Home and Friends.

O there's a power to make each hour
As sweet as heaven design'd it;
Nor need we roam to bring it home,
Though few there be that find it.
We seek too high for things close by,
And loose what nature found us;
For life hath here no charms so dear
As home and friends around us.

We oft destroy the present joy
For furure hopes—and praise them;
Whilst flowers as sweet bloom at our feet,
If we'd but stoop to raise them;
For things afar still sweetest are,
When youth's bright spell hath bound us;
But soon we're taught the earth hath naught
Like home and friends around us.

The friends that speed in time of need,
When hope's last reed is shaken,
Do show us still, that, come what will,
We are not quite forsaken.
Though all were night, if but the light
From friendship's alter crown'd us,
'Twould prove the bliss of earth was this—
Our home and friends around us.

The National Lutheran Synod.

HARRISBURG, Pa., May 7.—The morning session of the National Lutheran Synod was occupied in hearing a sermon by Rev. Dr. Brown, of the Gettysburg Theological Seminary, and the discussion of credentials. After some debate, the delegations from the New York Synod which were lately divided, and from the Illinois Synod which was also divided were received.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The admission of the delegation from the Pittsburg Synod was contested, but finally admitted.

Rev. Dr. H. N. Popleman, of Albany. N. Y., was elected President for the next two years; R. M. Sheeleigh, of Stewartsville, N. J., was elected Secretary, and Mr. A. F. Ackershouf, of New York City, Treasurer.

The Convention will visit the Governor in a body on Saturday. They will continue in session for a week or more.

Lazy Boys.—A lazy boy makes a lazy man, just as sure as a crooked sapling makes a crooked tree. Who ever saw a doy grow up in idleness that did not make a shiftless vagabond when he became a man, unless he had a fortune left him to keep up appearances? The great mass of thieves, criminals and paupers have come to what they are, by being brought up in idleness. Those who constitute the business part of the community—those who make our great and useful men, were taught in their boyhood to be industrious.

S. C. Herring, the safe manufacturer, has a horse six years old, nineteen hands high, and weighs one ton. It comes of Canada stock, and is said to be the largest horse in America.

New York incomes for 1867: Wm. B. Astor $977,452, C. V. S. Roosevelt $93,086, Udolpho Wolfe $33,905, Joseph Sampson $174,868, Jonathen Throne $145,818, Orison Blunt $21,953, and H. T. Helmbold $22,040.

Mrs. Langdon, sister of William B. Astor, has began a suit against her brother for the recovery of property valued at several millions.

The new bridge over the Susquehanna at Columbia, Pa., is to be erected on the piers of the old one, and will be completed by the first of January next.

The Republicans carry Louisiana by about 17,000 majority for the new constitution. The Senate stands 22 Republicans to 14 Democrats; House 60 Republicans to 41 Democrats.

The celebrated Natural Bridge in Rockbridge county, Virginia, with a hotel and 162 acres of land, was sold on the 25th ult., for $9,355.
