.

SLIPPERY STREETS.—The slippery condition of the pavements requires that ashes should be strewn over them, in order to prevent accidents.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, Jan. 14.—Edwd. McElheany versus James Cooley, charged with drunkenness and disorderly conduct; Patk. Casey, with drunkenness; and Thomas Jackson, with vagrancy, were committed by his honor the Mayor, for twenty four hours each. Charlotte Wallace was ordered up five days, for vagrancy.
