BY LAST NIGHT'S MAIL.

From our Washington Correspondent.
SATURDAY, Dec 27th, 1845.

The two Houses of Congress met to-day at 12 o'clock. The Senate was organized by the assumption of the chair, by Mr Sevier, of Arkansas, on the request of the Vice President, who was necessarily absent. Some little difference of opinion being manifested on the part of Mr Crittenden, as to the legality of the position of Mr Sevier—he having been invited to preside by a note from Mr Dallas—the 23d rule for the government of the proceedings of Senate, was read, and a debate ensued in which Speight, Crittenden, Calhoun, Sturgeon, Mangum and Thos Clayton took part. Precedent appeared to justify the Vice President in the course he had adopted, and Mr Sevier retained the chair, Mr Crittenden withdrawing his objections, which had only been made from doubt of the legality of the proceeding. Hon Jesse D Bright, from Indiana, was then sworn and took his seat as a Senator from that State.

A message was then announced from the House of Representatives, notifying the Senate of the passage of the bill, extending the judicial jurisdiction of the United States, over the new State of Texas.

A bill was reported from the committee on Public Lands, providing "for the establishment of a permanent pre-emption system in favor of the settlers on the public lands," which received its first and second reading.

Mr Levy withdrew his resolution in relation to the Island of Cuba He said that he did so in reference to the wishes and judgement of Senators with whom he had conversed on the subject, and that when offering the resolution he had not contemplated calling it up until near the close of the session.

Mr Atchison, called up his resolutions of instruction in relation to the establishment of a Territorial government in Oregon. Mr Calhoun spoke of their important bearing, and hoped they might be permitted to lie over until after the holidays, but after explanations from Messrs Atchison and Allen, he withdrew his objections, and the resolutions were adopted. The Senate then went into Executive business, and on opening the doors, adjourned over to Monday.

Before the House of Representatives, no question of importance arose, until the bill from the Senate, extending the laws of the Union over the State of Texas, was announced. Then, much to their credit, from a rifling debate on the subject of superintendent of the folding or document department, they turned their attention to the matter of national importance waived the matter in dispute, gave the bill its first and second readings dispensed with the rule, read it a third time, passed it and returned it to the Senate.—Then adjourned over to Monday 12 o'clock, M.

There is a rumor in the city this evening, that another revolution has succeeded in Mexico,—that Paredes is now at the head of the government, and that the people, tired of the anarchy which has so long prevailed there, have demanded of the public authorities that they open a negotiation with the U States, or take them under our protection.

I understand the committee on Military Affairs in the House, are very busy, working night and day, and it is expected they will report in a few days, a bill embracing the important features recommended by the Secretary of War in his report.

The question of a war with England, is still the engrossing topic of conversation; and on the probability of it, opinions are divided, pro and con. My opinion is still that indications are more for than against it, though the unanimity with which the people, through their representatives and presses, have declared their determination to sustain this government, in case the worst comes, may be the means of avoiding it. If this does not have that effect, nothing else would.

Yours, very respectfully, DUQUESNE

GREAT FIRE IN COLUMBUS, Ohio

A fire broke out in Columbus, Ohio, on the 21st inst at twelve o'clock at night, in the north row of Messrs Bausch & Moore's, on the upper part of Broad street, then spread down below Bank's corner and spread thence up and down the street, until nearly the whole square fronting on Broad street, and bounded south by Rudolph street, east by Front street, and north by Long street, was laid in ruins, excepting the portion occupied by Engelhorn & Bro, and the restaurant. Answers from the Messenger Dispatch give the following particulars:

6 o'clock, A M—The fire is still in full force, destruction is upon a broad scale. We subjoin the following list of sufferers by this sudden calamity:

Weston & Bonner, insured for $2,000.
Mathew & Baughman, insurance has run up to $12,000.
Porter & Whiting, loss $800
H W & J D Noyes, Tucker & Lucas, insured $10 000; E & M Meadmer, insured; J J Buckley, G B Phole, A K Ayer auction and commission house no insurance; Inslee & Clapp, goods removed; W S Nell, no insurance, Carter & Stockton, insured $3,000; J G Vinter's Bank St Mary's, everything saved, even to the fixtures; Luke Reed, goods removed; John Schibley's law office, contents saved, H H Woodruff, goods removed; S Lessermann & Co; White & Ferrell, restaurant, A Gunst & Co, A H McNeil, L J Davis, Tarlton & Co, Geo H Bohr, F Shaver, J B Hicks Wm Allen, A Willers, and John Fox, removed most of their goods; J H Andrews, battery office; M Louis, boot maker, all saved; the Times office, part removed, but in much confusion, full insurance; "Rialto," Chas Rooney, four shops on Oglethorpe street, occupants unknown; "Our Coffee House," R Ware, and J B Wells' restaurant, articles generally removed.

The area of the burnt district is about 600 feet by 300.

10 o'clock—Further Particulars.—We have been enabled to gather only a few more particulars.

The following are the names of the principal owners of the buildings which have been burnt, with a rough estimate of their value:

John Banks, 2 stores, value $7,000; Holsey & Holstead, Charleston, 1 store, 3,000; —— Gaither, Wetumpka, 1 store 3 000; John Warren, 1 store, 3,000; John G Winter, 1 store and baking house, fully insured, 5,000; Gen McDougald, 16 or 18 stores, 50,000, rent of which brings the interest on 100,000; Mr Rhynd, Augusta, 1 store, 3,000; Mr Clapp, (insured) 2,00; Randall Jones, 2 stores, 7,000; Thomas Morris and Col Jones, 2 stores, 3,600; A H Bell & Co. lost about $4,000 worth of goods; Ezekiel & Lichton, 5,000; J M Sarlox & Co, covered by insurance, 2,000; L J Davies, insured 7,000, sufficient to cover all loss; Mitchell & Baugh, total loss, 10 to 12,000; Wesson & Bocher, loss covered by insurance.

The total loss in buildings will exceed $100,000 and may reach to $150,000.

We are gratified to learn that the Bank of St Mary's building was not entirely destroyed. The front room only was burnt—the Cashier's room and the vault, being entirely fire proof, resisted the devouring element. The front buildings, belonging to Mr Winter, were fully insured in the Equitable Office in New York.

We regret to state that one of our active and worthy members of the Fire Department, Mr Josiah Franklin, was nearly killed by the falling of a wall upon him, while he was in the act of lighting a lamp.—Both his thighs were fractured and his head somewhat bruised, but his more vital parts are uninjured, leading to the hope that the accident will not prove fatal.

A young man of the name of Driver, clerk for Mitchell & Baugh, made a miraculous escape, being dragged out of his bed when the cinders were falling upon it.

MOST EXTRAORDINARY MOVEMENT.

War with the United States.—The following advertisement appeared in yesterday's Herald.

"To Volunteers.—This undersigned beg to inform those men who are desirous of serving under them during the approaching war, that they will meet them at the office of Biras & Colburn, Point au Caliere, on Friday evening, the 19th inst, at 8 o'clock. God save Queen.
E. E. COLBURN,
J. HUTCHISON."

"December 18, 1845"

It is signed by officers regularly appointed by Earl Cathcart, within the last few days. Comment is unnecessary. If Earl Cathcart cannot find persons of common discretion among our citizens to act as military officers; he had better refrain altogether from making any appointments. We wish that the demi official organ would inform the public distinctly whether Earl Cathcart sanctions the conduct of the officers whose names we find appended to the notices to the citizens of Montreal to form themselves into volunteer corps. We doubt much whether the British government will thank these over zealous gentlemen for their headstrong conduct.

REMITTANCES TO ENGLAND, IRELAND, SCOTLAND AND WALES.
PERSONS wishing to remit small sums to ENGLAND, IRELAND, SCOTLAND and WALES, can have it sent by the undersigned, at very moderate rates. In consequence of the failure of the crops in those countries and the approach of Famine, no doubt to many a small sum sent in time, would be of incalculable benefit. The undersigned, aware of this, have determined to put the rates so low, that no one need be deterred from availing themselves of this opportunity.
