REPORTED & TELEGRAPHED FOR THE PITTSBURGH DAILY GAZETTE

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMER

GEORGIA.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.

The steam ship Georgia arrived from Chagres, via HAVANA, this afternoon. She brings 200 passengers, and over $700,000 in gold, on freight and in the hands of passengers.

Havana was quiet. The new Governor General was hourly expected. Ten thousand troops were on their way from Spain, and some had already arrived.

Two vessels of war were towed to sea, but their destination was kept secret.

The Georgia left the steamer Pacific at Havana, which was to leave for Chagres the next day.

NEW YORK ELECTIONS.

ALBANY, Nov. 7.

Passengers from the north report that Clinton County gives 200 majority for Hunt—and 60 maj. for Talbot—Whig—for Congress. The Whig candidates for the Legislature have been elected.

From present indications, Seymour, Democratic candidate for Governor, is undoubtedly elected.

In Wayne County, the Whig candidates for the Legislature are elected.

Warren County gives a Democratic majority of 500 for Governor, and 700 for Congressmen.

In Livingston County, Hunt's majority is 1400.

Allegheny County gives a small Whig majority.

Our Whig member is elected to the Assembly.

The returns now arriving are more favorable to the Whigs.

NEW YORK ELECTIONS.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.

Seymore is undoubtedly elected Governor

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.

The papers generally agree that Seymour, (D.) is elected Governor. The Tribune estimates his majority at 2,000. The Congressional delegation is stated to be 17 Whigs and 16 Democrats.

In the State Legislature, the Whigs have about 24 majority in the House, and 2 in the Senate.—This insures a Whig U. S. Senator, in place of Dickinson.

ILLINOIS ELECTION.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7

CITY AND COUNTY—The returns give about 900 majority for Mattocy (Dem.) for Congress, Maloney is probably elected.

Dyer and Maxwell, both Democrats, are elected to the Legislature.

WISCONSIN ELECTION.

Doty and Durkee, Free Soil Democrats, are probably elected to Congress. The returns are very meagre from all quarters.

NEW JERSEY ELECTION.

NEWARK, Nov. 7.

Fort, the Democratic candidate for Governor, is elected by over 5,000 maj.

The State Senate will stand 9 Whigs and 12 Democrats; the Assembly, 25 Whigs and 35 Democrats.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.

E. K. Whittaker has been nominated as the Democratic candidate for Congress from the 5th District, in place of Mr. Rhodes, declined.

The Free Soil meeting at Faneuil Hall, last night, was a tremendous one. The Democrats meet there to-night

The political campaign is now fairly opened

LATE FROM TEXAS

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 7.

Late news from Texas indicates a majority in favor of Senator Pearce's boundary bill.

Capt. Parker H French, who had purchased goods to the amount of $35,000, in forged drafts on Howland and Aspinwall, was overtaken at Franklin, Texas, where he was arrested, and the plunder taken from him. His company deserted him—some returning, and others continuing their journey to California. The Captain went over to Mexico, destitute and alone.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 6.

Judge Watts filed another petition, in the case of John M'Donogh's will, which he declares null and unconstitutional, and prays to be appointed an administrator of the succession.

Half a million dollars had been subscribed to the Tehuantepec Railroad.

The leading Democrats have issued an address condemning the disunion course of certain Senators.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 7.

The river is falling. There are 5 feet 11 inches water in the canal this evening.

Gov. Helms' message is published. It makes two columns in the Journal.

PITTSBURGH MARKET.

OFFICE, PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, Friday morning, Nov 8, 1850.

The weather yesterday was very inclement, having rained steadily throughout the day. Business, in consequence, was very limited, and nothing transpired, so far as we could learn, showing any marked change in quotations.

FLOUR AND GRAIN—The receipts continue light, and sales were inconsiderable. We may continue our quotations from first hands, in small parcels, at $3,75@3,81, and from store at $3,79@$4, according to quality and brand. Of Wheat we notice the receipt of considerable lots, and prices remain quite firm, with sales at the mills, at 75@75@80c, according to quality. Supplies of Corn are light, with sales from store at 45@50, for prime old yellow. The receipts of Oats have been light, and we notice a fair request at 25@27c from first hands and from store. Rye is stationary at 50c ⅌ bu. Oats have come forward pretty freely, and we notice a further decline, with sales from first hands, at 22½ ⅌ bushel

GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS—In the Grocery market we have no marked change to notice—prices are generally steady. Of N. O. Sugar we notice time sales, in lots of 5 to 10 hhds, at 7½c. Molasses remains firm at last quoted rates—say, 29@29½c for Plantation, and 31@32c for S. R. Sales 30 bags Rio Coffee, at 10½ @10¾c. Larger lots would probably fall also to those figures. Sales of Rice at 4½c in trade, and 5½c in bbls The provision market is without any material change. Bacon is firm at last quotations—say, for plain hams 7 @7½c; common canvassed, 7½@7¾, and extra sugar cured at 10@11c. Sides are firm at 5½, and Shoulders at 4½ ⅌ lb. Lard is quiet, at 7½@7½c, in bbls and kegs.

CHEESE—Sales 250 lbs in lots, at 6,6½@6½ for good common and cream.

BUTTER—The market continues firm, with fair sales at 14@15c for prime roll, and 9@9½c for any.

FEATHERS—The market is well stocked, and a fair business is doing at 31@32c as to quality

TAR—Sales from store at $1@1,25 ⅌ bbl.

DRIED FRUIT—We notice full receipts, but mostly designed for eastern shipment. The usual rates from first hands may be quoted at $1,25 for Peaches, and 50@75c for Apples.

FISH—No 3 Mackerel has declined, with sales on time, at $6,75@7 ⅌ bbl. No. 2 do may be quoted at $11,25, and No. 1 at $13. Sales of Salmon at $15, and of pickled Herring at 56 ⅌ bbl. Shadis selling at $12 ⅌ bbl for best.

EXPORTS—The total amount of specie exported from New York during the present year, is given as $3,256,020. The shipments for several weeks past have averaged about $500,000 per week, and the receipts from California alone, about $1,000,000 per week. It is estimated that the importations of specie and gold dust into New York, during the months of November and December, will amount to at least $7,000,000

DAY BOOKS—The following table shows the movement in Dry Goods at New York, for the week ending October 21
