A letter from "Joseph May B[illegible] Monterey, Virginia, says: [illegible] a resident of Allegheny City, has been appointed second Lieutenant in Capt. Gibson's company D. Previous to his appointment Lieutenant Burfield was attached to the Medical Department. He is known to be 'made of the right stuff.' The Government is constructing large commissary store houses at New Creek station, on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, from which point our army in the valley of Virginia will hereafter be supplied. Major Joseph Darr, Jr., of the First Virginia Cavalry, has been retained upon General Fremont's staff, as Provost Marshal General for the Mountain Department."

Visiting Pennsylvania Soldiers.

A Fortress Monroe dispatch says:—Clement B. Barclay, Esq., Commissioner appointed by the Governor of Pennsylvania to visit and relieve the sufferings of our wounded soldiers everywhere, has arrived here, and has already been going around doing good in the General Hygiea Hospital. The kind face of this genuine and well-known philanthropist meets with nothing but smiles from the poor, sick and wounded. Mr. Barclay distributes every delicacy to the inmates of the hospitals where they may be needed."

Chaplains in the Army.

The Independent divides the chaplains in the army of the several denominations named, in the following proportions: Methodist, one-third; New-school Presbyterians, one-fifth; Congregationalists, one-seventh; Episcopalians, one-seventh; Baptists, one-eleventh; Old-school Presbyterians, one-twentieth; Unitarians, one-twentieth; Roman Catholic, less than one-twentieth.

Juvenile Depravity.

Two little girls certainly not more than eight and eleven years old respectively, whose parents reside on Pennsylvania Avenue, were arrested last evening about dusk and locked up in the tombs, charged with picking from the pockets of a lady, while in a store on Webster street, her portmonie, containing $15 in notes. The portmonie, with $7 of the money, was found on one of the children: $5 had been left by them with a woman on Webster street and the remainder had been spent by them.

Philadelphia Commission House.

Our produce and provision dealers would do well to take notice of the card of Messrs. Wm. Brice & Co., commission merchants, No. 15 South Water street Philadelphia. The house is a good one, stands A No. 1 and having a large business connection, offers superior inducements to Western shippers. They make liberal advances on consignments when required and account for goods as soon as sold.

Jewish Synagogue.

The Jews of Erie have organized a society, and secured the services of Rabbi Wall, late of New York, who will officiate both as Priest and Teacher. They have fitted up rooms, in which the first service was held on last Saturday week. A school is to be organized as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made.

Boxing Oil.

The Warren Ledger says that oil "is being sent down the Allegheny river in boxes. They are made tight, and about sixteen feet square, and some twenty feet high. They are filled directly from the wells or tanks along the creek: five of them are then fastened together and run out of the creek, when twenty of them are formed together to form a river fleet. This fleet is run to Pittsburgh, where the oil is pumped into barrels and forwarded to market."

General Tom Thumb.

The levees of this, the "ladies' pet," continue to be well attended by enthusiastic audiences. His merry roguish eye, which speaks volumes, seems to be fully understood by the ladies, who are fairly elated with his peculiar receipt. He is decidedly the most successful "General" at conquests of this or past generations.—Saturday will be his last appearance in this city.

Another Death at the Hospital.

A third death occurred at the Marine Hospital on Tuesday night, viz: Charles Barnes, of Co. B, 12th Michigan regiment, who had been suffering from a severe wound through the body. He was from the vicinity of Niles, Michigan, and was, previous to enlistment, a Methodist local preacher.

Adah Isaacs Menken.

This facinating actress still attracts good audiences to the Theatre. To-night she appears in the Protean drama of "Satan in Paris," to which will be added "The Golden Farmer," by the stock company.

Boots and Shoes at Auction.

Every day at 2 o'clock, and evening at 7½ o'clock, at the Masonic Hall Auction House, will be sold Boots, Shoes and Gaiters, for Men's, Women's and Children's wear. Lasting Gaiters, 50 cents a pair.

Acknowledgment.

PITTSBURGH, April 30th, 1862.

It is with pleasure I acknowledge the receipt of $6 87, sent by the young ladies of Findley township, through their Committee, Misses King, Pollock and Burns, in aid for the relief of the sick and wounded which have arrived here from the battle of Pittsburg, Tenn. R. MILLER, Jr.
Chairman Firnance Committee.

Gas Bills.

The Legislature, previous to its adjournment, passed a bill for the relief of landlords from the payment of gas bills of their tenants, who may choose to act dishonestly, by moving away and leaving such bills unpaid. The old law was a most arbitrary enactment, as it compelled one person to pay for an article used by another, without receiving any consideration.

Resigned.

Captain R. H. Patterson, of the Union Cavalry, has resigned his commission in the army, and retired to private life. He can be found at his old quarters on Diamond street.

SOUTHERN EXTRACTS.

From the Atlanta (Ga.) Confederacy, March 30.

Gloomy Prospect for the Rebels.

A Dr. Banks, residing in Savannah, Ga., having just returned from a tour to Richmond, our brave Col. Armstrong went to inquire from him what the news was. "Oh, Colonel," said he, "we are whipped on all sides, everything looks dark and gloomy for us. McCulloch and Price are killed, Columbus and Manassas are evacuated, and hell is to pay everywhere."

The same doctor added that the Yankees would have to kill the last Southern gentleman before they could be conquered. "It is not," said he to the Colonel, "the negro question which is now mooted—it is to know whether the Puritan or the Cavalier is to rule this continent. For fifteen years we have been preparing for it, and the Yankees cannot expect to destroy in a day what we have taken so long to prepare."

A Fight in East Tennessee.

The Knoxville Register of the 18th says: A bushwhacking fight, which lasted three days, came off last week, between a detachment of Confederates, under command of Colonel Key, and the band of tories from Greene county, Tennessee, who have taken refuge in the mountains of the North Carolina border, and who have been occasionally sallying down into Greene, and committing outrages and depredations upon the Southern-Rights men. The result of the fight was that from fifteen to twenty-five tories were killed, and two killed and three wounded on our side.

Circulation of Individual Notes Prohibited.

HEADQUARTERS DEP'T OF HENRICO,
RICHMOND, VA., April 16, 1862.

GENERAL ORDERS No. 15.—From and after this date, the issuance and circulation of individual notes are strictly prohibited. Notes of this character are to be redeemed in bankable funds upon presentation, and must at once be withdrawn from circulation.

Persons violating this order in any particular will be considered guilty of a grave offense, and will be subject to arrest and such punishment as may be imposed by a court martial. By order of

Brig. Gen. JOHN H. WINDER.
L. B. PAGE, A. A. General.

A Lady's Pass.

The Richmond Dispatch, of March 30, publishes the copy of a pass given to a lady whose husband had to flee into Maryland to avoid being pressed into the Rebel army. His wife, desiring to cross the river and get some money, received this pass:

"MRS. MCFARLAN—Pass. Promises forever to forsake her husband and never to return to him again, unless he crosses the Potomac, acknowledges his errors, and becomes a loyal subject to the Southern Confederacy.

O. W. POSDICK, Provost Marshal."

New Style of Canal Boat.

The Utica Journal says that a canal boat, built entirely on a new plan, is in progress of construction at the inlet, in that village. Instead of the usual frame, planked on the outside and sheathed within, this boat is composed of solid sticks of timber, breaking joints and laying one upon the other, clamped down together with heavy bolts, and braced with strong stays throughout. Some persons of experience in canal navigation claim that this boat will have greater capacity for her size than other boats, as she will be lighter, and at the same time stronger and more substantial.
