The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 29, 1845.

PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTEE FOR JANUARY.

W. Barker. Robert Bell. J. Carothers.

☞ On our outside form will be found an interesting account of "Lovell's Fight with the Pequawkets, in the year 1725"—"An Accomplished Young Lady," and, "Wholesale Slaughter of Witches."

POSTPONED.—Mons. MANEAUX requests us to state that his exhibitions advertised to be given at Duquesne Hall, have been postponed, in consequence of sickness in the family of the proprietor of the Hall.

THIERS' HISTORY OF THE CONSULATE.—This long-promised work is now in course of publication in Paris and in this country. Messrs. CAREY & HART, the enterprising Philadelphia publishers, have, at great expense, obtained from Paris the corrected proof-sheets of the work, which are forwarded to this country as fast as they are prepared. The first part, being the first volume of the French edition, has been received at Cook's Periodical Office, 4th street.

If the true value of every article is the amount it will bring, in dollars, then M. THIERS' History of the Consulate is one of the most precious productions of modern times. The copy-right of the work was purchased from the author for one hundred thousand dollars.

This History will be published in Paris in ten volumes which will cost about $15. It will be published by Messrs CAREY & HART in ten parts, at 12½ cents each. To translate it they have procured the services of D F CAMPBELL and H W HERBERT, Esqrs; the latter gentleman is already much distinguished in the literary world, and will append Notes to the work, which will doubtless add greatly to its value.

☞ An Election for Officers of the Duquesne Fire Company will be held at Duffy's on Monday evening next, (February 3d) at 6½ o'clock.

jan 28-d6t G S WILLIAMS, Sec'y.

JOHN HERDMAN'S

Old Established Emigrant Passage Office,

61 SOUTH STREET.

The subscriber, in calling the attention of his friends and the public to his unequalled arrangements for bringing out persons from Great Britain and Ireland, who may be sent for by their friends, begs to state that in consequence of the great increase of this branch of his business, and in order to preclude all unnecessary delay of the emigrant, has at great expense, in addition to his regular agents in Liverpool, appointed Mr Thos H Dicky, who had been a faithful clerk in the establishment for the last eight years, to proceed to Liverpool and remain there during the emigration season, to superintend the embarkation of all passengers engaged here. The Ships employed in this line are well known to be only of the first class and very fast-sailing, commanded by kind and experienced men, and as they sail from Liverpool every five days, reliance may be placed that passengers will receive every attention and be promptly despatched. With such superior arrangements, the subscriber looks forward for a continuation of that patronage which has been so literally extended to him for so many years past, and should any of those sent for decline coming, the passage money will, as usual, be refunded, and passage from the different ports of Ireland and Scotland can be secured if desired.
