Fearful Accident.—One of those unforeseen and unavoidable accidents that often happen about public works, occurred yesterday morning, about twenty minutes after seven, at the distillery of Thomas Moore, esq., on First street. One of the stills collapsed, and the scalding water and steam flew in every direction, scalding Christian Meerting very badly, and William Beck slightly. Meerting is a man of about twenty-five years of age, and has a wife and child depending on him for support. He is so dangerously scalded as to leave but little hopes of his recovery. He was borne on a stretcher by six men to his residence on High street, after his face and body had been dressed by Doctors Tindle and Walters, and placed on a bed, where his groans almost distracted his relatives. Beck was taken to Passivant's hospital, where he will be attended. There are no fears of his recovery, as he is not dangerously scalded, being a single man.

...n.—An explosion occurred on the ...is Railroad, near Newton Hamilton, ...by which the engine No. 249 was ...ces and Mr. Samuel Saylor, of Alex- ...blown a considerable distance from ...and frightfully mangled, and Charles ...of Altoona, a young man of about ...years of age was badly scalded in the ...

...s only a few days since engine No. 175 blew ...at Lackawaxen Station, by which Mr. Bar- ...on Moses, the conductor, was so much injured ...that he died soon afterwards, and a young lady ...named Mosher, was also injured.

Oil Trade.—The following are the receipts of crude and refined petroleum oil at this point during the past week:

|---|---|
| Crude | 6,080 barrels |
| Refined | 7,600 " |
| Exported from Philadelphia since January 1st, 1864 | 2,314,734 gals |
| Exported from Philadelphia same last year | 3,532,616 " |
| Decrease in 1864 | 1,217,885 " |
| Exported from the United States Jan. 1, 1864 | 9,525,508 " |
| Exported from the United States same time last year | 16,786,815 " |
| Decrease in 1864 | 6,261,017 " |

Badly Injured.—A man named Walter Caverly fell from the fourth story of the Girard House to the pavement below, late on Monday night and was badly, if not fatally, injured. Caverly had been arrested as a deserter and placed in the guard room up stairs a short time before the occurrence, and may have leaped from his room to escape. In the fall his right leg was fractured, his jaw bone broken and a severe contusion made on his head. He was taken to the Government Hospital in the Ninth Ward. It is thought he cannot possibly survive his injuries.

Decision.—It has been decided that the Steubenville Railroad has a right to proceed with the work of tunneling the hill above this city. A preliminary injunction had been issued by the City Solicitor to prevent this company from proceeding with the tunnel. The company is now at full liberty to proceed with the work, and we trust that no other impediments will be placed in the way of the company in completing so useful an improvement.

Frost.—The weather still keeps remarkably cool, and farmers say that in some sections of the country there has been white frost for three or four consecutive nights, but not so heavy or severe as to do any material injury.

Corns, Bunions and Diseased Nails—Dr Randall—This eminent Chiropodist, who effected so many cures of corns and bunions, is again among us, and is located at 20 Fifth street, over Andrew's Tea store. His operations are efficacious, painless and speedy, and knowing as all should, that comfort in walking is essential to health, those afflicted with these troublesome pests would do well to give the Doctor a call. Mr. Eli Young and Mr James Millinger, well known in this community for years, were afflicted with both corns and bunions for a long time. Mr. Eli Young says: "Dr. Randall most successfully cured some most painful corns and bunions for me. The cure is effectual, and I consider I made an excellent investment.

ELI YOUNG."

Mr. James Millinger writes:—Dr. Randall, a year ago, removed a most painful corn from under one of my toe nails. The operation was perfectly successful. To-day he has removed others, and I have no doubt with equal success, for which I had undergone several unsuccessful operations at the hand of other professed Chiropodists.

Office hours from 10 to 12 a. m., and from 2 to 5 p. m.

Thousands of testimonials similar to the above can be seen at his office from various parts of the world.

McClelland's shoe Auction House, No. 55 Fifth street.

Pictures.—Almost every person thinks more of himself than of anybody else. There is a kind of selfishness in human nature that makes people overlook their own errors, and fall in love with their own virtues. Then almost every body that has one, loves his wife, and they both idolize their children. A soldier in the army would like to have a likeness of the dear ones along with him, and the wife would like to have her husband's likeness at home. So that pictures seem to be a kind of necessity. Then the next question is, where shall one get good pictures? The answer is at B. L. H. Dabbs' Photograph Gallery, No 48, St. Clair street, where the very best style of photographs can be procured. This is a large establishment, a great number of artists are employed, and the word is finished in the very best style. The camera used is one of the largest and best that can be had, and the skylight is of the most approved arrangement. Call with Dabbs.

Children's shoes—a large assortment at McClelland's Auction.

Sanitary Fair Sewing Machine.—The contest for that splendid piece of mechanism—the Grover & Baker Sewing Machine—will close at the Bazaar at ten o'clock to-night. The machine is to be given to the one of the charitable institutions of this city which shall receive the largest number of votes. The contest has so far been spirited, and as this is the last day, the rivalry is likely to become interesting. The machine was presented to the Sanitary Fair by Mr. A. F. Chatoney, of No. 18, Fifth street, who is the general agent for Grover & Baker's Sewing Machines. A visit to his establishment or to the Fair, and an examination into the relative merits of machines in general, will prove both satisfactory and valuable to persons in need of a good machine, as Grover & Baker's machines have a justly wide reputation for speed, accuracy, neatness of finish and durability of work not surpassed—if equalled—by any other machine.

Men's, boy's and youths' gaiters and balmorals shoes, at McClelland's Auction.

Day & Hayden's Coach and carriage furnishing establishment, No. 68, Wood street. This firm keep on hand all kinds of coach and carriage trimmings, and wood and iron work, such as ... hubs, shafts, spokes, axles, poles and ... wooden material. Also hames, traces, harness leather, buckles, rings, whips, screws, rivets, bolts, screws, and saddler's tools. They have the best quality of saddle trees, and either either wooden or iron stirrups, saddle and harness leather of the very best quality. They also keep girthing and fly-nets, horse blankets and linen covers, enameled cloth and carriage carpet, all of which they will sell either at wholesale or retail. Western manufacturers would do well to call and examine their large stock of goods.

Ladies' button congress lace and balmoral gaiters, a large stock at McClelland's Auction House.

We direct attention to the advertisement of Mrs. E. Thompson, Ship and European Agent, in another column of this paper. Mrs. Thompson succeeds her husband—John Thompson—long and favorably known in this community as an upright, honorable business man. Those designing to bring their friends from the old country, or secure a passage from this, could not do better than entrust their business to Mrs Thompson. It will be promptly and correctly attended to.

Domestic dry goods, cheap at McClelland's Auction, No 55 Fifth street.

Early Closing.—The merchant tailors and clothiers of Allegheny City have agreed to close their stores on and after June 14th, Saturdays excepted, until Sept. 1st, 1864, at seven o'clock, p m. This will give their clerks and employees time for necessary recreation.

Children's congress, lace and button gaiters, and fancy shoes at McClelland's.

Lost.—On Tuesday afternoon on Elm, Wylie, or Fifth streets, or in the store of Exton, Miscrum & Co, a sum of money. The finder will be rewarded by leaving it at the store of Myers, Schoyer & Co., No. 39, Fifth street.

Men's lasting gaiters at McClelland's Auction House, No. 55 Fifth street.

Pic Nic.—A grand pic nic will be held at McClurg's grove, on Friday, June 17th, by Mr. John Mitchell. This grove is near Brownstown, and the Birmingham Passenger cars go nearly to the place. The public are invited to attend.

Gaiters—a large stock for ladies, gents and children at McClelland's.

FROM GRANT'S ARMY.

The Situation at the Front.

BOTH ARMIES INACTIVE.

Fire Opened on the Rebel Port Clifton.

THE GUNBOATS ENGAGED.

NEW YORK, June 14.—A special to the Times, dated Headquarters Army of the Potomac, June 11th, P. M. says:—The past few days have been quite uneventful to the Army of the Potomac. Our lines are scarcely nearer the enemy than was our position at the close of Friday's battle, more than a week ago. The troops on both sides are behind their entrenchments, and keep up a desultory but useless fire, just sufficient to make it apparent that the respective works are not vacant. Both armies, in fact, have been enjoying that repose which was needed after the hard fighting, and the marching of three weeks campaigning from the banks of the Rapidan.

To-day that silence is even more marked than before. The sound of a musket has scarcely been heard along the entire front. A few bluelies of artillery and a shell or two high over the trees, about the centre of the line, have been the only reminders this afternoon of the enemy's presence.

From present indications, it is not likely there will be fighting for several days to come; but a storm is brewing, and may burst in quarters least expected by the enemy.

It is not proper at this time to say precisely how Grant will attempt to discomfit the enemy. A Herald correspondence, dated off Point of Rocks, Appomattox river, Va., June 10th, says: At 8 a. m., on the 9th, the gunboats "Commodore Perry," and "Gen. Putnam" opened fire on the rebel Port Clifton, near Petersburg, Va., which was readily answered by the "graybacks."

The Commodore Perry lay on the right branch of the river, above Fort Waltham, a distance of between three and four miles from the rebel fort, while the General Patterson, being of lighter draught, ran up the left branch within one and a half miles of the rebel works, and delivered her fire with such precision as to cause a partial abandonment of their works. But from a masked battery, to the right of the main works, an incessant fire was kept up on us until towards night, when the fire from the gunboats having silenced the guns of the main front, they directed their fire entirely at this interesting object on the right, which had been a source of great annoyance to us during our engagement with the main battery, but it was evident the rebels did not relish our mode of doing business and they retired. The firing from our side continued at intervals throughout the day. No damage was done to the gunboats.

The engagement was a splendid affair, and reflects great credit on the officers and men of both vessels.

Official from Secretary Stanton

From the Army of the Potomac.

A Dispatch from Gen. Burbridge.

Morgan Completely Routed.

No Change in Butler's Department.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—Midnight.—Maj. Gen. Dix: We have dispatches from the Army of the Potomac as late as eight o'clock this morning. A movement at that hour was in successful progress.

No reports to-day from Sherman.

The following dispatch from General Burbridge, commanding in Kentucky, has just reached here: "I attacked Morgan at Cynthiana, at daylight yesterday morning, and after an hour's hard fighting, completely routed him, killing three hundred, wounding nearly as many, and capturing nearly four hundred, besides recapturing nearly a hundred of Gen. Hobsen's command, and over one thousand horses. Our loss in killed and wounded is about one hundred and fifty. Morgan's scattered forces are flying in all directions; have thrown away their arms; are out of ammunition, and are wholly demoralized."

Dispatches from Butler up to nine o'clock this evening indicated no change in his command. No further intelligence has been received from Hunter.

(Signed,) E. M. STANTON.

Sheridan on an Important Raid.

NEW YORK, June 14.—A special to the World, dated Washington May 13th, says: Several boats have arrived from White House to-day, leaving there last night. They bring no news proper for publication. But little skirmishing has occurred for a few days. There was much anxiety to hear from Sheridan's raid. It was to be a long and important one.

The city has been filled with a rumor that Fort Darling has been largely invested and must soon surrender, thus allowing the gunboats to pass up the James river further towards, if not into Richmond. The Army mail came up to-day, and also the 2d Wisconsin regiment, whose term of service has expired.

Gen. Sturgiss Defeated.

MEMPHIS, June 13.—The expedition under General Sturgiss which left Memphis June 1st inst., has come in. We learn from an officer that they met a large force of rebels at Georgtown, said to be 10,000 infantry and cavalry, the commands of Forest, Lee and Roddy. This force attacked them suddenly and a most desperate fight ensued, resulting in the defeat of Sturgiss with loss of his wagon train and ammunition. This last was the most severe loss as Sturgiss run out of ammunition and was compelled to destroy his artillery. Many of his infantry were captured, the exact number not known. Sturgiss' forces was 3000 cavalry and 5,000 infantry. This large rebel force is supposed to have been enroute to Sherman's rear to interfere with his communications.

Late News from Mexico.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The steamer Mexico, from Havana, 6th inst., brings the following:

The British Mail Packet Clyde arrived yesterday with news from the city of Mexico, up to the 26th ult., and Vera Cruz to the 1st inst. Maximillian had arrived on Monday, the 28th ult., at Vera Cruz.

The Novara having touched at Madeira and Madinque, at the latter place for coal, where the new Emperor liberated and carried with him four of the prisoners condemned to hard labor by Forny. He also liberated eight more, and paid their passage to Vera Cruz, and distributed two thousand francs among the remainder, and promised to attend to their fate immediately on his arrival at the city of Mexico.

The $75,000,000 Loan.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The Commercial says: We are authorized to state that the Secretary of the Treasury will accept no payment towards the seventy-five million loan, the two year five per cent. legal tender, all owing to the accrued interest and also ordinary cetificates of deposit with accrued interest. This arrangement will materially facilitate subscriptions to the loan. Large amounts of legal tenders of the two years issue are being received at the Sub-Treasury. On Saturday about 6,000,000 were received, yesterday 7,000,000, and to-day the amount will probably reach 7,000,000, making a total of 20,000,000 in three days.

Gen. Grant's Change of Base.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The World says it is now disclosed that the army under Grant has effected a change of base to the James river. All the movements of that army since the battle on Friday, the 3d, have aimed at this consummation, which was shadowed forth, though not declared in the following dispatches.

The raid of Sheridan, the destruction of railroads, and the investment of Fort Darling, with a view of opening the James River for our gunboats, seem to indicate that every available force is to be employed in the next offensive movement.

The Kentucky Raid Over.

CINCINNATI, June 14.—Reports received at Covington last night, say that Morgan's forces had been scattered in all directions. A party of five hundred that took the Augusta road were overtaken and whipped yesterday, near Claysville, by Col. Garrard. Stragglers are being picked up through the country. The hospital train from Cynthiana arrived last night, bringing one hundred wounded; among them were twenty rebels. The wounded remaining at Cynthiana are being well cared for. The two Ohio regiments captured at Cynthiana were paroled at Claysville, and arrived here last night.

Losses in Gen. Sherman's Army—Its Present Strength.

NEW YORK, June 14.—A Herald correspondent says Gen. Sherman's losses have amounted to 10,000 in wounded, all of whom have been taken to Nashville and Louisville. The numerical force of his army, however, has not been reduced, but has increased from the time he left Chattanooga, and it is believed it is many thousand stronger now than when at Resaca.

Destructive Fire at Aspinwall—Attempted Assassination.

NEW York, June 14.—The steamer Northern Light has just arrived from Aspinwall. A fire occurred at Aspinwall on the 30th which destroyed ten blocks, including the City Hotel. The loss was heavy. An attempt to assassinate Mosquera, was unsuccessful. The steamer Illinois was at Aspinwall on the 5th, waiting the arrival of the America at Panama from San Francisco.

Meeting of the Fremont Club.

NEW YORK, June 14.—The meeting of the Fremont Club last evening though not largely attended was very enthusiastic. Speeches were made by E. D. G. Walker, of Vermont, and others. Resolutions were adopted ratifying the Cleveland nomination, pledging support to the ticket, and recommending the formation of clubs, and denouncing the nomination of Lincoln.

Proceedings in Congress.

"Old Curiosity Shop."

THE AID AND CO-OPERATION OF the patriotic people of West ern Pennsylvania and East ern Ohio, is hereby requested, in making the above department of the coming Pittsburgh Sanitary Fair equally a credit and a success. Numerous relics and trophies of the present war, of the Mexican war, war of 1812, Indian and Revolutionary war, curiosities connected with the early settlement of our region, or with events and men prominent in our history, curiosities of every description are stored away in private receptacles, and may if brought together, render the "OLD CURIOSITY SHOP" not the least of the attractions of the Fair. The committee, therefore ask that all who are willing to help along the good cause, would send in such articles of the above description as they may have, or can procure from others, or notify the committee where they can be found. Articles donated will be disposed of as the donors may direct, or under the direction of the Executive Committee. But articles merely placed on exhibition, receipted for by any member of the committee, will be carefully preserved and returned. A letter should accompany each article, giving its origin, history, etc—and if donated, its value. Give everything you can and lend us the rest.

On behalf of the Committee,

JOS. S. MORRISON, Chairman.

GEO. H. CHRISTY, Secretary.

All articles either donated, or left for exhibition, can be left with, or addressed to either of the following members of the committee:

W. D. M'GOWAN,
