MISCELLANEOUS.

H. KLEBER has just received a magnificent 7 octave Piano, which contains several new and highly important improvements. The exterior is of the most elegant and costly description, and is made in the Rococco style. The interior contains two separate bridges, causing the Base strings to run over and above the Treble strings—producing at once a tone rich, full, and clear. The strings, moreover, are so arranged as to leave a remaining string when one breaks, thus causing no inconvenience like that which attends the old method of stringing.

N. B. This being the first Piano of the kind ever brought to Pittsburgh, the Professors and Amateurs of the city are respectfully invited to call and examine it, at the Sign of the Golden Harp, 101 Third st. jy15
