The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

TUESDAY MORNING, FEBRUARY 3, 1846.

CORRESPONDENTS.

In reference to communications which may appear in this paper, we have one or two remarks to make.—We will insert none without the name of the author being first made known to us, and when inserted, must always be taken as expressive of the views of the writer, and not the editor of this paper, unless the views so expressed are editorially remarked upon and approved

POLICE.—There were six customers brought before the Mayor yesterday morning, for numerous offences: two paid their fines, and the remaining four were sent up to Mount Airy, for ten, twenty and thirty days each.

AN IMPROVEMENT.

The Duquesne Fire Engine Co. have made quite an improvement on their engine, which is a whistle similar to those used on steam engines, which is carried on the goose neck; and when the fire is out they work up and down, and then draw the valve, which causes it toe whistle for three minutes, which is intended to call the members together.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.—This celebrated remedy is a compound balsamic preparation of the Wild Cherry and Moss of Iceland, combined by a new chemical progress with the Extract of Pine. Rev. Dr. Bartholomew's
PINK EXPECTORANT SYRUP.

AN agreeable cordial and effective remedy for Coughs, Hoarseness, Colds, Pains in the Breast, Influenza, Hard Breathing, and Difficult Expectoration.

For adults in children and cold climates and warm. The proprietors are aware that there are many remedies for coughs and diseases of the lungs; some no doubt are good; but it has remained to a late day to discover an article so admirably fitted to these complaints so powerful and effectual and yet so perfectly innocent and mild.

The proprietors are now making rapid arrangements to have this article in the hands of every druggist and apothecary in this country. It may be known to be genuine by the following signature as below, of the Rev. Gentleman and Physician, who is the author of it.

It is with great pleasure that the proprietors are enabled thus to bring forward an article so truly meritorious as this syrup, and from such a source, and they trust the community who have occasion for its use may always find it within their reach, both as to the places at which it may be found, and the low prices at which it is sold. NEW YORK, January 12.

Having used Dr. Bartholomew's Expectorant Syrup in my family, it has produced a admirable effects. One of the members of my family was troubled with a distressing cough for three years, and after trying many things without being benefited. I at length bought a bottle of the above named syrup, which, after three days, entirely cured her. SIMON CLANNON,
