CITY AND NEIGHBORHOOD INTELLIGENCE

DAILY AND WEEKLY POST.

THE DAILY AND WEEKLY POST can hereafter be procured at the News Depots of J. W. Pittock and Frank Case, Fifth street, with or without wrappers. Daily 8 cents; Weekly 5 cents.

Still Another New Paper.

The following Circular has been distributed within the past few days very extensively among our business men. We had thought that the Commercial was to fill the void which was felt by certain parties for a "first class newspaper in Pittsburgh," but it seems we were mistaken, and that the paper has yet to make its appearance. Here is the circular:

It is proposed by a number of Business Men of this city, who have conferred together on the subject, to start a First Class Newspaper in Pittsburgh, to rate in quality with the best papers in the West, at least.

It is thought best to accomplish this by Association, under the very favorable Manufacturing Law recently passed in this State.

A proposition is already tendered from a large Newspaper Establishment of this city, to transfer its types, machinery, circulation and influence to such an Association, when formed, upon very favorable terms. This, if effected, would place the new enterprise upon a desirable footing from the commencement, and greatly enhance its prospects for becoming at an early day a paying concern.

As it is of vital importance that True Union men only should be associated together in this enterprise, none but such will be invited or accepted as Stockholders.

Parties to whom this Circular is addressed will be waited upon shortly by those having the Subscription List in charge, and given an opportunity to unite in the enterprise.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 9, 1863.

DR. WAKEFIELD.—This well known gentleman, who at once unites the qualities of minister, legislator and politician, and who at the same time is a sound Union man and a consistent Democrat, has of late come in for a large share of abuse from certain newspapers in this city and elsewhere. In noticing this matter, the Christian Advocate—a paper which certainly knows whereof it speaks—thus alludes to it:

"It is too much the habit of most political papers to deal in personalities, not great principles and policies. In this respect the political press is as great an injury as in other points it may be a blessing to the world. Reputation is stained, character ruined, and honored heads are bowed in the dust. The Advocate has cried out against this heretofore. It believes now as ever, that the only corrective is to demand such political papers as shall carry with them a high moral tone and entire freedom from personal abuse. These thoughts are suggested by a violent and groundless attack on a Pittsburgh Conference minister, made by a city daily. Rev. Dr. Wakefield is called a "reverend traitor," and is represented as having forbidden a married daughter, Mrs. Hassler, to visit his house till she recanted her political views. Mr. Wakefield never did this. And we are sure that it gives Mrs. Hassler as much pain as her father to see him so libelled in the public prints. This charge was occasioned by a scene that occurred at Mr. David Hassler's a son in law of Dr. Wakefield. Some men were threshing grain at his house. When sitting down to dinner, Mrs. Hassler observed that one of the men wore a butternut breast pin, and required him to remove it, or not eat at the table. In this demand she was supported by her husband, A son of Dr. Wakefield, quite a stripling, was among the threshers, and is represented as having said that he, too, had a butternut breast pin, and if any one had to quit the table for the offense of using such an article he must go too. Mrs. Hassler persisted in her demand; and the company of threshers—one Wakefield and three M'Clellands, we believe—quit the table and the house. It was for this offense that Dr. Wakefield is represented as forbidding his house to Mrs. Hassler till she recants her political opinions, and is called a "reverend traitor." The Advocate can assure its readers that Dr. Wakefield never sent such a message to his daughter, and that the representation that he did so is in web and wool a sheer fabrication."

GEN. BUTLER.—It seems to be pretty certain that the "Second Hero of New Orleans," as Gen. Butler is now termed by his more ardent admirers, will be in this city on the 16th. So sure of this are the Curtinites, that it is proposed to tender him a public reception, and to this end a committee has been appointed to wait upon the Presidents of Councils to urge upon them the propriety of calling a meeting of these bodies for the purpose of tendering such reception. We are not advised as to whether the committee succeeded in their mission. It seems to us, however, that the whole affair looks like a political trick. Gen. Butler comes here with the avowed object of making a political speech before the Republican Convention. His right to do so no one questions, nor can there be any objection to his new-found political friends using him in the present campaign. But we think it will be time enough for Councils to give him a public reception and tender him the hospitality of the city, when he comes among our people as Gen. B. F. Butler, the citizen, and not as Gen. B. F. Butler, the politician. The military fame of the General is common property, and when a reception is tendered him, it should be free from political bias or party clap trap, so that all who felt so disposed may unite in doing him honor.

MORRIS MINSTRELS.—It will be seen by advertisement in another column that the Morris Minstrels will open here on Monday night, the 21st inst. When last here this troupe proved great favorites. Their humorous burlesques were fresh, spicy and suggestive withal, and the audience which could not cachinate over their representations must indeed be a stocial one. The dainty music which the genius of Geo. F. Doll strikes from the Chystalenia is of itself an attraction which cannot fail to win large audiences and loads of "green backs." Pell Morris, Taylor and Wagner, have enough fun in their compositions for half a dozen ordinary troupes, while Pease, Curtis and Swindge take rank with the best ballad singers now on the boards. Coleman is good in anything he undertakes; Mike Kinnane makes as fine music with his heels as was ever rattled from the clogs of Sands or Hayes; Frank Wells is always sure of an en core to invite a storm of applause when he appears in his great character of "The Old Sexton." The troupe is well organized, and in its present trim, with Morris as guiding genius, its success is certain.

RATHER BEHIND TIMES.—Alderman Butler, of the Sixth Ward, united a couple, last evening, in the bonds of wedlock, whose united ages amount to 115 years—the bridegroom being sixty and the blushing bride fifty five years of age. We suppose they took counsel of the adage, "never too late to do good."

Fight near Warm Springs—Gallant Conduct of the 14th Penna. Cavalry—Killed and Wounded—Honorable mention of Col. Shoonmaker—Gen. Kelly compliments the Regiment, &c, &c.

CAMP OF 14TH PENNA. CAVALRY
Near Beverly, Va., Sept. 7th, 1863.

DEAR POST:—Our killed and missing count up one hundred and four, officers and privates. Lieut. Wilson was shot through the heart, and left on the field. He made an effort to get up, but fell back exhausted, the enemy advancing rapidly prevented us assisting him. It is not known if Captains Pollock and Bird are killed or only missing. Lieut's. McNutt, Jackson and Shoof were each shot in the leg, will be sent home this week. The universal feeling is high for Col. Schoonmaker. After his horse was shot from under him, and while his men were falling close to him, he sprang to his feet, picked up the the carbine of a dead soldier, while holding his men to their hot work, still was enabled from his unerring aim to send several of the rebels out of the way of doing harm. The 14th wish no better or braver leader than Col. Schoonmaker. Where he heads, we will follow. Capt. Forsyth made a narrow escape. Four mules was killed in his train. All behaved well. We only fell back, being outnumbered three to one, and our ammunition being exhausted. Genls. Kelly and Averill are proud of the Regiment. The enemy lost two to our one. Gen. Kelly says it was as hot a fight for the number engaged as has yet occured during the war.

IMPROVEMENT ON STREET CARS.—The Troy Times has the following notice of a recent improvement in the management of street cars in that city, which our companies would do well to make a note of: "Patrons of the horse railway have for a long time complained, both in the newspapers and to the directors and managers, of the practice of permitting men to smoke on the platforms of the cars. The nuisance has continued to exist, in opposition to the conductors, however. But a remedy has been decided upon at last, and in a few days 'lovers of the weed' will be effectually excluded from the cars unless complying with the rule. The entrance to the forward platform of each car will be closed, so that passengers will be compelled to get on and off by the rear platform. This rule is enforced on the Albany horse railway, and is found to be effectual. It is an important and necessary improvement in the cars, and will be appreciated by none more than the ladies."

PLACED ON THE RETIRED LIST.—Meeting with Major Butler, who is just returned from the East, we took the liberty of asking him whether he had applied to be placed on the list of retired officers. He stated that it was a fact, and that his application had been granted, to take effect on the 1st day of October next. This will leave the course clear to all who choose to scramble for his situation. We have heard of several who have already entered as competitors. We are told that two of them are well advanced in years—one supposed to be about 70 years of age, the other 65. Both are supposed to know a horse shoe from a horse collar, and a crupper from a circingle. We go in for one of the old fogies, as in the course of nature they must retire by death, about the time that we shall have elected a democratic President.

METHODIST PROTESTANT CONFERENCE APPOINTMENTS.—The annual session of the Pittsburgh Conference of the M. P. Church was held this year in Wellsburg, Brooke county, West Va. The session was pleasant, and closed on the 7th inst. The following appointments were made for this city and vicinity: President, Wm. Reeves; First Church, Fifth street, J. Cowl; Second Church, Pennsylvania avenue, J. Robinson; East Common, Allegheny, J. D. Herr; Rebecca Street Mission, Allegheny, unsupplied; Birmingham, J. Scott, D. D.; Sharpsburg, W. Collier, serve in part. Manchester circuit, J. H. Hull. D. Jones appointed to New Brighton Mission, vice Alex. Clark, editor of the School Visitor, without an appointment by his own request.

EMIGRANT TRAVEL.—During the past seven months, 8,955 emigrants have passed over the Pennsylvania Railroad. For the same period in 1862, the number amounted to 5,400. During the present year 6,728 of the emigrants went to points west of Pittsburgh, and generally to the far western States and territories. In 1862 only 3,788 of the travellers went west of Pittsburgh. The increase in 1863 is supposed to be attributed to the Homestead law passed at the last session of Congress.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—We would suggest the propriety of your publishing the names and residence of the Assessors of the various wards, so that those who want to be assessed can do so in time for the coming election. By attending to this you will oblige many of your subscribers.

VOTER.

Will the Assessors of the various wards leave us their names and residence, thus enabling us to comply with the wish of "Voter?"

MUNIFICENCE TO RAILROAD EMPLOYEES.—The Atlantic and Great Western Railway has established its machine shops at Meadville, Penn. It has also erected a large number of comfortable residences for its employees, which are to be rented to them at low prices. Every occupant who pays his rent for ten years and remains in the Company's service that length of time, is then to receive a deed of the house as a reward.

THEATRE.—Bouricault's beautiful drama of Colleen Bawn was played last night to a large and enthusiastic audience. Miss Susan Denin played the part, and sung the songs of Eily O'Connor finely.—while Miss Eberle, Miss Ward, Messrs. Deftin, Loveday, Kames, Chippendale, and, in fact, nearly all the gentlemen were well up in their parts. It will be played again to night.

CHEAP NOVELS.—Mr. Miner is now selling some of his most popular novels and romances published at less than half their cost. Here is a chance for novel readers to enjoy their peculiar love for reading at the lowest possible expense. Call and see Mr. Miner's list. You will find a large stock to select from, including some of the latest and most popular publications.

NEW DRESS.—The Philadelphia Daily Evening Bulletin appeared, on Saturday last, in an entire new dress. The editor seems to be proud of his "new rig," says the paper was never so prosperous, its circulation having been increased, and its advertising better than ever before. Glad to hear it.

THE Sheriff's Proclamation announcing the place where the election will be held this fall has not yet been published. It is customary to publish it in all the papers. It is not improbable our Republican officials do not desire the Democracy to be informed as to that important event, their votes are not being, in their opinion, necessary to the result.

ESCAPE OF SUBSTITUTES.—Eight substitutes who had been arrested by Provost Marshal Campbell, of the 19th District, made their escape from him at Watterford last week. Their names are as follows: John Kelly, Wm. Jocylin, Wm. Allen, Chas. Howard, George White, James Turner, John Bradley and James Caldwell.

A GOOD PEN—Miner's Aluminium Pen. Every one likes it because it pleases every one and nobody thinks he can write with any other. Call and get a card.

Democratic Meeting in Allegheny.

The Democracy of Allegheny City met last night in mass meeting. Such an outpouring of the people as assembled on this occasion augurs well for the triumph of the party on the second Tuesday of October next. The Democracy of this section of our noble old Commonwealth are fully awake and will give a good account of itself on election day.

The meeting was organized by calling G. W. Cass to the chair. L. Wilmarth, H. Sproul, W. J. Kountz, A. J. Barker, R. Means, C. P. Whiston, Cambell Stewart, J. R. Hunter, and the Presidents of the various Democratic Clubs, assisted as Vice Presidents, and Col. D. H. Williams, E. M'Garvy and Wm. T. Farley acted as Secretaries.

Able and patriotic speeches were made by Col. D. H Williams, Mr. H. D. Foster, of Mercer county, and John McSweeney, of Wayne county, Ohio. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed, and the speakers were greeted with loud applause.

A WAIF FROM THE PAST.—The Pittsburgh Christian Advocate, in some reminiscences of the Methodist Church, states that of one hundred and nine members who attended a Conference in Steubenville, on the 19th July, 1837, forty-one have since died, and eight of whose whereabouts there is not the least trace.

SANFORD'S MINSTRELS.—This troupe was greeted by a full house last night, and every one seemed to be well pleased with the entertainment. They appear again to-night at Masonic Hall when there will be an entire change of programme. Go and see and hear for yourselves.

PITTSBURGH MUSICAL INSTITUTE.—We are pleased to learn that this Institute, under the management of Mr. Edward Sherratt, corner Penn and St. Clair sts., is meeting with good success. Classes meet in the afternoon and morning from 4 to 6 and 7½ to 9½ p. m.

JEWISH FESTIVAL.—The Jewish Festival of Rashashona, or the new year, commenced yesterday evening at sunset, and is being duly observed by the members of that persuasion. The ceremony attending the return of the day is very interesting.

DEDICATION.—The new M. E. church in Oil City, Pa., will be dedicated on Sunday, 20. Services will be conducted by Rev. I. C. Pershing, of the Pittsburgh Female College.

Attempt to Hang Hon. Dan. Voorhies!

Our forces occupy Culpepper

Guerrillas attack a Camp Meeting

NEW YORK, September 14.—A Glasgow, Kentucky dispatch to the Tribune says: A party of guerrillas, of a very irregular character, commanded by Hamilton, numbering about three hundred, appeared at the Cross Roads of the Burksville and Tompkinsville Pike, where a camp meeting was in session. They dashed among the people, producing great panic and scattering the congregation. Ladies were robbed of their jewelry, and men of their watches and purses. Many very valuable horses were stolen. Col. Harvey, commanding here, immediately sent forward a party of cavalry to intercept the thieves, but they could not be found. They came within four miles of this place.

CINCINNATI, Sept, 14.—The draft in this city commences on Wednesday. The Commercial's Indianapolis special says that all the United States troops in Indiana, except the Provost Guard, have been ordered to the field.

General Wilcox is ordered to report to General Burnside for active duty. As the 2d battalion of the 63d regiment was returning from Terre Haute on Saturday an attempt was made to hang Hon. Dan. Voorhies, who was on the same train. He was rescued by the officers, but compelled to leave the train at Greencastle.

NEW YORK, September 14.—Washington specials to the World say:—Advices from the front to night are important. To day our forces occupied Culpepper, and it is believed nothing but rebel cavalry pickets are on this side of the Rapidan. The retreat seems to be general. There is no movement toward any of the lower gaps in the valley of Virginia; so that the rebels cannot be inaugurating another invasion scheme. The movement is regarded as strange, as it was unexpected.

ARRIVAL of the HANSA.

STEAM RAMS BUILT FOR THE CONFEDERATES.

The Pirate Florida Repairing Damages.

NEWS FROM MEXICO!

FROM THE ARMY OF THE POTOMAC

&c., &c., &c., &c.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The Hansa from Southampton. 23, arrived this morning. The following items have not been covered by previous arrivals. The British sloop Greyseer, arrived from Wexford, where she had been waiting for intelligence of the pirate Florida's position, which had been burning merchantmen off the west coast of Ireland. Two more fast steamers left Clyde for Nassau to run the blockade. It is reported that Russia will send ambassadors to Paris with the scheme of a separate Polish Constitution. The Polish insurgents had gained a great victory at Janow. Russia had ordered 48 reserve regiments to join the active army. The following is Lord Russell's reply in relation to the steam rams in the Mersy:

FOREIGN OFFICE, Aug. 13.—GENTS,—I have received your letter calling attention to a subject of very great and pressing importance, namely: the fitting out and equipping of two powerful iron plated steam rams which, I am informed, are intended to commit hostilities against the government and people of the United States. My attention has long been directed to these subjects, and both the Treasury and Home Departments have, at my request, made most anxious inquiries upon the subject of these steam rams. You are aware that by the foreign enlistment act a ship is liable to be detained and the owners are subject to a penalty, when the ship is armed or equipped for purposes of war, and the owners intend to use her against some State or community in friendship with Her Majesty, it is necessary to prove both the equipment and intention. It is necessary, for conviction in a public court of justice, to have the evidence of a creditable witness. I was in hopes when I began to read your memorial, that you would propose to furnish me with evidence to prove that the steam rams in question were intended to carry on hostilities against the government and people of the United States, but you have made no proposal of the sort, and only tell me that you are informed that so and so and it is believed that so and so. You must be aware, however, that according to British law, prosecution cannot be set on foot upon the ground of a violation of the foreign enlistment act without the affidavit of creditable witnesses, as in other cases of misdemeanor and crime.

LIVERPOOL, Breadstuffs generally steady Wheat has an upward tendency. Flour heavy. Corn firm. Provisions quiet and steady. Beef quiet and steady. Pork firm. Bacon dull and easier. Butter steady. Lard buoyant. Rice dull. Consols closed, Friday, at 93⅞@93¾ for money. Cotton buoyant, sales to-day of 100,000 bales, including 60,000 bales to speculators and exporters. Holders demand an advance.

PARIS, Sept. 4—Bourse very firm; rents closed at 69f 20c.

The Liverpool Post says that it now appears that the steam rams, launched from Laird's yards, were built for the Confederate government. Neither the French government, nor the French people, were concerned in the business—but a French banker was. The rams were to be paid for out of the Confederate loan. M. Langier was one of the contractors for that loan, and was also guaranteed for the payment of the contract with Laird. He has a mortgage on both vessels, and, therefore, they may ultimately become his property, but then the law would have to deal with this new feature in the transaction, and M. Langier might sell them to the British government at cost price, and they are well worth the money—not for sea, but for boast and harbor service.

The Paris Pays states that the 28 ships are not constructed for the French government, but have been ordered by the government of Egypt as their names indicate. The Paris Moniteur says that the Florida, sailing under the Confederate flag, entered Breast to repair damages.—The reception was according to the ordinary principles of fundamental law, as at the opening of the war, the French government, in accord with other powers, recognized the Confederate States as belligerents, and declared its intention of observing a strict neutrality between the two portions. In like cases, its the right as well as duty of neutrals to permit vessels of belligerents to procure means, not for fighting purposes, but for navigation.—Therefore, it has been decided that the Florida could be admitted to procure all that was indispensable to maintain her in a good navigable state, without her being able to make purchases tending to recruit her war arrangements.

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—The steamer Roanoke, from Havana on the 9th, arrived to night. Dates from Vera Cruz to the 5th have been received. There was a great scarcity of food in Mexico. Many of the inhabitants had been imprisoned for assisting the French soldiers, and refusing to take the oath of allegiance.

The Prussian Minister had received his passport, and had been ordered to leave the country, for having written to Juarez.

It was rumored that Corwin had been tendered his passports also, but this is not confirmed.

The repo ts that Doblado and Comonfort had declined in favor of the new regime, turned out to be false.

A French convoy, from Mexico to Vera Cruz, was captured by guerrillas at Toledad, and the greater part of the guard killed.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 14.—The fire on the levee, last night, destroyed the steamers Imperial, Hiawatha, Post Boy and Jesse K Bell. It is supposed to be the work of an incendiary, as an attempt was made to burn the Imperial on Satuday night. Loss about $200,000. The Imperial was a St. Louis and New Orleans packet, valued at seventy-five thousand dollars. She had been laip up some time, on account of low water in the channel below. The Hiawatha was also a New Orleans packet, valued at $65,000: two thirds of her value is supposed to be covered by insurance. The Post Boy boat, about seven hundred tons burthen, engaged in the lower river trade, was valued at $30,000, and insured for $20,000. The Jesse K. Bell, a stern-wheel boat, owned by parties in Cincinnati, was valued at $30,000—probably insured.

HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Sept. 14.—Gen. Pleasanton has advanced to the Rapidan. The rebels were in position with infantry, artillery and cavalry to prevent our forces crossing. Our casualties, yesterday, were 3 killed and 4 wounded. Among the latter was Gen. Cusher, not seriously, however. He commanded a brigade in Gen. Kilpatrick's division, and was wounded while gallantly charging a battery of the enemy, in which attack 3 guns were captured.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 14.—It is untrue as reported in the newspapers, that John C. Underwood, of Vermont, was captured on Friday by guerrillas near Occoquon.

PORTLAND, ME., Sept. 14, p. m.—As far as heard from the Union ticket is ahead. Large Republican gains.

FORTRES MONROE, Sept 14.—The following are the particulars of the Florida's career as related by Capt. Maffit. He claims to have treated all prisoners of war with the greatest respect. He says that the Anglo Saxon was captured 60 miles from Cork, when captured her pilot was referred to the Confederate government for settlement of any just claim he might have.
