TIME'S CHANGES.

[illegible]
Shrouded in Life's cloudless sky.
And Memory, fond to view its moulding
Her smile it throws my memory yet—
Her rosebud mouth—her eyes of jet—
Around on all their light bestowing:
Oh who could look on such a form,
So subtly free, so softly tender,
And darkly dream that earthly storm
Should dim such sweet, delicious splendor!
For in her mein, and in her face,
And in her young steps fairy lightness,
Nought could the raptured gazer trace
But Beauty's glow, and Pleasure's brightness.
Her locks—her locks—were shored charms—
But still dissimilar, richest, rarest,
Than gathered a coldness less warm,
Though yet of earthly sights the fairest:
Upon her bosom she held a child,
The very image of its mother;
Which now to her smiling smiled—
They seemed to live but in each other:—
But anticipations, or fleeting woe,
Her thoughtless, sinless look had banished,
And from her cheek the roseate glow
Of girlhood's balmy morn had vanished;
Within her eyes, upon her brow,
Lay something softer, fonder, deeper,
As if, in dreams some rainbowed wo
Had broke the Elysium of the sleeper.

Now, on the ice—Fate's dark decree
A widow's garments had arrayed her;
Yet beautiful she seemed to be,
As even sad memories portrayed her:
Anon, the glamon had passed away,
Her smiling, and the sparkling glitter;
Still, though, a noted pale decay,
The roseroses was scarcely bitter;
For in their place a calmness dwelt,
Serene, subdating, soothing, holy;
In feeling which, the bosom felt,
Not every louder mirth is folly—
Not every pensiveness, which is not gaiet,
A stillness—as of sunset streaming—
A fairy glow on flowers and leaf,
Till earth looks like a landscape dreaming.

Last time—and unmoved she lay,
Beyond Life's dim, uncertain river,
A glorious mould of fading clay,
Over whose cold spark had fled for ever!
[illegible] was like to hence
And, as I thought, of years departed,
The years wherein I saw her first,
When she, a girl, was tender-hearted—
[illegible] in later days,
As moved she in her matron duty,
A happy mother, in the blaze
Of opened hope, and shining beauty—
I felt the chill—I turned aside—
Bleak Desolation's cloud came o'er me,
And Being seemed a troubled tide,
Whose wrecks in darkness swam before me!

BACCETA are singular women, and not overgifted with modesty, generally. One Mdle. Lola Montes is making a fortune in Paris, by a new trick that merits attention. At her first leap on the stage, she stops about on the tips of her toes, and by a movement of prodigious rapidity detaches one of her garters, to the great amazement of every opera glass. Mdle. Lola then takes another leap to the very edge of the proscenium, shaking with her fingers the ribbon which she has just detached, and mustering her most fascinating graces, flings that ribbon to the spectators. Mdle. Fanny Elsler was content to send kisses to the public in her Cachuchas; but Mdle. Elasler was but a Spanish girl of Berlin. Mdle. Lola Montes is an Andalusian, and at Warsaw, with a huge whip, triumphed over a troop of Russian cavalry sent to arrest her.—Phil. Times.

DENNING'S FIRE PROOF IRON CHESTS.
PITTSBURGH, Oct. 22, 1843.
J Denning: On Friday, the 20th of this month, about 9 o'clock at night, the Planing, Grooving, and Sash Manufactory, owned by Gay, Dilworth & Co., with a large quantity of dressed and undressed lumber, was all consumed by fire.
The Iron Safe which I bought of you some time back was in the most exposed situation during the fire, and was entirely red hot. I am pleased to inform you it was opened at the close of the fire, and all books, papers, &c., saved;—this is the best recommendation I can give of the utility of your safes.

Lo! what makes your teeth so unusually white?
Quoth Josh's dulcine to him t'other night,
To make yourn look so, with a grin, replied Josh,
I've bought you a bottle of Thorn's Tooth Wash;
'Tis the best now in use, so the gentlefolks say,
And since they have tried this, cast all others away.
But to prove it the best to make the teeth shine,
Look again, my dear Sal, at the lustre of mine.
Then try this great tooth wash,
The Teaberry tooth wash,
And see if this tooth wash of Thorn's is not first.
Having tried Dr. "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and become acquainted with the ingredients of its composition, I cheerfully say, I consider it one of the safest, as it is one of the most pleasant tooth washes now in use.
DAVID HUNT, Dentist.
Pittsburgh, Sept. 15, 1842.
I take pleasure in stating, having made use of "Thorn's Tea Berry Tooth Wash," that it is one of the best dentrifices in use. Being in a liquid form it combines neatness with convenience. While it cleanses the enamel and removes the tartar from the teeth, its perfume yields a fragrance peculiarly desirable.
J. P. TIBBETTS, M. D.
The undersigned have used "Thorn's Compound Tea Berry Tooth Wash," and have found it to be an extremely pleasant dentrifice, exercising a most salutary influence over the Teeth and Gums; preserving those indispensable members from premature decay, preventing the accumulation of Tartar, and purifying the Breath. Having thoroughly tested its virtues, we take pleasure in recommending it to the public, believing it to be the best article of the kind now in use.

WARRANTED GENUINE.—Dr. William Evans's Camomile Pills.
CERTIFICATES.—Letter from the Hon. Abram McClellan, Sullivan County, East Tennessee, Member of Congress.
WASHINGTON, July 24, 1838.
Sir:—Since I have been in this city I have used some of your Dyspeptic medicine with infinite benefit and satisfaction, and believe it to be a most valuable remedy. One of my constituents, Dr. A. Carden, of Crawford county, Tennessee, wrote to me to send him some, which I did, and he has employed it very successfully in his practice and says it is invaluable. Mr. Johnson, your agent in this place, thinks you would probably like an agent for Tennessee. If so, I would recommend Dr. A Carden, as a proper person to officiate for the sale of your celebrated medicine. Should you commission him he is willing to act for you. You can send the medicine by water to the care of Robert King & Sons, Knoxville county, Tennessee, or by land to Graham & Houston, Taswell, East Tennessee. I have no doubt but if you had agents in several counties in East Tennessee, a great deal of medicine would be sold. I am going to take some of it home for my own use, and that of my friends, and should like to hear from you whether you would like an agent at Blountville, Sullivan County, East Tennessee; I can get some of the merchants to make you as I live near there.
Yours respectfully,
ABRAHAM M'CLELLAN, of Tennessee.

Look at This,
THE attention of those who have been somewhat sceptical in reference to the numerous certificates published in favor of Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry, on account of the persons being unknown in this Section of the State, is respectfully directed to the following certificate, the writer of which has been a citizen of this borough for several years, and is known as a gentleman of integrity and responsibility.
To the Agent, Mr. J. KIDD.
I have used Dr. Swayne's Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry for a Cough, with which I have been severely afflicted for about four months, and I have no hesitation in saying that it is the most effective medicine that I have been able to procure. It composes all coughs, and agrees well with my diet,—and maintains a regular and good appetite. I can sincerely recommend it to all others similarly afflicted. J. MINNICK, Borough of Chambersburgh

BARON VON HUTCHELER HERB PILLS.
These Pills are composed of herbs, which exert a specific action upon the heart, give impulse or strength to the arterial system; the blood is quickened and equalized in its circulation through all the vessels, whether of the skin, the parts situated internally, or the extremities; and as all the secretions of the body are drawn from the blood, there is a consequent increase of every secretion, and a quickened action of the absorbent and exhalent organs, discharging vessels. Any morbid action which may have taken place is corrected, all obstructions are removed, the blood is purified, and the body resumes a healthful state.
