HOTELS

FOUNTAIN HOTEL.
LIGHT STREET BALTIMORE.
THIS establishment long and widely known as being one of the most commodious in the city of Baltimore, has recently undergone very extensive alterations and improvements. An entire new wing has been added, containing numerous and airy sleeping apartments, and extensive parlors and rooms. The Ladies' department has also been completely reorganized and fitted up in a manner unsurpassed for all style. In fact the whole arrangement of the House has been remodeled, with a single eye on the part of the proprietors, towards the comfort and pleasure of their Guests, and which they confidently assert will challenge comparison with any House in the Union.
Their table will always be supplied with every substantial and luxury which the market affords, served up in a superior style, while in the way of Wines, &c., they will not be surpassed.
In conclusion the proprietors beg to say, that nothing will be left undone on their part, and on the part of their assistants, to render this Hotel worthy the continued patronage of their friends and the public generally.
The prices for board have also been reduced to the following rates:
Ladies' Ordinary, $1.25 per day.
Gentlemen's " 1.50
N. B.—The Baggage Wagon of the House will always be found at the Car and Steamboat Landings, which will convey baggage to and from the Hotel, free of charge.
LANARTHINE HOUSE,
CORNER OF FOURTH AND GRANT STREETS, PITTSBURGH, CITY: subscriber respectfully announces that he has now opened his new and excellent Hotel for the accommodation of travelers, boarders, and the public generally. The house and furniture are entirely new, and no pains or expense have been spared to render it one of the most comfortable and pleasant Hotels in the city.
The subscriber is determined to deserve, and therefore solicits, a share of public patronage.
JACOB HOUGH, Proprietor.

☞ Office in the Warehouse of W. B. Holmes & Bro., No. 29 Water, near Market street, Pittsburgh.
N. B.—The success of this Company since the establishment of the Agency in this city, with the promptness and liberality with which every claim upon them has been adjusted, fully warrants the agent in inviting the confidence and patronage of his friends and the community at large of the Delaware M. S. Insurance Company, while it has the additional advantage as an institution among the most flourishing in Philadelphia—as having an ample paid-in capital, which by the operation of its charter is constantly increasing, and the yielding to each person insured his due share of the profits of the company, without involving him in any responsibility whatever, and therefore as possessing the Mutual principle divested of every obnoxious feature, and in its most attractive form. nov4
