Polk on the Tariff!

"I hold it to be the DUTY of government to extend as far as practicable, by its revenue laws and all other means within its power, FAIR AND JUST PROTECTION TO ALL THE GREAT INTERESTS OF THE WHOLE UNION, EMBRACING AGRICULTURE, MANUFACTURES, MECHANIC ARTS, COMMERCE AND NAVIGATION."

[Letter to John K Kane, dated June 19, 1844.

Clay on the Tariff!

"All parties ought to be satisfied with a TARIFF FOR REVENUE, and discrimination for protection.
[Clay's Speech at Raleigh.

"AGRICULTURE NEEDS NO PROTECTION."
[Henry Clay.

From the Savannah Republican, a leading Clay paper in Georgia.

"WE DENY THAT MR CLAY, OR THE WHIGS OF GEORGIA, WHOSE CANDIDATE HE IS, SEEK FOR THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A PROTECTIVE TARIFF. BUT MR. CLAY ADHERES TO THE PRINCIPLES OF THE COMPROMISE ACT."

WHAT WILL CLAY DO, IF ELECTED?—This is an all important question, which, if we depend on whig orators and editors for an answer, can never be satisfactorily responded to. Nor is it more easy to ascertain what he will do from the letters he has written during the campaign for the purpose of pleasing the prejudices, and conciliating the support of the various sections and factions of the Union. But we have another and unfailing index to what his policy will be, if our country should be cursed with him for a ruler. He has been long in public life, and he has taken a prominent and decided part in many subjects of public concern. From his acts we will judge him—by these repeated and deliberative declarations of principle must he be judged, in preference to taking the words of those who make a business of deceiving and cheating the people, or to relying upon his inconsistent and most contradictory sentiments expressed through his various letters, written solely to catch votes.

1. He will use his influence to have a Bank of the United States, a "Bank like the old one," chartered. From the hour he took ground against Jackson's veto of the Bank, until his late declarations in South Carolina and Georgia that he was in favor of such an institution, because "all nations set us the example," he has been foremost in the array of Bank champions. Let no designing whig say that a Bank will not be chartered unless the people demand it. Did the people demand a Bank at the Extra Session? When the Committee reported its plan of a Bank at Mr Clay's motion, not one single petition had been presented, not one meeting held, to ask for a Bank.—Yet, in 1840, as now, we were told that a Bank would not be chartered until the people asked it.

2. He will use his influence to have the Compromiso Bill re-enacted. He has always regarded it as the leading act of his life,—in a hundred speeches and letters, he has expressed his devotion to it and solemnly promised to adhere to it through all his future career. Even in the late letter to Clayton he alludes to it with pride. Does any man think that he will suffer this measure he is so proud and fond of, to be thrown aside as rubbish? No—it has always been a favorite measure at the South, and the whigs there will press it upon the country, if Clay should be elected, relying on his repeated promises to "maintain it inviolate." While we have his votes, his letters and his speeches for more than ten years, sustaining the Compromise, we have no proof at all that he is not as well pleased with it as he ever was. He left Congress to avoid disturbing it. Should he return to power, he will most assuredly revive it if he can

3. He will distribute the proceeds of the public lands, and to make up the deficit this will create in the Treasury, he will go in strongly for a Tax on TEA and COFFEE, and other articles of similar character which are now admitted duty free, because we do not produce them. Does any one ask for proof that he will do this, let him turn to the journals of Congress at the Extra Session, and there Clay will be found, advocating almost solitary and alone, a Tax on Tea and Coffee, for the avowed purpose of preserving the Compromise Act inviolate, and to make up the Distribution deficit.

4. He will abolish the Veto Power. He stands pledged before the country to do this. It is one of the leading principles which he has declared for, and he will most assuredly carry it out if he can.

We will not argue the case in favor of the veto,—it would be an useless expenditure of time. The people of this state have sustained every important veto, both by the President and Governor, that they had a chance to pass upon. But we will merely allude to one view of the subject to show how useless a President would be to carry out the will of the people if this power were abolished. We all know how the whigs in Congress opposed the tariff in 1842. Suppose now they should get power and repeal it, and that the veto were abolished, what could the President do to stop them in their course, if he were disposed? Nothing. The whig enemies of this tariff would then have a stupendous triumph.

In view of these things, let no man who is opposed to a Bank—let no man who is opposed to the Compromise Bill—let no man opposed to Distribution and the Tea and Coffee tax—let no man opposed to abolishing the Veto power, vote for Clay; for as sure as he takes his seat as President, so sure will these measures be adopted and carried out.

WHEELING CONVENTION—IMMENSE ASSEMBLAGE OF THE PEOPLE.—The delegates from this city to the Wheeling Convention returned on Saturday, and they give a most glowing description of the immense multitude there assembled, and the warm enthusiasm that was evinced by all who were present. Wheeling never beheld such a vast gathering of the democracy before, and their appearance made the whigs of that benighted district stand aghast.

A Coon Convention was held on the same day, for the purpose of overwhelming the democrats, as it was supposed they could not muster in any strength; but when the day came their enemies were woefully disappointed. Hundreds of the honest mechanics were present. Washington county sent a host of her independent sons, and from all the neighboring counties of Ohio thousands of democrats poured in to cheer their small but sterling band of brethren in the whig city of Wheeling. The appearance of this immense host of democrats terrified many of the whigs, who do not appear to be conscious that the United States extend beyond the limits of the town of Wheeling, and caused them to think that whiggery is again doomed to another Waterloo defeat.

In numbers the Democrats exceeded the Whigs by several hundreds. We have not seen it stated how many were present, but are informed that a committee of whigs and democrats that was appointed to count the two conventions, reported that the democrats out numbered the whigs some three hundred delegates.

The result of this meeting shows the spirit of enthusiasm that exists among the people in favor of the democratic candidates; whiggery is overwhelmed in its strong holds, and before the November election it will be left without one single ray of hope. Huzza for POLK, DALLAS, SHUNK AND VICTORY.

☞ The Gazette, of Friday, re-publishes some low abuse of Mr. SHUNK, that was issued previous to the meeting of the 4th of March Convention, and says it was published by Mr. Shunk's own friends. We had strong suspicions at the time this base misrepresentation first appeared as to its authors, but since the Gazette has revived it, we are led to believe that the pious Deacon was an accomplice in getting up the base fabrication. If the editor of the Gazette was not concerned in getting up the "True Republican," he can clear himself of the strong suspicion that now exists against him, by exposing the real authors.

☞ The Gazette & Advocate says that the Convention of Tuesday, was at least twice as large as the coon gathering of 1840. On that occasion, the Advocate said that there were 60,000 persons present. So, we are to understand the veracious Deacon as claiming 120,000 for the Convention of the 10th. After this Deacon White can pass; we do not wonder that the fifteen whigs should adopt extraordinary means to secure his services.

THE EFFECT OF BAD NEWS.—Immediately after the arrival of the Maine Election news, on Saturday morning, the whigs commenced taking down their flags, and before sun down there was but few of them visible. This news has been a terrible slap in the chops for the poor whigs; following so closely on the heels of their Convention that has caused so much dissatisfaction, it has overwhelmed them with despondency, and they are almost willing to "curl up and quit."

THE LADY'S BOOK.—Cook has received the October number of the Lady's Book. It is a beautiful number, and is embellished with three beautiful engravings.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING IN THE THIRD WARD, ALLEGHENY CITY.

The Democratic Association of the Third Ward, Allegheny city, met agreeably to adjournment, on Thursday evening, September the 12th, 1844. Thomas Farley, Esq, President of the Association, in the Chair; the Secretary being absent, Thomas Donnelly was appointed Sec'y pro tem.

On motion, R C Albertus, John Whiston, Andrew Elliott, Walter Blythe and Thomas Donnelly, were appointed a committee to meet similar committees from the different wards of Allegheny city, to make arrangements for the convention on the 19th inst.

On motion, Lewis Verdrees, Charles Whiston, John Vernor and Captain Benning, were appointed a committee to make the necessary arrangements for banners, music, &c.

On motion, Mr James Watson, was requested to address the meeting, to which he responded in an eloquent and appropriate manner, tearing off the mask which coonery has put on, to hide its hideous form, and exhibiting the prowling midnight thief (loving darkness better than light, because his deeds are evil) in its true character, showing the habits of the coon; committing his depredations on the Farmer's cornfields, being a non producer himself, and living only on the labor of others, to be a fit emblem of the whig party, and disliking all light from that produced by a loco foco match up to the sun at noon-day, while the loco foco match is the most convenient to strike a light by which the prowling thief, or midnight assassin can be exposed, and detected in his work of darkness and iniquity; during all of which he received the most enthusiastic bursts of applause. At the close of which, the Glee Club in attendance, entertained the meeting with a few songs from the coon exterminator, in good style, when William H Smith was loudly called for, and addressed the meeting in his frank, bold and manly manner, exposing the impositions attempted to be practised on the people by the modern whig party, claiming to be the friends of the Tariff, a measure introduced, supported and established by the democracy long before the present modern whig party came into existence. As soon as Mr Smith had ended his remarks, the services of the Glee Club was again called into requisition, and amused the audience for a short time, when the meeting adjourned, to meet again on Tuesday evening next, at their usual place of meeting, at early candle light.

THOMAS FARLEY, Chairman.
THOMAS DONNELLY, Sec'y pro tem.

MORE RENUNCIATIONS.

Our exchanges still teem with renunciation of whiggery in all parts of the country. The last Guernsey (O.) Jeffersonian, contains letters from six influential citizens of that place, who have uniformly voted with the whig party, but now declare their determination to support Polk and Dallas. Their names are James Davis, Wash. Crawford, Robt. Chambers, Wm. Lindsley, Walter Pitcher, and Joseph Morland. Although voting with the whigs, they have ever opposed the establishment of a U. S. Bank, and as that is now undeniably the great measure of the whig party, they withdraw from its support.

The Hagerstown (Md.) Mail, publishes the renunciations of L J Fague, Archibald McNeal, and Geo. W Lyday, all supporters of Harrison in 1840.

The Ohio Statesman, says that Geo M Glover and Solomon Glover, of Franklin county, are no longer supporters of whiggery, but have expressed a determination to support the Democratic nominations.

The Bradford (Pa.) Reporter publishes a card from P E Maynard, for many years an influential Whig of Rome township, declaring himself in favor of Polk, Dallas and Shunk.

Gov. GEORGE M. TROUP, long the most influential man in Georgia, who for several years has acted with the whigs, and contributed more than any other man to give that party the ascendancy which it is has had in Georgia, now denounces and opposes them. He says, in a letter of some length, dated August 13th, that it is for the "unpatriotic conduct of the whig party" that he leaves them, and adds, "that I wish the party defeated and put down, and that I am sorry, sincerely sorry, that I cannot offer for your acceptance, on the coming occasion, any thing more worthy than my solitary vote."

All the indications from Georgia are extremely favorable.

From the Boston Post.

Glorious Democratic Triumph in Maine!

THE BRIGHTNESS OF THE EASTERN STAR IS RESTORED!

In the Eastern Argus Extra, received early Tuesday morning by Jerome & Co's. express, we have the glorious intelligence that the democrats have swept the state, from York to the Aroostook, electing their governor by a large majority over all his opponents, and prostrating the hopes of the Clay faction forever.

The vote of Maine is sure for Polk & Dallas!!

The Argus says:—"The Star in the East never shone brighter. The gain in Portland is over 400 votes over the gubernatorial election of 1840, when the federal majority in the whole state was about 300.

In this county our whole ticket is elected by about 1000 over whigs and abolitionists. Dunlap for Congress may reach 1200 over all!

The democratic gain in Cumberland will we think exceed 1200, over the corresponding election in 1840.

There is no doubt that Anderson is elected Governor, by three or four thousand majority over all others; and seven or eight thousand over Robinson, the whig candidate.

The abolition vote is small.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY, 27 TOWNS.

YORK COUNTY.

24 towns	5199	3227	576	5573	4643	4

Democratic net gain in 24 towns, 470! In York county the whigs have not elected a single representative. In the first congressional district (two democratic candidates having been run,) there is no choice.

KENNEBEC COUNTY.

22 towns	3198	4950	675	2881	5778	43

Democratic net gain in 22 towns, 507!

LINCOLN COUNTY.

24 towns	4139	4051	410	3820	4968	14

Democratic net gain in 24 towns, 840! The Maine Inquirer Extra of yesterday morning says—

"The whigs have not elected a single county officer. The abolitionists may possibly prevent the democratic senators from being elected by the people, although we think they are; on joint ballot in the Legislature, however, there will be a large democratic majority, and our democratic candidates for senators are sure of their seats. Old Lincoln has done well!!

P S. We think, upon the latest returns, we have carried all our county officers."

OXFORD COUNTY.

2 towns	343	417	9	300	443	2

Democratic net gain in 2 towns 12.

Democratic net gain in 105 towns, three thousand two hundred and twenty!!

Harrison's majority in 1840, was but 411.

The reports of travelers from other sections of the state, from which no actual returns have reached us, are equally cheering—our democratic brethren have fought a glorious fight, and are everywhere rejoicing over their victory.

The coons are thoroughly beaten. Nor can they resort to the stale excuse of "want of preparation," "locofoco intrigue, outrage," &c., &c.,; we were told in the Boston Atlas, of this morning that—"the campaign has been carried on with much vigor and spirit on the part of the whigs, and they have done all that it was possible for them to do."

"They have done all that was possible for them to do," but it's no use—the 'coon must come down, and from Maine to Louisiana the cheers of the triumphant Democracy go up for

"YOUNG HICKORY, DALLAS AND VICTORY."

A letter from Augusta, dated 9 o'clock, A. M., Tuesday, says:—

"We have elected Anderson by a majority of at least 2000, probably 3000. The majority against the whigs will be about 12,000. Legislature ours by an immense majority.

In haste, yours,

DEMOCRATIC GAINS.

The Baltimore Sun, received by last night's mail, gives the returns for Governor from 183 towns, as given by the Journal of Commerce, compared with the vote in the same towns at the gubernatorial election in 1840, showing a democratic gain since September, 1840, of 6,787. Anderson's plurality over Robinson thus far, 4,659; and his majority over all, 449, which will be increased considerably in the residue of the State.

A CARD.

At a meeting of the Democratic Glee Club, held on board steamer Ohio Mail, the undersigned were appointed a committee to return the Democratic Ladies and Gentlemen of Wheeling, the sincere thanks of the club, for the kindness and hospitality with which they treated us on our recent visit to the convention at that place. We beg to assure them, that we shall ever look upon our visit to their city as one of the most pleasant incidents in our lives, and shall recollect with the most grateful feelings the hospitality and welcome we received on that occasion, trusting that the time is not far distant when we will have an opportunity of reciprocating their kindness.

Throat Strap,

The whole to be of the best materials and workmanship, equal in all respects and conforming in mould and finish to the models or patterns deposited in this office, and in the office of the Quarter Master, at St. Louis, Mo., the Assistant Quarter Master at Newport, Ky., and the United States Military Storekeeper, at Pittsburg, Pa., which can be examined by any person disposed to make proposals. The saddle trees must be made of the best sound and seasoned ash timber, and of the exact model and dimensions of the patterns referred to, and will be subject to a strict inspection by such person or persons as the undersigned may, on the part of the United States, appoint for that duty:—First, after the completion of the wood work and be ironed, and again after ironing and before being covered, and finally, the whole work will be inspected when offered for delivery to the United States. And with the view of guarding still further the interest and rights of the Government against inferior materials and workmanship, the undersigned reserves to the Government the privilege, through the Inspectors who may be appointed to inspect the articles contracted for, of dissecting saddle or saddles as may be designated, for the purpose of determinating more satisfactorily the quality of the covered materials and work; which dissected saddle or saddles, if found equal in all respects to the pattern, will be received; but if otherwise will be turned upon the hands of the contractor as rejected; and the undersigned reserves to himself, as the agent of the Government, the further right or privilege of regarding any defect in model, materials or workmanship, discovered by dissection, as common to all the other saddles offered for inspection, as warranting the rejection of all.

A contract in triplicate, based upon accepted bids or proposals, will be executed by the parties; for the faithful performance of which the usual bands with two or more good securities, will be required. The Equipments in question may be delivered at either the Clothing and Equipage Depot at Philadelphia, or to the Officers or Agents of the Government at St. Louis, Mo., Newport, Ky., or Pittsburgh, Pa., with whom the models or patterns above mentioned may be deposited, as the contractor may find it most convenient.

Payments will be made for every hundred sets of Equipments received, if desired by the contractor.

Letters containing Proposals will be addressed to the undersigned, and endorsed "Proposals for Horse Equipments." HENRY STANTON,
Col. and Ass't Quarter Master General,

Huzza for Texas!

THE subscriber takes this method of informing his friends and the public generally, that he is just receiving one of the best selected stock as to quality or fashion, ever brought to this market, consisting of Ladies', Gentlemen's and Children's Boots and Shoes, which he will sell wholesale and retail a little lower than any other house in the city. He would also inform his old customers that he is receiving a fine lot of French and Philadelphia Calf Skins, together with the latest style of French lasts, and is prepared to make to order the very best quality of Boots, as to beauty or durability, and flatters himself that if the public will give him a trial he will be able to accommodate himself to the tastes of all. Be sure of the place, sign of the Cheap Cash, Boot and Shoe Emporum, 112 Market st, fronting St Clair.
