EVANS'S CAMOMILE PILLS.—ABRAHAM J. CLEMER, residing at 66 Mott street, New York, was afflicted with Dyspepsia in its most aggravated form. The symptoms were violent headache, great debility, fever, costiveness, cough, heartburn, pain in the chest and stomach always after eating, impaired appetite, sensation of sinking at the stomach, furred tongue, nausea, with frequent vomitings, dizziness towards night and restlessness. These had continued upward of a twelvemonth, when, on consulting Dr. Wm. Evans, 100 Chatham street, and submitting to his ever successful and agreeable mode of treatment, the patient was completely restored to health in the short space of one month, and grateful for the incalculable benefit derived, gladly came forward and volunteered the above state

LOOK AT THIS.

The attention of those who have been somewhat sceptical in reference to the numerous certificates published in favor of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, on account of the persons being unknown in this section of the State, is respectfully directed to the following certificate, the writer of which has been a citizen of this borough for several years, and is known as a gentleman of integrity and responsibility.

To the Agent, Mr. J. KIRBY.

I have used Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for a cough, with which I have been severely afflicted for about four months, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is the most effective medicine that I have been able to procure. It composes all uneasiness, and agrees well with my diet,—and mantains a regular and good appetite. I can freely recommend it to all others similarly afflicted. J. MINNICK, Borough of Chambersb'g.

INDIVIDUAL ENTERPRISE.

U. S. PORTABLE BOAT LINE.

For the Transportation of Merchandize to and from Pittsburgh, Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, and Boston. Through in the shortest time.

THE United States Portable Boat Line, is composed of Boats built in four sections, each section capable of containing seven tons, and susceptible of being separated or detached and transferred from Canal to Rail Road, thus, as it were, forming a complete train of Cars, or presenting the novel appearance of a Boat sailing on land and thereby avoiding the great delay occasioned by reshipping at the several junctions and terminations of Canals and Rail Roads, the expense of transhipment and the damage the goods sustain by frequent handling; and rendering it impossible to separate lots of goods on the way—owing to the peculiar construction of the Boat having four separate apartments in which goods are stored, renders them less liable to damage goods by water or otherwise than by any other mode of transportation.

The system of Transportation, as recommended by the Canal Commissioners and lately adopted by the State, refers particularly to this class of Boats, The Boats of this Line are owned by responsible captains that run them, and is the only Line now in operation free from monopolies or combination.

Goods consigned to the undersigned agents will be received free of commission and shipped without delay at the lowest rates. All charges paid and every instruction promptly attended to. C. A. M'NULTY & Co. Agts.

PROSPECTUS

For publishing a new Daily Paper in the City of Pittsburgh, to be entitled the DAILY MORNING POST.

THE Subscribers having made arrangements to merge the American Manufacturer and Pittsburgh Mercury into one Journal, have concluded to publish a daily paper with the title of the Daily Morning Post.

The leading object of the "POST" will be the dissemination and defence of the political principles that have heretofore been maintained by the Editors, in their respective papers, and their best efforts will still be devoted to the advancement and success of those doctrines.

Although, in politics, the paper will be thoroughly democratic, yet the Editors hope, by giving an honest, candid history of passing Political events, Foreign and Domestic Intelligence, and brief notices of all matters and occurrences that come properly within the sphere of a Public Journal, to make their paper sufficiently interesting to entitle it to the patronage of the public, irrespective of party considerations.

In addition to the political and general news that will be found in the "Morning Post," the Editors will take pains to furnish the business community with the latest and most interesting COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE from all parts of the country, and to have prepared such accounts of the Markets and the State of Trade as will be advantageous to our Merchants and Business Men in their several callings.

Terms.—The POST will be published on a large imperial sheet of fine paper, (manufactured especially for this Journal) at the unusually low rate of FIVE DOLLARS per annum, payable in advance. It will also be sold by news-boys at the low rate of TWO CENTS a copy.

Advertisements will be inserted at the lowest rates charged by the other daily papers of the city.

☞ TWENTY active lads are wanted to sell the Post, who will be engaged on the most liberal terms.

THOS. PHILLIPS,
August 31, 1842. W. H. SMITH.

OLD ESTABLISHED EMIGRANT OFFICE, NO. 61 SOUTH STREET, NEW YORK. New York and Liverpool Commercial Line of Packets, Sailing Weekly.—The Subscriber would respectfully inform such persons residing in this country as are desirous for sending for their friends to come out from the old country, that he continues as usual to make engagements by which passengers are brought out on very moderate terms, in First Class Ships, sailing from Liverpool weekly, and would assure persons desirous of coming by the above Line, that as agents of first respectability are engaged at Liverpool, there will be no detention whatever at that point.

He is also prepared at all times to furnish Sight Drafts for any amount to assist in preparing passengers for the voyage, payable throughout the United Kingdom, and in case the parties agreed for should decline coming out, the passage money shall be refunded without reduction. For further particulars apply if by letter to

TO THE WISE.—It is now well understood how much disorders of the mind depend for their [illegible] upon a due attention to the body. It is now understood how valuable is that medicine which will remove morbid accumulations without weakening the bodily power. It is now understood that there is a reciprocal influence between the mind and the body. It is now understood that purging with the Brandreth Pills will remove a melancholy, and even insanity is cured by perseveringly using them: It is now understood how much domestic happiness depends upon the healthy condition of the digestive organs.

It is now well known that the Brandreth Pills have cured thousands of hopeless and helpless persons, even when the first physicians had pronounced them beyond all human means of relief. It is now not only well known that the Brandreth Pills so cure, but it is also understood how they cure; that it is by their purifying effect on the blood that they restore the body to health.

The value of the medicine is becoming more and more manifest, it is recommended daily from family to family. The Brandreth Pills remove in an almost imperceptible manner all noxious accumulations and purify and invigorate the blood, and their good effects are not counterbalanced by any inconveniences; being composed entirely of vegetables they do not expose those who use them to danger; and their effects are as certain as they are salutary; they are daily and safely administered to infancy, youth, manhood, and old age, and to women in the most critical and delicate circumstances. They do not disturb or shock the animal functions, but restore their order and establish their health.

Sold at Dr. Brandreth's Office, No. 98, Wood street, Pittsburgh. Price 25 cents per box, with full directions.

MARK—The only place in Pittsburgh where the genuine Pills can be obtained, is the Doctor's own office, No. 98 Wood street. sep 10

DR. J. B. TIBBITT'S, Respectfully inform the citizens of Pittsburgh and vicinity, that he has returned to the city. He hopes to share the confidence of his former patrons and the public generally; and solicits a renewal of a portion of their patronage. In connexion he would observe, that the operation of Lithotrity, (or breaking the stone in the bladder and allowing it to pass of with the urine,) is every where commanding the deepest interest. He hopes to extend the benefit of this branch of his profession to the afflicted. Strictures, Diseases of the Bladder and Kidneys,—which occasionally follow,—will likewise receive attention.

Those from a distance wishing further information will apply personally or by letter, or if desired can be accommodated at his dwelling, in a retired part of the city, on Third, between Ferry and Liberty sts. sep 10

J. RITZ, No. 141 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Wholesale and Retail Grocer and Dealer in Juniata Iron and Nails, Glass and Castings, Respectfully informs his customers and the public generally, that in addition to his former business he has recently added a large and choice assortment of Groceries, which he offers for sale on the most reasonable terms. sep 10

Russians in Paris

We find the following in a letter from the Paris correspondent of the New York Union:

'A great many Russians are now in Paris, and many more are expected. They fling their gold about with extraordinary profusion. They have, in a manner, turned the Parisian hotels [illegible] side out, and this is only tolerable, by the [illegible] and lavish expenditure they are making. They do not much relish French cookery, though they tolerate it. Their servants are accused of cherishing and indulging a penchant for lamp oil, tallow candles, and such like delicacies.

'The Russians of the better class—the nobles—the masters and mistresses of these helps with unsavory appetites, still display the savage, amid all the finery and fashion which they sport. Thus, they drink brandy before, at, and after breakfast, and have a general drinking bout at night. With most of them, the getting drunk is a [illegible] balm, pleasure privilege, and duty. 'Ye gods and little fishes,' (as Shakespeare does not say!) how fond the Russians are of tippling!

'Even the ladies bear the reputation of being but 'soft savages.' In England, you hear people constantly pouring out anathemas on account of the American fondness of tobacco. What would they say if they saw—as I saw yesterday—two Russian ladies—a Countess, whose husband has a European celebrity, and her daughter, a pretty girl of 'sweet sixteen,' dressed in the very pink of Parisian fashion, (as elegant morning dresses as man ever admired, or woman longed for,) smoking cigars! They had been thus occupied for some hours, if one might judge from the [illegible] deposites at their feet, on the highly varnished floors. The French actually hate these Russians—'feeding fat their ancient grudge' on account of 1814 and 1815, when the Cossacks treated Paris as a conquered city—and verily take their revenge. It has been the custom to charge the English [illegible] per cent. on the commonest purchases; but the Russians are made to pay, on an average, eight times more than they ought to pay.'

From the same letter, we extract the following, relating to the Prince de Joinville:

'The Duke d'Aumale has quitted for Africa, and the Prince de Joinville has been sent off also. He will immediately depart on a voyage to the East Indies. The medical men certify that his deafness will be incurable, unless he spend some time in a very warm climate. But the gossip of the day has it, that this is a paternal prescription, and that his Royal Highness has been sent away in semi-disgrace on account of his known tenderness for Mad'elle Rachel, the celebrated tragic actress. The Carlists will have it that the Prince favored M. Thiers's war mania, and that this irritated the King; but I really suspect that the lady was at the bottom of the affair.

'The Prince is by far the most liberal, and therefore most popular, of his family. He has quite a sailor's heart, the chief component part of which is tender. By turns he has been the captive of nearly every theatrical and opera-dancing belle of celebrity. Rachel is one of the few who heeded him not—for her character is irreproachable; and this has but added fuel to the flame. The King is believed to have remonstrated with the Prince on his profuse expenditure, as regards the nymphs of the coulisse; and this has led to his being sent away to the East, or the Brazils—for his destination does not appear quite settled.'

The way to get Rich.—1. Buy nothing you can as well do without.

2. Waste no time at the dramshop—'time is money.'

3. Spend nothing for intoxicating drinks; they injure your health, corrupt your morals, keep you poor, and lead to intemperance and crime.

4. Put all the money you can earn, except what is necessary for the support of yourself and family, in the Savings Bank, or in some safe investment where it will bring you interest.

5. Quit all boarding houses or taverns on the week day or on the Sabbath, where they urge you to spend your earnings in gambling or drink, but associate only with the sober and moral, and you will save both your credit and your money!

6 Calculate the cost of intemperance.—If you spend in liquor 6 1-4 cents a day, in a year it is $22 78—in ten years, with interest, $243 36; and in twenty years amounts to $485 52.

If you spend 18 3-4 cents a day, in a year it is $58 34—in ten years, with interest, $731 23; and in twenty years amounts to $1,462 46.

If you spend 25 cents a day, in a year it is $81 12 1-2 cents—in ten years, with interest, $975 12, [illegible] amounts to $1,950 24.

Thus by simply abstaining from intoxicating drinks, and the money spent in treating yourself and others, and putting it out at interest, in ten years it would amount to a sum sufficient to set you up in business—and in twenty years, including the value of time also saved, it would make you independent.

The way they Court down East.

Sally, the housemaid, paring apples in the corner.

Enter Obadiah, who seats himself in the corner, opposite to Sally, without saying a word for fifteen minutes, but finally, scratching his head breaks silence with—

'There's considerable imperceptible alteration' of the weather since last week.'

Sally—,Taint so injudicious and so indubitable cold as 'twas; the thermometer has lowered up to four hundred degrees higher than zenith.

Obadiah—I think's likely, for birds of that species fly a great quantity higher in warm days than in cold ones.

Both parties assume a grave and knowing look, and a long pause ensues. Finally, Obadiah give his pate another harrowing scratch, again breaks silence—

'Well, Sally, we chaps are going to have a sleigh ride, it's such inimical good sledding to morrow.'

Sally—You are! Our folks are expecting company all day to morrow.

Obadiah—I 'spose they'll have insatiate times on't. I should be indefinitely happy if you would disgrace me with your company; I should take it as a derogitory honor; besides we're calculating to treat the gals copious well with reasons and black-strap.

Sally—I should be supernatural glad to disgrace you, but our folks suspect company—I can't go.

Obadiah sits scratching his head. [illegible]
