DAILY POST.

PITTSBURGH, THURSDAY, AUGUST 24, 1843.

☞ Business cards, &c., see first page.

THE PIC NIC.—We had no special news from the Fourier Pic Nic at the time our form closed, but we may venture to say that the company, no doubt, spent a very pleasant day, and that they all went home decided friends of association, provided it could always be as pleasant as a Fourier Pic Nic. We expect that we will be able to give our readers a full report of all proceedings, as we have had a reporter on the ground who started at 4 o'clock yesterday morning, so that he might be in "advance of some of the males" in picking up a few interesting items through the country that were expected to add to the pleasure of the occasion. We suppose he will report himself to-day some time, if he has not formed a little association of his own.

☞ The SUN takes side with the AGE in "lambasting" Joe Barker for his intemperate advocacy of temperance. Joe is used to hard knocks, and we have no doubt he will be able to grin and bear all that can be said against him.

ALLEGHENY CITY.—We were informed yesterday, by a gentleman who seemed to know all about it, that at a quarter past 10 o'clock, on Tuesday evening, real estate rose 50 per cent. in Allegheny city. There is no property for lease in that city now, it is all for sale, on the "most accommodating terms" and every one within its precincts present superior advantages for persons who are engaged in the canal business.

☞ The colored citizens of this county held a County Convention on the 14th, and adopted measures to petition the Legislature to grant them the right of suffrage. They adopted several recommendations to the colored people, which, if carried out, would be of great advantage to that portion of our population. One resolution recommends that they should engage more in agricultural labour, as it is the surest means of their real elevation, and future prosperity and happiness; another that they encourage their own tradesmen, and another in relation to their schools.

GRAHAM'S MAGAZINE.—The September No. of this work, has been received at Berford's. The superior character of this Magazine, will if possible, be enhanced by the contents of the present number. It is capital in every respect.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

From an article in the New York Journal of Commerce, of Friday last, we extract the following:

THE SENATE.

The election of a Whig Legislature in Tennessee, makes it certain, or all but certain, that the two vacancies from that State in the United States Senate will be filled with Whigs. There is a vacancy in Illinois, occasioned by the death of Samuel McRoberts, which is certain to be filled with a Democrat. Another in Maryland, which will probably be filled with a Democrat. In this case the U. S. Senate will be divided, politically, 28 Whigs and 24 Democrats, giving the whigs a majority of 4. It is, however, to be noted, that Mr. Rives, of Va., who is included among the 28 Whigs, belongs to the "impracticable" school, and will be quite as apt to vote against the Whigs as for them. Also, that Mr. Porter, of Louisiana, was chiefly elected by democratic votes, in opposition to Mr. Conrad, the regular Whig nominee, and may feel himself beholden in some measure to those who elected him. The Senate is at present constituted as follows: Those in Italics are Whigs.

Whigs 28; Democrats, 22; vacancies, 4. Total 52.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Under the new apportionment, the House of Representatives will comprise 223 members. Of these, 141 have already been chosen, as follows:

	NEW CONGRESS, W.	NEW CONGRESS, D.	OLD CONGRESS, W.	OLD CONGRESS, D.
Missouri,		5		2
Georgia,*		6	7
Arkansas,		1		1

Alabama,	2	5		5
	39	102	84	72

*Two vacancies. †Four vacancies.

In the last five States there are a few members about whose election there is some doubt. The result, however, will differ very little from that above stated. By an examination of the footing, it will be seen that in seventeen States where elections for Congressmen have already been held, the Whigs have lost (compared with their representation in the Congress from the same States or parts of States) 45 members, while the Democrats have gained 30, making a difference of 75 in the relative strength of parties. There are 9 States yet to elect, and vacancies to be filled by two others, as follows:

	No. of Memb.	Date of Election.
Rhode Island,	2	August	29
Vermont,	4	September	5
Maine,	7	do.	11
Georgia, vacancies,	2	October	2
Maryland,	6	do.	4
Ohio,	21	do.	10
Pennsylvania,	24	do.	10
New Jersey,	5	do.	10 & 11
Michigan,	3	November	6
Mississippi,	4	do.	6 & 7
Massachusetts, vacancies,	4	do.	13
	82
Elected as above,	141
Total members,	223—last Congress.		242

Of the 82 members yet to be chosen, the Whigs may possibly get 30, or say 31, which would make their total number 70, or less than one third of the whole House.

Great Excitement.

150 LADIES and GENTLEMEN of this city have been rescued from the very great embarrassment of a miserable style of penmanship, by attending J. J. Estee's writing institute, and still there is an opportunity for all who have any desire to improve in this, the most useful of all arts, to follow in the footsteps of their predecessors, and like them, be justly ranked among the best penmen of the city. Mr. E., from his long experience and unparalleled success in teaching the above art, is warranted in assuring all who favor him with their patronage, that they will more than realize their fondest anticipations. His institute is removed to Market street, between 3d and 4th sts., next door to Mr. Carter's Book Store, which is a most delightful place for an institute of the kind. Ladies and Gentlemen, will you call and examine his large and splendid assortment of drawings, all of which are executed with the pen. Sure is its flight, though swift as Engle's wings, command and the bold figure springs. He has also a splendid assortment of specimens of his pupils' improvement, which cannot but convince the most fastidious of the utility of his system of penmanship. The Institute will be open for the reception of his class (which are at present large and interesting,) at all hours during day and evening. For further particulars, inquire at his office, or at Mrs. White's boarding house, corner of Fourth and Liberty streets.

N. B. The Ladies' Class will meet at 3 o'clock, P. M. aug 22-3t

MENAGERIE.

THE PHILADELPHIA
ZOOLOGICAL GARDEN,
UNITED WITH THE
NEW YORK INSTITUTE,
FOR THE YEAR 1843.
Under the Direction of Mr. H. Hoplins & Co.

The proprietors of this establishment would respectfully inform the citizens of Pittsburgh, and its vicinity, that the above named Exhibition will be open at Broadhurst's Mansion House, Pittsburgh, on Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, August the 23d, 24th, 25th and 26th. Doors open on the 23d from 7½ to 10. On the following days from 2 to 5 and from 7½ to 10 o'clock P. M.

Admittance reduced to 25 cents; Children under 10 years half price.

NOVEL SPECTACLE.

The proprietors of the New York and Philadelphia Zoological Exhibition have, at great cost and trouble, trained two prodigious Elephants, in harness, driving them in, tandem style, on the entrance of the Menagerie into the city, leading the Grand Cavalcade of horses, wagons, &c., after the same style as exhibited in the New York, Philadelphia and other principal cities to the great surprise and admiration of thousands.

New and splendid Scenery, done in oil painting by one of the best artists in Philadelphia, decorates the sides of 20 wagons, all containing animals of different descriptions, affording one of the most rich and animating displays ever brought forth, all the designs being of the latest finish and most admirable fashion. To enliven this scene, on entering the town a high toned band will pour forth some of the most fashionable airs.

The celebrated JOHN SCHAFFER, the subduer of the savage denizens of the forest, will appear in a most magnificent series of scenes entitled "The dreadful doom of the Sultan's slave." Among a variety of thrilling situations, the following will be exhibited:—The outcast slave banished to the forest of Fahlui, expiring from hunger and fatigue; when a fierce Brazilian Tiger darts like lightning upon him from an upper cavern.

The Eastern despot's most awful sentence!! Forfeited life spared on condition of training a wild lion to harness, which is accomplished, and the slave rides across the road in an ancient car.

Also, a variety of other beautiful and striking situations will be presented during the progress of the piece, to conclude with the most bold, grand and daring human display presented among a whole caravan of wild animals let loose at the same time, upon the Indian Slave, who will gradually subdue, and playfully exhibit his remarkable skill in elegantly grouping the matchless zoological exhibition.

For particulars see large bills at the hotels. aug. 17.
