WASHINGTON, August 11.—The following correspondence relates to an ingenious device of parties from a neighboring State to raise recruits in Pennsylvania:

WASHINGTON, August 11.—Assistant Adjutant General's Office.—Brig. Buckingham: Has any authority been given by your Department to raise a Bucktail Brigade of Pennsylvania troops?

Very respectfully,
THOMAS M. VINCENT.

MAJOR—Authority to individuals to raise troops has for a long time been refused, and I may safely say that no authority of the kind has been granted: certainly not to my knowledge.

C. P. BUCKINGHAM, Brig. Gen.

A strong feeling prevails in the old regiments against officers who are absent from their regiments and employed in making arrangements to promote themselves above their more meritorious comrades remaining in the field.

CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD INTELLIGENCE

FILE PAPERS WANTED.

We need a few papers to complete our files, for which we will pay liberally at our counting room. They are as follows: 1861—Nov. 29th, (2.) 1862—January 14th.

Come Up and Subscribe.

We direct special attention to the advertisement of the Executive Committee in another column. It contains information of importance to all engaged in recruiting. Now is the time for every man to do his duty to his country; let one and all come up and swell the Volunteer Bounty Fund.

Military Districts.

By special dispatches received yesterday, it appears that one serious obstacle in the way of enlistments here has been removed, the War Department having determined to subdivide the States into military districts, so that each district may be credited with the number of volunteers it has raised under the new call, and have them deducted from its quota when a draft is applied.

Our State and County Quota.

We are still a good deal in the fog as to the number of troops which Pennsylvania and Allegheny county are yet required to furnish, as we have yet no definite information from the State authorities. We can, therefore, only give the figures under the several probabilities of the case. Although our fair share of the 600,000 troops called for being as 2,900,000, the population of Pennsylvania, in round numbers, is to that of the United States, in round numbers, 22,000,000) would be but 79,091, the general government has assigned, as our share, 92,841, to fill the two calls of July 1st and August 11th, and this must be our basis in making up the county quota. In round numbers the population of our county is 178,000, which would make our proportion of the whole 5,698. The Governor's proclamation of the 21st ultimo called for fifteen companies from Allegheny county, which, (with the understanding that the State had been credited with all troops furnished in excess on former requisitions,) it was supposed, filled our quota under the first call. If this be the case, the fifteen companies required being already sworn in, we have merely to furnish 2,849 men to fill the second quota. It not and we have to make up the whole quota, we must yet send on 4,198 men. But this is scarcely probable as the Secretary of War has notified the Governor of Virginia that "recruits for the old regiments are considered as making up the new levy," and the same privilege would be accorded to Pennsylvania if asked for. Therefore we shall have fulfilled our share of the contract when we send 2,849 men in addition to those now sworn in. We have some 2,000 men recruited now, and the remainder could be easily raised in a short time. Let Gov. Curtin say that he will take our quota of militia as volunteers and he can have them in a week.

New Wilmington College.

It is proposed to open the new edifice of Westminster College, New Wilmington, Pa., on Wednesday, the 3d of September. Addresses are expected, suited to the occasion; and that the public may have some idea of the design of the exercises, we publish the following list of speakers and subjects: Rev. D. H. A. McLean, D. D., The History of the Institution; Rev. Joseph H. Pressley, The mutual relations and obligations of the College, and the first Synod of the West, to which it belongs; Rev. T. Guthrie, D. D., The obligations of society at large to our Colleges, as the source of our Christian civilization; Rev. John S. Easton, D. D., The importance of thoroughness in Collegiate studies in order to mental development and professional success; Rev. James Prestley, D. D., Claims on our Colleges for Christian statesmen, for the present and coming time; Hon. John A. Bingham: The mission of our Republican institutions.

Pittsburghers of the 46th Killed and Wounded.

Two companies, composed almost exclusively of Pittsburghers, are attached to the 46th Pennsylvania regiment, Colonel Knipe, which suffered severely in the battle at Cedar Mountain. A dispatch has been received from Capt. B. W. Morgan, by his mother, as follows:

"I am well. Lieut. Craig was wounded. Lieut. Matthews was killed or taken prisoner. Several of my men were killed, wounded and taken prisoners.

"B. W. MORGAN,
"Capt. Co. F, 46th Pa. Vols."

No intelligence of Capt. W. L. Foulk has been received, but it is believed he is uninjured or Captain Morgan would have stated the fact had he been wounded.

Fatal Railroad Accident.

On Monday evening about eight o'clock a colored man named Allen Holland was killed on the Pittsburgh, Ft. Wayne and Chicago Railway, half a mile below the "Pork House," by the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Fast Line coming East. He was walking on the track as a freight train approached, and, the signal being given, stepped over on the other track, when he was struck by the Cleveland train, which came up at the moment, dragged some distance by the cow-catcher, and killed almost instantly. The Coroner held an inquest yesterday, and the jury found a verdict in accordance with the facts.

Camp Howe.

Capt. Smith is pushing the arrangements at Camp Howe forward as rapidly as possible, so as to get nine months' men into camp as soon as practicable, but present indications are that it will not be ready until Saturday, and that few troops will be ordered in until next week. Meanwhile the companies sworn in are drilling daily, those residing in the city quartering at home and those from abroad lodging at hotels and boarding houses. Owing to the rush at Harrisburg our troops will probably be kept here several weeks.

—We have since learned that two companies, A and B, went into camp last evening.

Fire in Pitt Township.

On Monday afternoon the residence of the janitor of the school house near Oakland, Pitt township, was destroyed by fire and the school house slightly damaged. The fire was accidental.

Resignation of Mayor Drum—A Temporary Successor Elected.

The Councils of Allegheny held a special meeting yesterday afternoon to receive the resignation of Hon. Simon Drum, Mayor of that city, who is about to go out as Captain of Clark Infantry, co. C. The resignation was handed in, read and accepted, all in due form.

The Councils then proceeded to elect a Mayor pro tempore, to serve for thirty days, until a new election is held. There were several candidates for the position, viz: Alderman James Miller, Alderman Joseph H. Scott, John Morrison, Sylvester Tyler, A. C. Alexander, and Hugh M'Kelvy. Three ballots were had and on the last Alderman Miller was elected by a vote of 12 to 7 for M'Kelvy.

Mr. Riddle then offered a resolution, which was unanimously adopted, instructing the Mayor pro tem to issue his proclamation to the voters of Allegheny city for the election of a mayor to fill the unexpired term of Mr. Drum, the election to take place on the first Tuesday of September next, according to law and the city charter.

War Meeting in Birmingham.

A very spirited meeting of the people of our little borough over the river was held on Monday evening. Burgess Jas. Sainsbury presided, a fine band discoursed sweet music, and the Diamond was crowded with citizens, while the ladies were also present in numbers. Speeches were made by Prof. Burt, Principal of the borough schools, and James Onslow, or "Cussewago," of the 62d regiment. The latter paid a high compliment to the patriotism and valor of the citizens of Birmingham. At the close a number of young men came forward and enrolled their names for the war.

The Championship.

The first of the two great races for the scullers' championship, between Hamill, of our city, and Ward of New York, takes place to-day and the second to-morrow, on the Schuylkill. About one hundred Pittsburghers have gone to Philadelphia to witness the races, the result of which will be looked for with great interest by many who are obliged to stay at home. There is a universal confidence here that Hamill will win.

Semple Infantry, Co. C.

Co. B of the Semple Infantry having been filled up, Co. C has been started and now has some forty or fifty men enrolled. The company will be commanded by Capt E. M. Jenkins, with Jos. S. Harbison as First Lieutenant. Mr. Semple, with unbounded liberality, has also contributed to this company, as to each of the others, $100, to pay bounty. The Semple Infantry, Co. C., will soon be filled up and ready to take the field.

J. K. Moorhead Infantry.

Capt. Julian H. Hughey is succeeding beyond his expectations in recruiting this company, as his roll now looks quite formidable. He expects to have his company full in a few days, and we commend those wishing to join a good corps to him, as he has been "out" and knows how to take good care of his men. Do not wait to be drafted, but come up now and aid in filling Allegheny county's quota by the 15th. Only three days more.

The Rahm Infantry.

The officers of this company only commenced recruiting last Monday and have already half the number of men required. In addition to the liberal bounty offered by the county they will pay an additional bounty for good men. Enroll your names in the Rahm Infantry before they commence drafting. Headquarters No. 63 5th street.

Casualties.

A lad, whose name we did not ascertain, was killed at Shalersville yesterday morning, by being run over by a coal car. About the same time a boy named I M Cox was drowned in the river, near Saw Mill Run. Coroner M'Clung held an inquest in both cases in the afternoon, but we were unable to find him to learn full particulars.

The New Allegheny.

The new steamer for the Allegheny fire company, designed by Mr. Jas. Nelson, who drew the plans for the Eagle, has been commenced. She is being built by Mr. Geo. Wilson, Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, an excellent mechanic. The new engine will, it is expected, excel the "Eagle."

War Meeting at Bridgeville.

A meeting of the people of St. Clair, Fayette and Robinson townships, will be held in Foster's Grove, near Bridgeville, nine miles from Pittsburgh, on Thursday next, at three o'clock. Prof. Frazer, of Canonsburg, J. E. Slagle, of Pittsburg, Rev. D. Marshall and other popular speakers will be present.

Death of Dr. Dilworth.

Our readers will learn with surprise of the death of Dr. Samuel Dilworth, who died yesterday morning, after a brief illness, at the residence of his father-in-law, Mr. Andrew Fulton. Dr. D. was a thoroughly educated physician, kind, generous and genial, and his loss will be generally regretted by all who knew him.

State Teachers' Association.

In consequence of the excitement caused by the efforts to increase the Union army for the speedy suppression of the rebellion, the annual meeting of the State Teachers' Association which was to have taken place yesterday in the city of Reading, has been postponed. Probably it will not be held till next year.

Will Recover.

Wm. O'H. Scully, who was severely injured at the outer depot of the Pennsylvania Railroad on Monday afternoon by the slipping of the fastenings of a cannon, the shipment of which he was superintending, is much better, and will recover.

Punishment for the East Tennessee Unionists.

The following article, from a Richmond paper, looks as if the Rebel Government was preparing for a rush upon East Tennessee:

The Confederate States Government has pursued a policy towards malcontents within its own jurisdiction, which has been generous to weakness. The Union men of East Tennessee never have been subjected to restraint, punishment or violence on account of their being Union men. The policy of the Government towards them has been mild and conciliatory. We will venture the assertion that no Government de facto much less de jure, ever tolerated so much open, turbulent and contemptuous resistance to its authority. The people of Tennessee had declared for "separation" from the United States and annexation to the Confederate States. This Government had extended its jurisdiction, its laws and its protection, over the people of Tennessee. No vestige of the Federal Government remained, and its very name had been expunged from the laws, forms, oaths and courts of Tennessee by the solemn acts of its own Legislature. Yet, there were men in a considerable section of this State who boldly advocated the cause of the old Government, and took up arms in its cause; who organized a complete system of espionage for the aid and benefit of the public enemy; who "bushwhacked" the Southern soldier in the lonely woods; who alarmed, excited, and infuriated the people with false statements in relation to our Government: who depreciated our currency, openly recruited for Lincoln's army, burned our railroad bridges, and cut down and destroyed our telegraph lines. A few of them, and but a few of them, have been subjected to punishment. We repeat, no Union man who has not acted treason to the Confederacy, who has not in some form been in open, factious rebellion against its laws and authority, has been subjected to the slightest inconvenience on account of his sentiments. In all communities, even the most enlightened and Christian, there will be perpetrated individual acts of violence during turbulent times, and especially when the State is in the throes of revolution. Our country in this respect has not been more fortunate than others: but instances of this violence have been very rare, and generally provoked.

The fact that a political party, styling itself the Union party, still exists in East Tennessee, intact, dominant and defiant, which in the month of May last, elected two circuit judges and one chancellor, as Union men against competitors, who were run as loyal Southern men, is a forcible comment upon the charge of persecution and severity in the administration of the Confederate Government in Tennessee.—Our Government cannot afford to lose East Tennessee: and when it does secure its authority there experience may teach it the necessity of a firmer if not harsher policy to keep a turbulent and ungenerous people in subjection to the laws. This section of country is the keystone of the Southern arch. It is now in great peril. Whether the great artery through which the life-blood of the South now circulates—the East Tennessee & Virginia R. R.—is to be surrendered, whether the only adequate supply of salt is to be lost, whether the only hog crop in the South is to be surrendered, whether that army of undisciplined vengeance and indiscriminate slaughter, from which so much is hoped by Brownlow and his Northern friends, is to be permitted to burst across the devoted land with the desolation of volcanic fire, are questions of vast and pressing importance.
