The Daily Morning Post.

PITTSBURGH, PA.

FRIDAY MORNING, MARCH 27, 1846.

CORRESPONDENTS.

In reference to communications which may appear in this paper, we have one or two remarks to make.—We will insert none without the name of the author being first made known to us, and when inserted, must always be taken as expressive of the views of the writer, and not the editor of this paper, unless the views so expressed are editorially remarked upon and approved

☞Gen. SAMUEL HOUSTON, United States Senator from the state of Texas, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon by the steamer Messenger. After spending a short time at the St. Charles, and receiving the calls of quite a number of our citizens, he left for Washington city on one of the Monongahela Improvement Steamers.

DROWNED.—A young man named Gotlhelen, a passenger on the steamer Revenue Cutter, fell overboard, and was drowned, last night, about nine miles below this city. He, we learn, came in the stage from Warren, Ohio, to Beaver, and there took passage on the boat; he was young, not over twenty years of age. The Captain and crew of the boat made every exertion in their power to save him, but without success.

☞The Theatre, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, has been very well attended during the week. Mr Porter has now one of the best Company's in the country, and certainly the very best that we have seen in Pittsburgh for a number of years.—We have witnessed, during the week, some of the heaviest plays in the Drama, performed without a "star," and done well, too. Mr Morris' personification of "Pierre," "Jago," and "Sir Giles Overreach," we have seldom seen equalled. Mr Fredericks and Mr Smith, to say nothing of "Old Logan," whom every body knows, and the remainder of the company, are all able to perform admirably the parts for which they have been selected. It will be seen by the bills that the celebrated "Hackett" is engaged, and will appear to-night.

There will be a valuable lot of Law Books sold at P M'Kenna's Auction Rooms Wood st. Call and see them.

☞The sale of Furniture at the Exchange Hotel, will commence this morning with a splendid Piano Forte, the contents of 10 or 12 sleeping rooms and the furniture of three parlours.

MASONIC NOTICE.

A Special Meeting of Lodge No 45, A Y Masons, will be held this evening, in the Masonic Temple corner of 3rd and Wood sts., at 6½ o'clock.

By order of the Worship Master.

Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.—This celebrated remedy is a compound balsamic preparation of the Wild Cherry and Moss of Ireland, combined by a new chemical progress with the Extract of Pine. So salutary have been its effects in all cases when administered for Coughs, Asthma, Consumption, or any disease of the lungs, that many of the most distinguished physicians have approved and recommended it, and openly acknowledged it to be the most valuable medicine ever discovered. It truly a valuable medicine, and is effecting an immense amount of good in the relief of suffering humanity.
