PITTSBURGH:

FRIDAY MORNING::::::::::::DEC. 13.

CITY MATTERS.

The President's Message.

Below we publish a number of notices from our exchanges, acknowledging the receipt of early copies of the President's Message, which we sent out by express.—We tender our thanks to each and all for the complimentary notices. We should have sent the message to many other papers, but for the uncertainty of its reaching them in time, beyond the regions to which Adams' Express travels:

We acknowledge our obligation to Col. Barr, of the Pittsburgh Morning Post, for what was intended to be an early copy of the President's Message. Had the Express company brought it with despatch, it would have anticipated the arrival of the Message from any other source—as it was, it came to hand Friday afternoon. The Post with its usual enterprise had the Message telegraphed specially, at a heavy expense, and completely headed off its neighbors, who were content to secure early copies by purloining that paper before its regular issue. It is now having its revenge by calling public attention to the fact that at least three of its contemporaries were able to publish the Message twelve hours after it did by means of stolen copies of the Post.—Mansfield Herald.

We have held back our paper, in expectation of the President's Message, all along from Tuesday morning until Wednesday evening, when we received a copy through the politeness of James P. Barr, Esq., of the Pittsburgh Post, which alone of the Pittsburgh papers, obtained it by telegraph, to the great chagrin and indignation of its city cotemporaries, who complain of unfair usage on the part of the Telegraph Company.—Brownsville Clipper.

We publish the President's Message in this issue, to the exclusion of some interesting letters from the seat of war and other matter, which we had already in type when the Message arrived. We are indebted to J. P. Barr, Esq., editor of the Pittsburgh Morning Post, for a copy of it in advance of other sources. The enterprising editor of the Post had the Message telegraphed exclusively for the Post.—New Castle Gazette.

Anxious to accommodate our patrons with an early and complete copy of the President's Message, we surrender most of our space to the publication. The message was delivered to Congress at noon on Tuesday and, by the enterprise of Mr. Barr, of the Pittsburgh Post, to whose courtesy we are indebted for a copy in advance of the mail, it was telegraphed to the Post on Tuesday evening.—Western (Beaver) Star.

The President's message (for an early copy of which we are indebted to the kindness of James P. Barr, Esq., of the Pittsburgh Morning Post, for which journal it was especially telegraphed,) is a model document, so far as length is considered, and is just such a paper as might have been expected from Mr. Lincoln by those who have observed his course.—Johnstown Tribune.

The first copy of the message of President Lincoln was received here on Wednesday morning last from the office of the Pittsburgh Post. James P. Barr, Esq., the enterprising editor of that staunch Democratic Union paper has our thanks for an early copy. We should have issued earlier but for circumstances which we could not control, and but for the dilapidated condition of our finances, would have given it to our readers in the form of an extra.—Portage Sentinel.

Through the politeness of James P. Barr, Esq., of the Pittsburgh Morning Post, in furnishing us with an extra containing President Lincoln's annual message, we are enabled to present our readers with that document this morning. It has crowded out our usual variety, but the anxiety to see the message will induce our patrons to overlook our shortcomings. The editor of the Post has our hearty thanks for his courtesy.—Altoona Tribune.

Our good friend Barr, of the Pittsburgh Post, is entitled to our thanks for what he intended to be an early copy of the President's message, but which did not really reach us, by express, until 11 a. m. on Friday.—Crawford (Meadville) Democrat.

Through the kindness of J. P. Barr, editor of the Pittsburgh Post, whom we shall gratefully remember, the President's Message came to hand one week ago, just as we had struck off our last issue. With no little mortification we were compelled to postpone its publication until now. It will be found on our first page.—Steubenville True American

Our thanks are due to James P. Barr, Esq., the enterprising publisher of the Pittsburgh Post, for a copy of the President's Message. The Post is a live paper.—Mt. Vernon Banner.

We tender our thanks to James P. Barr, of the Pittsburgh Morning Post, for early copies of the President's Message. By the way we would say to our readers, if you want a city daily, we would recommend the Morning Post as one which will give you at all times the latest and most reliable news.—Brookville Jeffersonian.

We are indebted to J. P. Barr, Esq., editor of the Pittsburgh Post, for a copy of the President's Message in advance of the mail. It was received on Wednesday morning, and in order to give it to our readers as soon as possible we issue only half a sheet.—New Castle Courant.

James P. Barr, Esq., editor of the Pittsburgh Post, has our thanks for an early copy of the President's Message.—Butler Union Herald.

We delayed our paper on Wednesday last, in order to lay the President's Message before our readers at as early a day as possible; but were somewhat disappointed on repairing to the Postoffice, and finding that owing to some disarrangement, the mail matter failed to arrive from either east or west; consequently we did not receive a copy through that source; but James P. Barr, Esq., the gentlemanly editor of the Pittsburgh Post, placed a copy for our use in the hands of one of the railroad employees, which came to hand on the arrival of the train on Wednesday—all hands then went to work upon the document and it was printed in our regular edition on Wednesday evening about dark, thus furnishing our readers with the message in about thirty hours after it had been read in Washington city. Our accommodating Post Master, R. O. Taylor, Esq., permitted the mails to remain open until the following morning, when our papers were delivered, inserted and circulated throughout the entire county. Messrs. Barr and Taylor may consider the editors of the "Messenger" and the readers of said sheet under renewed obligations for the favors conferred.—Indiana Messenger.

We tender our thanks to Jas. P. Barr, Esq., editor of the Pittsburgh Post, for an early copy of the President's Message.—Greensburg Democrat.

Jas. P. Barr, Esq., editor of the Pittsburgh Post, is tendered our thanks for an early copy of the President's Message, which we publish entire.—Indiana Messenger.

We are indebted to James P. Barr, Esq., editor of the Pittsburgh Post, for a copy of the President's Message, which was received too late for this week's paper.—Greensburg Republican.

Mr. James P. Barr, editor of the Pittsburgh Morning Post, will please accept our thanks for a copy of the President's Message.—Latrobe Inquirer.

SOAP, SOAP, SOAP, SOAP, SOAP

THE CHEMICAL OLIVE ERASIVE SOAP manufactured by B. G. & J. H. SAWYER, is acknowledged to be the most serviceable of any kind yet offered to the public. Its superior advantages are found in its cheapness, saving of labor, and its efficacy in removing grease, paint, tar and dirt without injuring the skin, or in the least wise damaging the finest quality of goods. It can be used with all kinds of water.

Reference is made with pleasure to the subjoined certificates, emanating from gentlemen well known in this community, and who had every facility afforded of seeing it fully and fairly tested.

Quartermaster's Department of the Twelfth, Thirteenth and Fourteenth Regiments, Pa. Vols.

"Sawyer's Chemical Olive Erasive Soap" having been used very extensively in our Regiments, we have no hesitation in certifying that it was found admirably adapted to the use of the soldiers, and decidedly the most superior soap which could be procured for the service.

IMPORTANT FROM EUROPE

England's Recognition of the Nashville.

SANDY HOOK, Dec. 12.—The steamship Housa, from Bremen via Southampton, with dates to the 27th ult., has passed this point, and will reach New York about one o'clock. The steamship North Briton was insured, with her cargo, for £120,000. An arrival from Australia had brought $227,000 in gold. The American ship Corinthian had been burned at Lisbon on the 25th ult. The West India steamship La Plata, from St. Thomas, arrived at Southampton on the 27th, with the report that the rebel Commissioners, Mason and Slidell, were forcibly taken from the steamer Trent, on her way to St. Thomas from Havana. The bullion in the Bank of France has increased £100,000.

Capt. Nelson, of the ship Harvey Birch, had entered his protest against the capture of the ship by the rebel steamer Nashville. The Southampton magistrate refused him a warrant for the search of the Nashville, and referred him to the Secretary of State. Capt. Pegram and Mr. Yancey had returned from London together, and the latter states that it has been intimated to him through a third party that the Nashville is recognized by the British Government as a National vessel, and will be allowed to refit and repair at Southampton, as was the case of the James Adger, so as to exercise perfect neutrality between the two contending parties.

FRANCE.—The federal council of Switzerland had demanded satisfaction from France for a fresh Gens d'armes, near Geneva.

ITALY.—Garibaldi is reported to have replied to the Neapolitan address that he regrets being unable to go to them, but that he will be with them when necessary. He expects Italians to have their swords ready.

TURIN, November 26.—The Bank has reduced its rate of discount from 6½ to 6½ per cent.

TURKEY.—Dowisch Pasha, with eight battalions, had encountered 6000 insurgents in Bosnia; slaying 800 and routing the remainder. The European consuls propose an armistice.

CHINA.—The allies were leaving Tien Sien. The trade on Ningpo and Hankow was obstructed by the rebels. The French were in want of men and guns to protect Foo Chow.

JAPAN.—Affairs in Japan had taken a more favorable turn.

SPAIN.—The Sardinian Minister had demanded his passports, and leaves Madrid, the two governments disagreeing in relation to the Neapolitan archives.

COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

Liverpool, November 26.—The cotton market is dull, and quotations generally unchanged. Sales for two days 9,000 bales, including 4,000 to speculators and exporters. The advices from Manchester are unfavorable, the market for goods and yarns being flat.

Breadstuff Market.—Breadstuffs, as a general thing, remain heavy and dull. Flour is very dull, 20s@32s. Wheat is easier: red western, 12s 6d@12s 9d; red southern, 12s 6d@12s 9d; white western 12s 9d, and white southern 13s@14s 94. Corn dull; mixed 32s 6d@32s 6d; yellow 32s 9d@33s; white 34s@38s.

Provisions.—The market is generally steady. Beef steady. Pork quiet but steady. Bacon has an upward tendency. Lard nominal at 49s@51s. Tallow quiet and steady at 53s@52s.

Produce.—Rosin has a downward tendency; common 12s 6d@13s 6d. Spirits turpentine flat at 30s@32s. Sugars steady. Rice steady. Coffee inactive. Ashes firm at 33s for pots. Linseed oil steady.

London, November 26.—Consols closed at 94¼ for money.

From Kansas.

LEAVENWORTH, December 11.—Colonel Morgan, in command of the troops at Weston, has issued a proclamation to the citizens of Platte county, in which he calls upon them to aid him in protecting the railroad; calls upon absentees to return, assuring them protection of persons and property if loyal; no niggers will be allowed within camp, or to leave without a pass, and all marauding parties of armed men to be shot. Colonel Morgan's forces are said to be composed of Missourians, enlisted under Governor Gamble's call.—A strong force, including Col. Jamison's regiment, the 8th Kansas, Colonel Wessel, a portion of the 70th Missouri, and other troops, have been ordered to West Point, Bates county, Missouri.

Reports from Price state that he was at Osceola, where he made a speech, vowing vengeance on Kansas for burning that place. A skirmish took place on the 6th inst. at Fordan, Johnson county, between Missouri refugees, aided by some Kansas people, and a body of rebels. Three rebels are reported killed.
