The Pacific sailed from Liverpool at 9 o'clock, P. M. on the 31st, and arrived here at 9 P. M. this evening.

The European arrived at Liverpool at 10½ o'clock P. M. on Monday the 30th ult.

LIVERPOOL MARKET.

LIVERPOOL July 30.

Cotton—Since the sailing of the Cambria, Cotton has advanced ½ to ¾ penny.

Indian Corn has again fluctuated, and must be quoted one shilling lower than when the Cambria sailed.

Provisions—In provisions we have no change to report.

Wool continues in active demand.

Cotton—Prime cotton is in good demand with no change in quotations.

Money Market—Consols closed yesterday 93¾@¾. Money is now easier, the cool weather of the week the Congress had not proceeded to business, and likewise from some difficulty which has arisen in trying to divide out of the dollars in the Bank of England.

HAVRE July 30.

The Cotton market was extremely dull on Saturday last. Yesterday it became more active, and 1500 bales were sold. Grain rates. Trade and commerce generally was extremely good.

LIVERPOOL, July 30—5 P. M.

Cotton—On Saturday, the demand for cotton was resumed with spirit, which was continued to day at prices about ¼ higher than were quoted last week. The sales to the pacific days, amounted to 17,000 bales, of which 15,000 may be appropriated to speculators and for export. The imports report to Friday consist of 12,000 bales from the United States, 5,000 from Brazil, 1,400 from Bombay.

Grain—Has ruled very dull, very little change in the week, but wheat from our market to day was rather higher and prices were one penny per 70 lb. lower than on Friday, the 27th, placing the quotations at 6s per 70 lb. as on the 6th of the last week. Flour, however was in modera e demand, and maintained the advance quoted yesterday. Oats are easier in value, and in moderate demand. Indian Corn is in quiet demand, and was quoted lower than on Friday. Beans still continue dull, and were quoted lower than on Friday. Barley, Peas, are rather easier, and are nominal more settled.

ASHTON (Davis) & Co.—Report a good inquiry for all grades of cotton, and sales to-day, easier, with a fair demand, and sales to-day at 3½@3¾ and Land at 3½ @ 4 per pound.

Yarn—In the early part of the week there was a very good demand for Yarn, at a rather higher price, but during the last few days, the trade has shewn a disposition to be cautious. Holders, however, are very firm in their demands.

Goods—Have been well maintained, but very little has been done.

Tweed—In the beginning of the week it was very firm, and some sales were effected at advanced prices, yet ship owners are not disposed to accept the prices for outward work.

Dye Woods—The markets of Dye Woods are remarkably steady and very firm, and will meet pretty ready sale. The arrivals from Smyrna last import consist of 2,000 Cochineel, Lady Good at 6s 7d @ 6s 8d; 300 bags Madder, Dunegrella at 4½ @ 4½; 1,000 bags Gum Senegal at 8s. 6s @ 8s 15 ... 50 ... Bay Wool at 3s 15s @ 3s 17s; 7 ... Sponge, Wool at 9s. 10s @ 12s; 15 ... 50 ... Wool 15s. 15s @ 15s per cwt.

Tobacco—There has been a good inquiry for leaf tobacco, and prices are fully maintained. Sales of 200 hhds. Kentucky leaf at 7 @ 10½ per lb., and 50 do Maryville at 7 @ 13½ per lb. for common and prime qualities as ...

PARIS, Friday—The Council of Chelsea Boys has expressed the wish that, in the consolidation of the executive power the constitution should be revived in the third year of the Legislature.

The debate in the Moniteur du Soir was the subject of discussion in the Assembly yesterday. The affair is spoken of, to day as a crisis of the utmost gravity, both as regards the press and the ministry, and the government, as far as concerning foreign matters are not worse.

The ... of the Emperor's ... last night, when no war's ... and invalids were presented with the ... on the occasion, and they gave the ... of the Emperor a hearty welcome. There were ... THE GERMAN EMPIRE.

The Austrian Cabinet has issued circular despatches, summoning a General Assembly of the Confederates at Frankfort. An attempt is thus made, formally to restore the former organ of the Bund in support of the position.

It is said that the Austrian answer to the Prussian proposal was, that the decree of the Frankfort Congress should be held definitive.

At Berlin, on the 21th, it was reported that the contents amount to a refusal.

From Berlin, under date of the 27th, we learn that the Prussian envoy has been recalled from Vienna. It was stated that in a cabinet council, held on the 26th, the Minister of War proposed to place the army in a war footing, but that the expense of 20,000 florins involved in that measure was considered unavailable.

Prussia ... a war footing when ten Landwehr ... that two army corps are to be directed towards Kewynach and Wetzler, and that a third will occupy the environs of Erfort. The Customs Congress cannot agree upon the proposed alterations in the tariff of the customs. The "Leipzig Zeitung" publishes a telegraphic despatch, dated July 24th, stating that the free city of Lubeck had hesitated to ratify the treaty of peace with Denmark and had intimated the same to the Schleswig Holstein Stadthalter Schah. The Hanoverians are, however, determined to side with the Holsteiners, and have intimated their intention so to do, to Denmark.

RUSSIA AND TURKEY.

A terrible and destructive conflagration has ravaged the city of Samo, a Government of Semiatsk, to ruins. Thirty three ... houses, and 496 houses built of wood were destroyed.
