The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JUNE 4, 1845.

PITTSBURGH BOARD OF TRADE.

COMMITTEE FOR JUNE.

M. Robertson, W. B. Scaife, R. E. Sellers.

☞ Read the communication of "Observer." His remarks are sensible and well timed.

MEXICAN NEWS.—We publish some very interesting news from Mexico this morning. The development of the interference of England in our public affairs is becoming more apparent every day, and the people will naturally expect our government to adopt some steps that will check this insolent intermeddling.

☞ The workmen are now engaged on the last story of several splendid blocks of buildings in the Burnt District. Many are already under roof, and we expect that before the first of August business will be doing in at least a hundred of them.

THEATRE.—Go and see BLAKE to-night. He's the prince of Ethiopean Melodists. and his heel and toe touches make all other scienced darkies "jis lay down and die."

☞ The laboring poor, says a British writer, "contribute towards what is exacted by the State in every hard morsel that goes into their mouths and every tatter that floats on their backs.

HANDSOME DONATION.—The handsome sum of sixty-five dollars was on Wednesday made up by Reporters of the City of New York, and sent by the senior member of their corps, Major Prall, to the widow of the late R S Wilson, Esq., whose pecuniary embarassments impelled him to the commission of suicide a few days since. A subscription for the aid of the bereaved family was also opened at the Law Library, and a considerable sum realized.

DIED.—On Tuesday afternoon, the 3d inst. Mrs. Elisabeth Walker, in the 64th year of her age.

Day Boarding.

The subscriber being well provided with every convenience to accommodate any number of guests at his Hotel in the Diamond, would respectfully inform those who reside in the country, but do business in the city, that his table is prepared every day for the reception of transient boarders, either by the day or single meal, and from his long experience in the business, the style of his table and unremitting exertions to please all who may favor him with their patronage, he feels confident of being able to give entire satisfaction. A number of the most respectable merchants in the city have boarded at his house for years, to whom he can refer for the character of his accommodations.
