PITTSBURGH, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 19.

PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTEE FOR FEBRUARY.

Pittsburgh, W H Denny, Joshua Hanna.

Last night, about 12 o'clock, a fire broke out in Liberty, opposite Smithfield street, in a small Grocery store, owned by a man named Hermon, which, despite the efforts of our firemen, was almost entirely consumed.

THE THREE BIG DOORS.—The proprietor of this splendid establishment is making extensive preparations for the Spring Trade. His present stock is the largest and best he has yet brought out, and those who follow the scale on which he buys, can form some idea of the wilderness of wearing apparel which is to be found at 151, Liberty street. Among the huge heaps of cheap and beautiful garments he offers, the purchaser is perplexed as to what he shall choose.

MR. PARVIN'S CONCERT was attended by a very large audience—the largest we have seen at a concert in this city for some time. Mr SOVAK presided at the piano, and his skilful management of the instrument, did much to convey a proper idea of the merits of Coleman's new invention, the Æolian attachment.—Many of the audience were delighted with it, while others were not so decided in their views, and wish to hear more before they express an opinion of its qualities.

Mr PARVIN played or sung in every piece but one, and exerted himself to the utmost to gratify his large and respectable audience.

FINDING LEAD.—An Irishman, not long since, digging for lead in the district of Dubuque, Wisconsin, fell through the bottom of the hole into a large cavern, and on looking round found the inside of the cavern covered with very pure lead. It was one of the richest veins ever discovered, and the Irishman's fortune is made.

FEMALE ODD-FELLOWSHIP.—The great success which has attended these associations in New York, has prompted similar combinations with the same philanthropic views among the female portion of the community. They hold regular meetings and admit members of good standing, both married and single, at a fee of $2. Strict temperance is a fundamental requirement. They are calculated to be of vast benefit to our hard worked but poor paid female population, in the hour of need.

TWENTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15, 1845.

SENATE.

Memorials from various quarters asking for the annexation of Canada, and other portions of the British empire, were presented and laid on the table.

The French spoliation bill coming up on its passage, was postponed till Monday.

A resolution offered yesterday, providing for an earlier hour of meeting, came up, and was warmly opposed by Messrs. Evans and Berrien. They contended that, if it passed, there would be no time to attend to business in the committee rooms.

A report from the joint committee appointed to tell the President of his election, was made and entered on the journal.

Several other trifling matters having been disposed of, the Senate took up the Texas resolutions.

Mr. Rives having the floor, made a speech of about three hours, against this mode of annexation. He argued that the only constitutional way to effect it, was by treaty.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. McKay from the committee of ways and means, reported a joint resolution, directing the Secretary of the Treasury, in all cases where States do not pay the interest in their stocks owned by government, to deduct the amount from the sales of the public lands in such States.

Mr. Stewart moved to amend by requiring the Secretary of the Treasury to pay over the fourth instalment of the surplus revenue.

The amendments were rejected, and the joint resolutions read twice. The question then being on their third reading, Mr. Hardin gave notice of debate, on which they were laid over.

Mr. Pratt gave notice that when the general appropriation bill shall come up, he will move to amend it by inserting a bill for a commissioner to China.

THE RIGHT REV. BISHOP O'CONNOR, will deliver Lectures in St. Paul's Cathedral every Thursday and Sunday evening during Lent, at 7 o'clock. The principles of the Catholic Church will be explained and defended, with special reference to the changes now made against it.

Subject of Lectures till further notice.—The principles of the Catholic Church regarding the authority and the use of the Sacred Scriptures. feb 10
