DAILY MORNING POST.

MARCH 9, 1843.

Prof. Bronson's Lectures.—Those who attended the first lecture of Prof. B. speak in high terms of his abilities in his profession. His regular course commences to-night. See advertisement.

B. L. Institute.

The exercises of the Birmingham Literary Institute will be public on Tuesday, March 14th, at the Public School-room commencing at 6½ o'clock P. M.

Salutatory, O. H. Browne, Prest.
Essay, Samuel M'Kee.
Oration, Jas. Salisbury.
Debate.
J. R. McKee, R. Larkins,
T. Campbell, A. Burt.
Address, Rev. Jas. H. Buchanan.

Ladie's Musical Library.—Messrs. Godey and M'Michael of Philadelphia, publish a work in monthly numbers, with the above title. It furnishes, in a form much cheaper than the usual price of music published in sheets, a choise selection of popular and fashionable music. It appears monthly in a beautiful form. Berford is Agent.

Quadrupeds in trouble—The Sun says warrants have been issued against Thomas Kutt and Wm. Goate for sundry depredations committed of late.

Fun Brewing.—There is talk of impeaching the Mayor for refusing to obey the resolution of the Councils in the Vigilant case. Go a-head.

A spree on the old Allegheny Bridge.—On Tuesday night "at the witching hour" a company of "jolly old souls," who were about three sheets in the wind, if not four, took it into their heads that they had no right to pay toll; and so took it in high dudgeon because the watchman asked them for their two cents a piece. No sooner was this moderate request made than a general melee ensued, in which the watchman got terribly used up.

LOVERS OF FUN, LOOK HERE!

Dan Rice takes a benefit at the Amphitheatre this evening. He's the genuine as all can testify who have witnessed him. We expect a crowded house to-night and therefore advise all to go early.

Millerism.—We are told that a Mr. Fitch, a disciple of Prophet Miller, from Cleveland, O., preached in the old Court House. We are also told that he holds forth to-morrow at 10 and 2 o'clock, at the same place.

WORKINGMEN'S MEETING.

Agreeable to public notice a very large meeting of the Workingmen of Allegheny county assembled in the new Court House on Wednesday, the 8th inst. The meeting was organized by calling Wm M. EDGAR to the chair, and appointing J. H. M'CLELLAND and H. GAMBLE, Vice Presidents, and Andrew Burt and James D Thornburgh's Secretaries. The object of the meeting having been stated by the chair, it was, on motion

Resolved, That a committee be appointed to draft resolutions expressive of the sense of the meeting.

Whereupon the chair appointed the following gentlemen: Otis Young, John Rhey and John M. M'Chesney. During the absence of the committee the meeting was addressed by Joseph Barker.

The committee having returned made the following report—

Whereas, We believe the present oppressed situation of the mechanics and working classes generally, imperiously demands their attention. And believing as we do that their present situation has in a measure been brought about by a want of a proper attention to their interests on the part of the representatives in the national and state legislatures:

Resolved, That this meeting appoint a committee of seven to draft a Constitution and By-Laws for the government of the Association, and report, to an adjourned meeting to be held on the —— of ——, 1843.

Resolved, That we recommend that there be notice given, and that each township, borough and ward elect two delegates to meet at the new Court House on the — day of —— 1843, to receive and act upon the report of the aforesaid committee.

The following resolution was adopted—

Resolved that this meeting deems it a matter of great importance that an Association be formed, the object of which shall be to collect and diffuse among the laboring and producing classes, information, which shall enable them to secure a safe, efficient and permanent protection for their own industry, against whatever is unfavorable to it; whether of a foreign or domestic origin.

The meeting appointed the following gentlemen the committee—John Farrel, John Dunlap, Edw Norton, A. Burt, Otis Young, J D Thornburgh and A. McElwaine.

The meeting was eloquently addressed by Messrs Burt, Farrall and Norton.

On motion, it was

Resolved, That the thanks of the meeting be presented to Maj Otis Young for his zeal in the cause of workingmen.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting be published in all the papers.

Resolved, That the thanks of this meeting be tendered to the officers for the able manner in which they have discharged their duties.

Adjourned.

DENNING'S FIRE PROOF IRON CHESTS.

PITTSBURGH, OCT. 22, 1842.

J. DENNING—On Friday, the 30th of last month, about 3 o'clock at night, the Planing Mill and Sash Manufactory, owned by Gay, Dilworth & Co, with a large quantity of dressed and undressed lumber, was all consumed by fire.

The Iron Safe which I bought of you some time back was in the most exposed situation during the fire, and was entirely red hot—I am pleased to inform you it was opened at the close of the fire, and all the books, papers, &c. saved;—this is the best recommendation I can give of the merits of your safes.

M'Closkey's Clothing Store!

FRESH ARRIVAL OF NEW GOODS.

SPLENDID ASSORTMENT OF

READY MADE CLOTHING

AT THE

THREE BIG DOORS,

No. 151 Liberty street, one door from the Jackson Foundry.

THE subscriber is just receiving at his well known establishment, the largest most varied and CHEAPEST STOCK of goods that has ever been offered in this city—Every article was selected by himself in the eastern cities, and purchased at the LOWEST CASH PRICES, and he is therefore enabled to sell his articles much lower than they can be had at any other establishment west of the mountains.

His articles are all made by experienced workmen, from the latest manufactured goods and in the most MODERN FASHION.

He feels confident that all persons who will call at his establishment and examine his stock will be satisfied that BETTER BARGAINS can be obtained at the

than at any similar establishment in the city.

His stock consists in part of Coats Pantaloons, Vests, Drawers, Shirts, Cravats, Stocks, Gloves, Suspenders.

And every other article of Clothing of the best style

From his varied stock of cloths he is prepared to MAKE CLOTHES TO ORDER at the shortest notice, in a style unsurpassed by any other Pittsburgh house, and warranted to fit.

His stock of Spring and Summer Goods is superior to any previous importations and he has no hesitation in saying that for excellence, beauty and cheapness they cannot be equalled in the west.

The subscriber would once more return his thanks to his friends and the public for the unprecedented patronage bestowed on his establishment, and believing that his customers had found it to their advantage to deal with him, he would repeat his invitation to all those who wish to purchase Clothing of every description at lowest prices, to call at No 151, LIBERTY STREET.

JOHN M'CLOSKEY.

INDUSTRIAL ASSOCIATION.

The Zoarites.

We publish the following as a piece of information relative to the progress of an Industrial Association in Ohio. It is not on the same principle as that of our friends in this city, but it serves to show what may be done by association labor, when there is no competition between man and man. We may here state when the Zoarites first entered upon their farm, they had but 600 dollars, and now they are worth FIVE MILLIONS!!

"Zoar, in Ohio, was settled by a company of Germans who put their property into common stock, with a patriarch at their head. They came over and purchased the township about 1820. One of the conditions of the compact was, that no one of the associates should marry until their affairs had arrived at such a state of maturity that the patriarch should think it expedient to remove the restraint. In the space of fifteen years, they had built a town, cultivated gardens and fields, erected a church, mills, &c. Of school houses they had no need, for there was not a child in the town. A gentleman who spent a Sabbath with them in 1834, says the patriarch, then about seventy years of age, read a portion of the Bible, and then delivered an address, in German of course—The music was very fine, and accompanied with all sorts of instruments. The company consisted of about two hundred and fifty men, and a still larger number of women. There was no reason to doubt that the agreement of celibacy had been faithfully kept; but about a year afterwards the patriarch removed the restraint, and was one of the first to use the liberty he had granted."—Jour. Com.

Think of This.—It has been estimated that of the 17 millions of people in the United States, upwards of 4 millions are at the present time in a destitute condition!! And are the remaining 13 millions happy? No! They live in continual dread of the future. They see around them many of their friends who at one time were immensely rich, reduced to abject poverty; and they have no guaranty, in the present state of society, that their fate may not be the same.

'What is the remedy?' people ask.

We answer 'Industrial Association.'
