LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Petroleum as Fuel for Engines.

The Philadelphia Ledger, in alluding to the substitution of petroleum for coal, remarks as follows: The influence on the oil trade will be immediate and immense, and it ought to have the effect of stimulating this city to take the lead in arranging facilities for the storage and deposit of this article some where on the banks of the Delaware, so as to make that the great Atlantic depot for coal oil, such as Richmond has become for coal. There the navy ought to be supplied, and thence the new fuel shipped to all the stations throughout the world. A new city, above or below Philadelphia, will require to be built up eventually for this business. Immense tanks, instead of coal bunks, will be fitted up on each steamer, and these will not occupy probably half the present space. On merchant steamers this will be of immense importance, and it must eventually tend to give both our navy and merchant steamers great advantage over those of other nations. In case of a foreign war this would be particularly felt.

Pittsburgh and the whole of the upper Ohio river would supply enormous quantities of this fuel for the river steamers, and send down as much more to New Orleans. The western parts of Pennsylvania will no doubt be built up more rapidly than can well be conceived, by so lucrative a product, manufacture and trade. The railroad enterprise will receive a stimulus, and from this city to Erie will become as much pressed with business as the Reading Railroad has thus far been. The opening of the interior of the State will raise the price of farmers' produce, and make a wealthy country to be supplied with goods from this city. To those "suck oil out of the flinty rock," and draw up wealth for the State, and motive power for the whole world more cheaply and conveniently than has thus far been dreamed of, seems destined to be the fate of Pennsylvania. It is not impossible that a sort of jealousy of the high price of our coal has induced some exaggeration of the advantages of using the oil as a substitute. But our State is so situated that the advantage of either, and the almost entire profit of both, enriches our State, and must add largely to the interests and wealth of Philadelphia.

GEARY'S OLD REGIMENT.—The gallant old Twenty eighth Pennsylvania Volunteers, among the first to leave for the seat of war, are about returning home, having served with distinction on all the battle-fields from Bolivar to Ringgold. The organization is composed of some of the finest men in the State. They entered the service in July, 1861, under the dashing and chivalrous Colonel (now Brigadier General) John W. Geary, at present commanding the "White Star Division," whose deeds are so widely known, having led the advance in storming the cloud clapped summit of Lookout Mountain. They are expected to pass through the city on their way to Philadelphia to-day or to-morrow. Let their reception be a rousing one and show these tried and worthy veterans that their conduct is not forgotten by Pittsburghers. The many friends of the regiment should at once call a meeting and take active steps in the matter. The McKnight Guards, Sewickley Rifles, company C, U. S. Zouave Cadets, and a company raised by Captain Copeland, in Elizabeth township, belong to the regiment, which is now commanded by Col. Thos. Ahl, of this city. It is probable that the four companies named will be granted a few day's furlough here in order that they may visit their friends in the city and neighborhood. A brother of Col. Ahl informed us yesterday that he had received a dispatch stating that the regiment would leave for the East on the fourth or fifth inst., hence their expected arrival to-day or to-morrow.

Since writing the above we learn that a meeting was held at the Mayor's office, and steps taken to give the regiment on its arrival here a fitting reception.

FIFTH WARD DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.—At a meeting of the Democrats of the Fifth Ward, held on Saturday evening, the following tickets for ward officers were put in nomination: Select Council, William H. Sutton; Common Council, Joseph Lang, Samuel Cameron, William Wilson, Francis Dunn, John Heldman, Peter Gelsheimer; Assessor, John Doyle; Assistant Assessor, Cornelius O'Donnell, Fred erick Wilharm; Constable, James A. Bell; Judge of Election—1st precinct—Charles Felix; 2d precinct, Joseph Bell; Inspector—1st precinct—William D. Hamilton; 2nd John Creagen; School Directors, James M. Taylor, Jeremiah Frew.

ACCIDENT TO A YOUNG LADY.—On Saturday evening, about seven o'clock, Miss Mary Howard, daughter of Mr. James Howard, of Manchester, who had been spending New Year's with some friends at Sewickley, accidentally slipped over the platform, at the latter place, and broke one of her legs just above the ancle. She was not familiar with the locality, and fell a distance of three or four feet. She was brought up on the train, and conveyed to the office of Dr. Thorn, on Federal street, where the broken limb was set, after which she was conveyed to her father's residence.

FOURTH WARD TICKET.—The Democrats of the 4th ward, Pittsburgh, on Saturday selected the following ticket: Select Council, Martin Connolly; Common Council, Geo. H. Keyser and Francis Bailey; School Directors, Joseph Richards and Wm. J. Anderson; Judge of Elections, Joseph O'Brien; Inspector, Lafayette West.

The above is an excellent ticket, and merits, if it does not attain, success.

HOUSE OF REFUGE.—The following gentlemen have been chosen Managers for the House of Refuge for the ensuing year: President, Joseph Pennock; Vice President, Wm. Dilworth, sr.; Secretary, J. B. D. Meeds; Treasurer, Joshua Baum; Managers, James McCandless, James Schoonmaker, G. L. B. Fetterman, B. L. Fahnestock, Geo. Weyman, John Phillips, C. Yeager, Chas. Arbarthnot, Thos. J. Bigham, Calvin Adams, Harvey Childs, Jos. Woodwell.

THEATRE.—Benefit of Miss Hyatt.—Miss Annie Hyatt will take her first benefit here on Wednesday evening next. Miss Hyatt is a painstaking and deserving actress, and stands so high in the estimation of the patrons of the drama that we feel satisfied she will have a crowded audience. This evening the attractive drama of the "Irish Rebellion, or St. Patrick's Eve," will be produced with all the original effects.

PANORAMA OF THE BIBLE.—This splendid Panorama of the Bible drew a full house last evening at Masonic Hall. We shall have more to say about it hereafter.

First Ward Democratic Ticket.

The Democrats of the First Ward have placed in nomination the following ticket for ward officers to be voted for to-day. Select Council, Wm. M'Creary; Common Council, J. C. Buffum, S. A. Spence; School Directors, Adams Getty, three years, Wm. P. Thompson and Jacob Hubley; Judge of Election, H. W. Buffum; Inspector, Wm. M'Ginn; Constable, John Sarber.

We are glad to see that the Democracy of the First Ward has put forth a full ticket, and one of such unexceptionable worth. It is due to the party itself, as well as the gentlemen put in nomination, that every Democrat in the ward should go to the polls. And let them look well to it that the shameless swindling and unblushing corruption which was practiced upon them at the last election be not attempted to day. Vote the ticket, and nothing but the ticket, and let the vote cast by you today prove beyond the shadow of a doubt that the charges of corruption made against the dominant party in the First Ward, at the late fall election, were true to the very letter.

BIANCO'S GRAND ITALIAN PANORAMA.—Life and Heroic Career of Garibaldi.—It was our good fortune to witness the exhibition of Bianco's Grand Italian Panorama of the Life and Heroic career of Garibaldi, the Washington of Italy, last evening, at Lafayette Hall. It illustrates with astonishing effect the patriotic Garibaldi's battles by sea and land, giving full details of his daring enterprise, escapes, conquests and reverses, until at last, side by side with Victor Emanuel, he enters the proud city of Naples amid the wildest rejoicings of the liberated Neapolitans. Were we to particularize any one scene, it would be that in which is represented the death of the devoted wife of Garibaldi—the lovely Annita—who, in the language of one of her intimate friends, was the "noblest woman the world ever saw." But language would fail to do justice to the Panorama. It must be seen to be fully appreciated. The scenery is accompanied by an eloquent lecture by Mr. A. Burford, which adds greatly to the interest of the spectator. It will remain but a short time, and we would advise all to go and see it.

STATES SURRENDERED.—The following is from the London Star of the 15th of December: On Wednesday King received from the stake holder his check for £1,000, a sum of £10 having been retained for the expenses and services of the referee. The railway company received one half of the money taken, about £7,000 in all, so that there will be £1,000 pounds to be equally divided between the men. This settles the matter, and we suppose that all those who "went in" on Hyman in this region will "pocket their losses" with as good a grace as possible.

THE INLAND TELEGRAPH COMPANY.—This new company is now in full operation to all points East, South-east and North-east. Two new wires have just been completed to Philadelphia and New York. Their connections with Baltimore and Washington are the only direct ones out of the city. The public will find it greatly to their advantage to patronize the Inland Company. They are a competition Company, and have unsurpassed facilities for doing business promptly and at fair rates. Office, 5th street, opposite the postoffice.

GEN. NEGLEY.—The Cincinnati Enquirer of the 24 inst., says: "Maj. Gen. Negley was at the Burnet House yesterday en route for Chattanooga." Another western exchange says that the General is in Cincinnati awaiting orders. Query. Where is the gallant Negley? Has he gone to Chattanooga, is he in Cincinnati, or somewhere else.

RE-ENLISTED.—A letter has been received in the city stating that the greater portion of the 102d (old 13th) regiment have re-enlisted, and will come home on a furlough of thirty days about the 15th, for the purpose of filling up the ranks. The boys will meet a general reception from their friends in Pittsburgh.

SOLD OUT.—Mr. Joseph Young has sold the Erie Dispatch, which he established, to Mr. Lynn, who has been for a number of years connected with the paper. We are sorry to part with our old friend, Joe. Young, but are particularly pleased to know that Ben. Lynn is to run the machine. Start the locomotive again, Ben.

SLEIGHING.—Although the ground was scarcely covered with snow yesterday, nevertheless the streets resounded with the merry gingle of tiny bells. A few inches more snow would make things all right, and there would be a good time generally.

PRESENTATION.—Mr. David L. Fleming, foreman of the Gazette, was on Saturday evening last presented with a splendid watch, by the employees and others connected with the office, as a mark of their esteem for him as a man. This compliment was well deserved.

LATE ITEMS FROM CINCINNATI.

Important Seizure of Confederate Bonds.

&c., &c., &c., &c.

WASHINGTON, January 4.—The Navy Department has received official information in relation to the attack upon the gunboat Marblehead, in Stone Inlet, on Christmas morning, by which Robert Brown, Lorenzo D. Shaw and Joseph Phillips were killed, and Charles Moon, Alexander Henderson, John Hackett and Charles Semmes were wounded. Commander Balch of the Pawnee says:

At six twenty on the morning of the 25th December, the enemy opened on the Marblehead, which was replied to vigorously. At 6:25, the Pawnee opened fire on the enemy's batteries from 100 pound rifle gun. At 7 o'clock the C. P. Williams, on hearing firing, shipped her cable, and came down Folly River under sail and opened fire handsomely. The rapid firing from the three vessels soon caused the enemy to retreat, and at 7:30 the enemy had retreated in disorder, leaving two of his guns in the batteries. The Pawnee then proceeded off Legareville. Soon after this, General Gordon, commanding the troops on the south end of Folly Island, came up.

WASHINGTON, January 4.—The rumors of the enemy's designs and operations in the Shenandoah Valley are exaggerated. Fitz Lee's cavalry of perhaps 1000 men, supported by Early's three meagre brigades with Imboden and other local leaders with small detachments numbering all told 6000 to 7000 men are near Woodstock and Mount Jackson with an occasional dash as far north as Winchester. The latest indications point to the Moorfield Valley, if not west of the mountains, as their scene of operations. Certainly they have not appeared as yet in sight of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, the trains of which are all running regularly and successfully, with large quantities of freight and many passengers. The best evidence of official confidence in the security of the route is the sending of important detachments over it.

CINCINNATI, January 4.—Two soldiers were frozen to death at Camp Chase on Saturday. The soldiers in camp at Indianapolis suffered considerably. A number had their ears and feet frozen. On Thursday night four rebel prisoners were frozen to death while asleep in the cars at Jeffersonville. The trains on all the railroads leading to Cincinnati, have been much delayed by the recent cold weather. There has been a good deal of suffering among railroad men and passengers.

WASHINGTON, January 4.—Col. Lowell, of the Second Massachusetts cavalry, while on a scouting expedition near Haymarket, on Friday, suddenly came upon a guerrilla encampment; he surrounded it, and dasing in upon the villains, killed and wounded many, and took thirty five prisoners—one a Captain. We lost one killed and one wounded. Moseby's videttes were dressed in United States uniforms.

NEW YORK, January 4.—A very important seizure of Confederate bonds and treasury notes to the amount of seven millions was made in this city by U. S. Marshal Murray's detectives. A large quantity of plates, dies, tools, machinery, &c., was also seized and the parties concerned arrested.

ST. JOHN'S, N. B., Jan. 4.—The examination of Collins, McKinley and Seely, charged with being concerned in the Chesapeke piracy, commenced before the police magistrate this morning; the examination was adjourned till Wednesday.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—Major General Burnside and Butler are among the latest distinguished arrivals here. Brigadier General Garrard has been ordered to take command of the cavalry Bureau, thus relieving General Stoneman.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 4.—The annual election of directors of the Baltimore Corn Exchange to-day, resulted in the triumph of the Union ticket over the disloyal. This is considered quite a triumph by the loyal citizens.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—The bank statement for the past week shows the following results: Increase of loans, $2,226,302; deposits, $223,981; decrease of specie, $878,668, circulation, $21,841.

HUDSON, N. Y., January 4.—Judge Hogeboom has decided the controversy between the Delaware and Hudson canal and the Pennsylvania Coal Company in favor of the former.

Battle Incident.

We extract the following from a soldier's letter, descriptive of the battle of Mission Ridge:

During the rout of the rebels on Lookout Mountain, large numbers of them crouched behind the huge rock, and as our men came rushing up to them, held up their hands, imploring—"Don't kill us, we give up." "Kill you! the d—l, no! Got any tobacco!—Shell out." And grabbing hastily their large plugs of tobacco, our boys rushed on, many of them holding a plug between their teeth.

THE Chicago Tribune, the organ of the radicals in the Northwest, publishes the following slanderous and false attack upon our Irish population:

The negroes, without bounty and with half the pay of the white soldiers, have put more men into the field than the Irish, twice or thrice over. When the war is over and the Union is saved, the honor and glory of preserving free institutions and maintaining the great republic intact will be parceled out among the different classes of men. The native arms will get a share large enough to satisfy their utmost desire; the Germans will come in for a slice, so of the Scandinavians and the Scotchmen; and the poor and depised negroes will have a large niche set apart in the shining temple to hold their part of the glory. But smallest of all, in proportion to their numbers, will be due to the Irish.

There have been more Irish enlisted in our armies in proportion to their numbers in this country than any other nationality—American not excepted. This was not because they are more patriotic than the Germans and other foreigners, but because of their poverty and native love of fighting. There are no braver troops in our armies. On the other hand, there are fewer negro volunteers than any other race. Nine tenths of the colored men in the ranks are compulsory soldiers. The Tribune is as wrong and false as it can be in this matter.
