The election of permanent officers being in order, Thos. Farley, Esq., and Dr. A. M. Pollock were placed in nomination for Chairman. A vote was taken viva voce, resulting thus: Farley 61, Pollock 24.

Mr. Farley, on taking the chair, remarked that he felt much gratified and returned sincere thanks for the honor conferred in selecting him as chairman of a Democratic Convention. Having met with them for thirty-five years it always gave him pleasure to be present at these assemblages of the Democracy. It was, he said, important that we should act unanimously.—The country is now in a death struggle for the perpetuation of the Constitution and the Union—for which the Democracy have always stood. They have ever aimed to maintain the glorious liberty we have enjoyed under the principles established by our forefathers, and on them now devolves an important and imperative duty. They have a great mission to perform—to stand by the Constitution and the laws in putting down all the foes of constitutional liberty and the laws under which we live. He would endeavor to discharge his duties faithfully and impartially, and again thanked the Convention for the honor conferred.

On motion, Gen. Geo. Watson, Henry M'Callough, Henry Ingram, Col. Jas. A. Gibson and Dr. A. M. Pollock were chosen Vice Presidents; and the temporary Secretaries were continued for the permanent organization.

A motion by Mr. Alexander, that all proceedings be conducted by viva voce vote, was adopted.

On motion of Col. Jas. A. Gibson, the following gentlemen were appointed a committee on resolutions: Col. James A. Gibson, Dr. A. M. Pollock, R. H. Kerr, S. P. Ross, John Sill.

On motion of Charles Barnett it was resolved that all resolutions be referred to the committee just appointed.

Nominations being in order, Mr. Kerr moved that Hon. R. P. Flenniken and Hon. Chas. Shaler be respectfully nominated for President and Associate Law Judge of the Court of Common Pleas—and they were nominated by acclamation.

The Convention then proceeded to nominate candidates for the respective county offices, as follows:

For Prosecuting Attorney—James H. Hopkins, Wm. Linn, Jno. R. Large.

For State Senator—Wm. Wilkins, R. H. Kerr.

For Assembly—Campbell Stewart, Allegheny city; J. T. F. Wright, do; A. J. Baker, Pittsburgh; Hugh M'Afee, Temperanceville; Dr. Blackburn, Mifflin tp; Peter Huberman, Lower St. Clair tp; Samuel Smith, Allegheny city; J. C Bryant, Shaler tp; John Sill, Versailles tp; James Onslow, Pittsburgh; Adam Reineman, Reserve tp.

For Controller—Col. Geo. S. Hays; Major John H. McIlhenny; Col. Robert Anderson.

For Commissioner—Chas. Bryson, Jacob Stuckrath, Thos. N. Smith, Alex. McMurray.

For Director of the Poor—Col. Jos. E. McCabe.

On motion of Col. Gibson the Convention then adjourned until half past one o'clock, to give the committee on resolutions time to prepare their report.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The Convention was again called to order at quarter before two o'clock, when Mr. Barnett moved the appointment of a Committee of Correspondence of fifteen, to be appointed by the chairman, who shall be a member, the committee to select its own officers.

Mr. Kerr moved to amend the motion by making the committee consist of one from each election district in the county, which was adopted by the mover.

Mr. O'Neill, of Allegheny, moved to amend by making the Chairman of the Convention Chairman of the Committee. This was also adopted.

The motion as amended was then unanimously adopted.

Col. Gibson, chairman of the committee on resolutions, read the following as the unanimous report of the committee.

WHEREAS, The victories of the Democratic party are always measured by its fidelity to the Union and the Constitution, we fully and cheerfully indorse the resolutions of the 4th of July Convention of 1862 and urge upon all true men to stand firm and be united, for the success of the principles of Democracy are necessary to uphold the government of the people.

Resolved, That we yield a willing obedience and support to the Government in its efforts to bring this monstrous rebellion to a close, by prosecuting the war with vigor to that end. To preserve the life of the nation is the ardent wish of every Democrat, and while that life is threatened, all other objects are forgotten.—Restoration! is our watchword: Restore the Constitution, restore the laws, restore peace, and then will prosperity and happiness be restored throughout the land.

Resolved, That this Government can now only be re-established in its rightful authority, by banishing from the Councils of the Nation all bigots, propagandists and reformers, whose mission it is to destroy good governments and establish bad ones.

Resolved, That a period of civil war is not a time to remodel a form of government. Restoration first, and if desirable, modification afterwards.

Resolved, That the leaders of the rebellion in the South and the leaven of the Republican party of the North are alike opposed to the Constitution of 1787, and that the Democratic party is the only great political organization which recognizes the full obligations to the government under which we live and the Constitution which we are endeavoring to extend over the rebellious States.

The report was unanimously adopted and then followed three enthusiastic cheers for the Constitution and the Union.

Mr. S. P. Ross offered the following additional resolution, which was adopted with great unanimity:

Resolved, That the emigration into this State of negroes is fraught with great danger to good morals and injury to free white labor and should be by law prevented.

Mr. Wm. Bryant offered the following:

Resolved, That this Convention endorse, as worthy of all confidence, the Senator in Congress from this State, Edgar Cowan, as honest, capable and faithful to the Constitution, to the American Union, the laws made under and by the authority of the Constitution. They must be preserved in their proper and rightful supremecy; that the rebellion now in arms against them must be suppressed and put down; and that it is the dutyof all good citizens to aid the General Government in all measures necessary and proper to that end.

The chair decided the resolution out of order, as it had not been submitted to the committee on resolutions, in accordance with a resolution passed in the morning.

A motion was now offered to permit delegates to vote for absent colleagues, which was, after a good deal of discussion, laid upon the table.

The Convention then proceeded to vote for the candidates placed in nomination, with the following result:

For District Attorney (the name of Jas. H. Hopkins having been withdrawn) Wm. Linn received 54 votes and John R. Large 38 votes, and Mr. Linn was declared the nominee.

For State Senate, Hon. Wm. Wilkins had 39 and R. H. Kerr 45 votes. The latter was declared the nominee and thanked the convention for the honor.

For Controller Geo. S. Hays received 14 votes, John H. M'Elhinny 23, Robert Anderson 46—and the latter was declared the nominee.

For Commissioner the vote stood: Bryson 33, Stuckrath 42, Smith 5, McMurray 2. Mr. Stuckrath was therefore declared duly nominated.

For Director of the Poor, Joseph E. M'Cabe, the only candidate, was nominated by acclamation.

For Assembly, the vote, for convenience, was taken by marking, resulting as follows:

Stewart,	38	Smith,	8
Wright,	18	Bryant,	56
Baker,	72	Sill,	21
Harbison,	36	Onslow,	18
McAfee,	33	Reineman,	50
Blackburn,	21	Cameron,	20
Haberman,	23	Dr. Ahl,	2

On motion the five highest candidates, Messrs. Stewart, Baker, Harbison, Bryant and Reineman, were declared the nominees and on motion their nomination was made unanimous.

The Convention now adjourned after the usual vote of thanks to the officers.

NOMINATIONS FOR CONGRESS.

Twenty-second District.—The delegates from the 22d district met after the adjournment of the main Convention, and organized with Henry McCullough, Esq., as Chairman, Dr. A. M. Pollock and Henry Ingram as Vice Presidents, and Jno. Fullwood as Secretary.

Col. R. Biddle Roberts, Francis Sellers, George P. Hamilton and J. B. Sweitzer were nominated for Congress.

Mr. Richards stated that Col. Roberts would not be a candidate and his name was withdrawn. Mr. Ross also withdrew the name of Col. Sweitzer.

A vote was then taken on the remaining candidates, resulting thus: Hamilton, 30; Sellers, 2. Mr. Hamilton was declared the unanimous nominee for Congress and the Convention adjourned.

Twenty-Third District—The delegates from the 23d district organized with Thos. Farley as chairman and Jacob Whitesell as Secretary.

Wm. H. McGee, Wm. Neillie, Charles McGinn, James A. Gibson and J. T. F. Wright were selected as conferees to meet with those from Butler and Armstrong counties to nominate a candidate for Congress, instructed to vote for Jno. R. Large. After which the Convention adjourned.

Arrived.

Manager Henderson has received a letter from Ettie Henderson, announcing her safe aarival in England after a pleasant passage.

Join the Rahm Infantry.

A few more men wanted to fill the roll. A liberal bounty will be given. Headquarters 68 Fifth street.

Re-opening of the Theater.

Manager Henderson has been busily engaged for some days in cleaning, renovating, repainting and applying new decorations to the Pittsburgh Theater, which will be opened for the fall and winter season on Saturday evening of next week, 23d inst. He has engaged an entirely new stock company, of great talent, some of whom have been playing the leading business in the best Eastern Theatres. The leading lady is Mrs. D. Myron, from Wallack's, with Miss Amy Frost, comedienne, an old favorite here; Mrs. Ableman, old woman, Miss Lizzie Gillet, juvenile, Miss Fanny Burt, walking lady, Miss Anna Hyatt, chambermaid, and Misses A. and L. Hardy, Wortman and Murray for "utility." The danseuse is Nelle Rosa; Mr. G. D. Chaplin, from Winter Garden, will be leading gentleman; Mr. F. Mordwent, from Niblo's, "heavy man;" Mr. Joseph Septon, low comedy; Mr. Church, comedian; Mr. Chippendale, first old man, and D. Myron, Thorne, Ward, Johnston, H. Hudson, Morris, Ogden and Gordon, walking gentlemen. Mr. B. Rice is the prompter and Mr. Morris the scenic artist. Every thing gives promise of a successful season, and to show that Mr. Henderson intends to give us first class attractions: we will merely mention the names of new stars whom he has engaged, Mr. E. L. Davenport and Miss Alice Placide.

Citizens' Meeting at Bakerstown.

BAKERSTOWN, August 11th, 1862.

Mr. Editor—At a meeting of the citizens of Richland Township, held in Bakerstown, August 9th, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Commissioners of Allegheny county be instructed by this meeting to use the credit of the county in providing the means to pay to each volunteer that may go from the county in defense of the country, after this date, the sum of fifty dollars each, provided the sum required shall not exceed two hundred thousand dollars, and that such use of the credit of the county shall obviate the necessity of drafting.

Resolved, That the rebellion of the Southern States of this Union is most wicked and cruel, against the best government upon the face of the whole earth.

Resolved, That this rebellion, by the help of God, must and shall be put down, cost what it may in blood and treasure.

SAMUEL FLEMING, Pres't.
M. JONES, Sec'y.

Pic-Nics.

The annual pic-nic for the benefit of the schools attached to St. Mary's Church, Lawrenceville, will be held on Thursday, the 21st inst., at Iron City Park. The ladies having it in charge will spare no pains to make it a pleasant entertainment. A dinner will be served up at the usual hour. The refreshment tables will be abundantly supplied with the luxuries of the season. Dinner tickets can be had from any of the ladies connected with the management of the pic-nic, at 50 cents. We wish the ladies every success in this meritorious undertaking.

The annual pic-nic for the benefit of St. Patrick's schools will take place at the Iron City Park on Tuesday, the 26th inst. Admission to Park, 10 cents. Dinner tickets, 25 cents.

The Draft.

The Executive Committee have been making every effort to have a distinct understanding with the State government relative to having Alegheny county credited with the excess of volunteers furnished over her quota and have been in continual correspondence with the Governor and Adjutant General. By the following, received yesterday, we may fairly presume that the vexed question will be settled in a few days:

HARRISBURG, Aug. 12, 1862.

To Hon. Thomas M. Howe:

The Governor goes to Washington today to have the question of credit of excess settled.

A. L. RUSSELL, Adjt. Gen.

The Boat Race.

A dispatch was received from Philadelphia (how reliable we are unable to say) stating that the first race for the championship, on the Schuylkill, had been won by Hammill, our champion, with ease. Hammill's friends were exultant over the intelligence, but others were of the opinion that it was merely a draw on the part of Ward to induce heavy betting on to-day's race, which he is confident of winning. The matter will most probably be set at rest this evening.

Republican County Convention.

The Republicans of the county hold their primary meetings on Saturday, the 30th ult., when delegates to the Convention, which meets the following Monday at the Court House, to nominate county officers, &c., will be elected. The candidates to be put in nomination are, two members of Congress, one District Attorney, one State Senator, five members of the Legislature, one County Commissioner, and one Director of the Poor.

Pittsburgh Officers Prisoners.

Private dispatches received yesterday from Culpepper Court House announce the capture by the rebels of Capt. Wm. L. Foulk, Lieut. H. A. Greatrake, and Lieut. Scott, all of Co. B, 46th regiment; and Capt. Jno. H. Stewart and Lieut. Hancock of the Union Cavalry of Pittsburgh. Lieut. Matthews, of Co. F, (Capt. B. W. Morgan) 46th regiment, at first supposed to be killed or a prisoner, was found on the field, wounded in the leg.

War Meeting in Allegheny.

On Tuesday evening a large and patriotic war meeting took place in the Allegheny Diamond. Speeches were made by Samuel Harper, Esq., Rev. J. J. Marks, Chaplain of the 63d regiment, Capt. W. H. Moody and W. W. Alexander. A brass band was in attendance and enlivened the occasion with several patriotic airs.

Died in Richmond.

A private letter to Judge Gabriel Adams, of this city, dated Richmond, July 26th, conveys the melancholy announcement of the death of his nephew, James Adams, of Co. A, 102d (old 13th) Pa. Volunteers in his 23d year. The letter, written by H. W. Read, a Baptist minister and prisoner, states that he died in that city on the 26th.

Choice Stock for Sale.

By reference to our advertising columns it will be seen that a fine lot of blooded stock will be sold on the 28th of August, at the residence of John Hodgson, in Chartiers township, near Obey's tavern. The stock consists of fall-blooded Durhams, Grade Cattle, Morgan Colts and Cotswold Sheep. A rare chance for farmers.

Blackberry Wine.

At the request of several of our subscribers who have tried the following receipt for making blackberry wine of a superior quality and found it to be the thing, we republish it. It is superior to any other wine for medical purposes, invaluable as a tonic and an excellent remedy for diseases of the bowels. It is also of very fine flavor: Measure your berries and bruisd them; to every gallon adding on a quart of boiling water. Let the mixture stand twenty-four hours, stirring occasionally; then strain off the liquid into a cask; to every gallon adding two pounds of sugar; cork tight and let it stand till the following October, and you will have wine ready for use without further straining or boiling, that will make lips smack that never smacked under similar influences before. It may be improved and perhaps, will keep better, by adding a small quantity of pure French brandy.

At Home.

Lieut. Wm. Riddle, of the 5th Pennsylvania Reserves, who recently escaped from prison at Richmond, reached here yesterday morning, in good health. Mr. John Murray, pilot of the Carondelet, is also home on a brief furlough. He was in the action with the rebel ram "Arkansas."

Government Rifles of Beaver County.

We call attention to the advertisement of Capt. Geo. W. Glass, who is raising a company at New Brighton, Beaver county. Capt. Glass is a good officer, and the lads Beaver county make first rate fighting men.

Liberal.

Mr. S. M. Kier has presented Captain Collard, of the Kier Rifles, with $500, which, with other donations, enables him to pay a private bounty of $10. The company will be armed with Sharpe's rifles.

Soldier's Walking Shoes.

A prime article of canvass shoes made expressly for soldier's in regard to marching can now be had at the Masonic Hall Auction House, No. 55 Fifth street, at prices to defy competition.

Returned from Europe.

The following persons, from this vicinity, have arrived in New York, from Europe, in the steamer City of Baltimore: J. S. Hall, of Hall & Speer, Wm. Smith, Robert Ashworth, Miss Proudfoot, Wm. Proudfoot, P. J. Urling and S. Reynolds.

"The Frosty Sons of Thunder."

One small congregation in Cambria county, St. Augustine's, has already sent a hundred hardy mountaineers to the war.
