DAILY POST.

TUESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 16, 1844.

☞ The following table shows the total number of members of Congress by the different ratios since the adoption of the constitution:

Year 1789	Fixed by the Constitution,	65 members.
" 1793	Ratio of 33 000	105	"
" 1803	" 33,000	141	"
" 1813	" 35,000	181	"
" 1823	" 40,000	212	"
" 1833	" 47,000	242*	"
" 1843	" 70,680	223	"

The number of electors of President and Vice President under the late apportionment will be 275, of whom 138 will be necessary for a choice.

*Including Michigan and Arkansas, admitted into the Union in 1836.

A GOOD BUSINESS.—The New York Express has the following estimate of Ole Bull's gains in that city.

"We may not be accurate in putting down the net result to Ole Bull of his seven concerts, but think the following cannot be very far from correct:

Four concerts at the Park	$3000
One do do	700
Two do Tabernicle	4,300
Total	$8,000

In Philadelphia his success has been proportionate. He has played there an alternate week, and sometimes nights, even with his engagement here. Between the two cities we doubt not his net profits have already exceeded $12,000. And this measure of success is sure to attend him wherever he goes.

THE STATEN ISLAND MURDER.

Nothing new in relation to this horrid affair has been elicited within the last few days. The correspondent of the New York Tribune, writes from Port Richmond, under date of Wednesday, as follows:

"There had been brought down a gentlemen from New York, at whose office it was stated that the prisoner (Waite) had himself offered the watch, on christmas morning. On being confronted with him, the gentleman could not identify him. Waite stood this very well; was perfectly self-possessed, and wanted to know what it was all about.

"So far, there is no evidence that could ever convince a jury of the participation of Waite in the murder and arson. It has not been proved that he was on the Island on Saturday, the 23d, or Monday, the 25th ult. Every thing, on the contrary, connects Polly Bodine with every feature of the transaction; the larcenies, the murders, and the arson. He says that if he could only see her—could only be confronted with her—she, he believed, would tell the whole story. He expressed on the day after his examination, the greatest desire to see her. This, however, of no account, will she permit. I shall not write again unless something of importance transpires, until the examination takes place."

The Reporter of the True Sun, has the following paragraph in his last letter.

"Polly Bodine's family, including, it is said, the husband of the murdered lady, profess to believe her guiltless. If they do, they are the only persons on the Island holding that opinion. If a jury of Staten Island must be had to try the case, the proceedings would be very summary."

DROWNED.—A fireman named Thos. Donnelly, belonging to the steamboat Victress, fell overboard and was drowned, on the 26th ult., on her passage from St Louis to New Orleans. Every exertion was made to save him, but unsuccessfully.

EXPORTS.—There were exported from Boston, last week, 227 bales of domestics to the West Indies; 200 to Smyrna, and 59 to South America; in all 486 bales.

FOR SAFETY,

Travellers should select Boats provided with Evan's Safety Guards for preventing Explosion of Steam Boilers

IT would be well for the traveling community to bear in mind that their security depends entirely upon their own encouragement of boats that have or may be at the expense of procuring the above apparatus. And that every individual making such selections is contributing towards a general introduction of an invention admitted by all men who understand the principles of the Steam Engine, to be a sure preventative against those dreadful disasters. You have certainly, in the hundreds of explosions that have already taken place, their almost daily occurrence, and the thousands of lives that have already been lost, a sufficient warning, and inducement to make inquiry for a Safety guard Boat, and in every case to give it the preference. They have went to an additional expense that your lives may be secure. Ought you not therefore to meet them with a corresponding degree of liberality, and by your preference show that you appreciate their laudable endeavors to stop this awful sacrifice of human life. They do not charge more than other boats; their accommodations in other respects are equal, and in many cases superior; and as there is one leaving Pittsburgh every day, why will you run any risk, when it is so completely in your own power to avoid these disasters.

All boats marked thus [*] in the List of Arrivals and Departures, in another part of this paper, are supplied with the Safety Guard.
