THE PITTSBURGH DAILY MORNING POST.

PITTSBURGH, MONDAY, JUNE 15, 1846.

FOR CANAL COMMISSIONER,

OF BRADFORD COUNTY.

The Military.

The "Jackson Independent Blues," "Duquesne Grays" and "Pittsburgh Guards" paraded our streets on Saturday afternoon. The services of all three we believe, have been through his Excellency Gov. SHUNK, tendered to the President of the United States. They mustered strong, and made quite a formidable appearance; and we must confess that it is truly gratifying to see so many young men ready and willing to engage in the service of their country. Old Allegheny, it is now quite certain, will furnish more than her share of troops necessary to fill the requisition of the President. From the best information obtained, we now think it entirely certain that the services of at least eight full companies from Allegheny county, will, during the present week, be tendered to the President through the Governor.

Up to the 10th inst. the services of eleven full companies had been tendered to the Governor, and by him accepted.

In the Gazette of Friday the editor says:

"If we must have Masons on our ticket, let us relinquish the old term "Antimasonic" and cease to pass Antimasonic resolutions."

The very best move you can make Mr. Editor. Either relinquish "the old term Antimasonic" or erase the name of Mr. HAMPTON from the head of the ticket as the Anti-Masonic candidate for Congress.

ECONOMY.—The public printing of Pennsylvania for the year 1840, says the Harrisburg Union (exclusive of blanks for the public works and executive departments) cost the Commonwealth $82, 268,77. The blanks on the public works, and in the executive departments probably cost $10,000 more, which made a sum for printing exceeding $82,000.

The same work is now done in a very superior manner for a sum not exceeding $20,000, thus saving to the State in that item. over $60,000 per annum.

THE PENNSYLVANIA RAIL ROAD.—The Harrisburg Union says, "from the course pursued by the Philadelphia councils in refusing to grant to the citizens of that city, the right of voting in favor or against a subscription to the road, there is now, serious doubts whether the necessary sum will be subscribed to commence the work!!"

A NEW INVENTION.—Mr. Richardson, an ingenious mechanic of Donaldson, La., says the N. O. Delta, has invented a Mechanical contrivance by which all accidents caused by the running away of horses can be avoided. It is of the simplest construction imiginable. The manner of checking the horses consists in pulling a string inside the carrige, which casts loose the traces, harness and all, leaving the carriage perfectly clear of the horses. The invention can be applied to every species of vehicle, and costs only from twenty-five to thirty dollars.

☞A New York paper suggests the propriety of not chronicling the cases of abandonment of infants, as the intelligence gives the unnatural parents assurance that the child is safe and will be provided for, whereas if the subject were left in doubt, the inquiries they would make, might lead to the detection of the parties.

☞The effects of the hail storm which visited St. Louis the 4th inst., is said to have been much more severe than at first anticipated. In the southern portion of the city it was particularly destructive to gardens and window lights. In one building over 200 panes were broken.

LOVE AND SUICIDE.—We learn from the Cincinnati Times, that a beautiful young lady in Indiana, having been compelled by her father to marry a gentleman of fortune though she had promised her hand to another, took poison in her coffee the morning after her marriage, while at breakfast with her husband and parents, and expired in less than an hour.

☞Miss Laura M. Taylor, a niece of Gen Z. Taylor, presented, in behalf of the ladies of the Female Academy, a beautiful flag to Col. Campbell's Regiment of Tennessee Volunteers, at Nashville, on Wednesday Sune 3d.

☞The patriotic citizens of St. Louis contributed over ten thousand dollars to aid in equipping the battalion which will be composed of the companies of Capt. Weightman's, Rennick, and others.

☞A convict in the Troy jail, who was sentenced on Tuesday last to five years imprisonment, was found on Saturday morning, quite dead suspended by the neck to a rope which he had made from his bedding and fastened to a swing window.

GEN TAYLOR, it is alledged by a correspondent of the Public Ledger, is a native of Pennsylvania, and not of Kentucky or Virgina, both of which States have been claiming the honor of his nativity.

QUICK WORK.—Bannister, the Dramatist, says the N. Y. News, wrote his drama on the Rio Grande troubles, in twenty-four hours. The first act was in rehearsal before the last was written.

OLD ROUGH AND READY.—The citizens of Trenton, N. J. have are to hold a public meeting of the purpose of nominating Gen. Taylor for the next Presidency of the U. S.

A FATHER SHOT BY HIS SON.—John Hitchcock' residing near Windham, Greene co., New York' was shot dead a few days since by his son who is now in prison.

☞The people of Philadelphia have been compelled to a great extent, to cut down their beautiful Linden trees, on account of the worms that have collected upon them.

CRICKET.—A match came off at camp Washington, Cincinnati, on Wednesday last between two elevens of the Queen City and Western Cricket Clubs.

ILLINOIS will soon it is said have her three thousand brave volunteers ready, to meet the requisition made on that State by the General Government.

OMNIOUS.—"Mexico will conquer, or will no longer exist." These were the closing words of the manifesto of Paredes, President ad interim, issued from the National Palace, April 23.

☞A carpenter was killed by falling from a staging at Donough's printing office, Cincinnati, the other day.

☞The citizens of Boston have been feasting on water mellons for a week past. Moderate sized one were selling for fifty cents a piece.

☞Arrangements have been made for the immediate removal of the remains of Major Ringgold to Baltimore.

☞One of the volunteers at Louisville, Ky., was killed by the accidental discharge of a pistol in the hands of one of his comrades, on Tuesday last.

MAIL ROBBERY.—The southern mail bag was stolen off the steamer Ben Franklin No. 6, at Cincinnati on Tuesday morning.

☞Peter Johnston, of Little Rock, Arkansas recently drowned himself while laboring under an attack of delirium tremens.

AWFUL DEATH.—George Quinter, a mason, was killed at the Gibraltar Forges Pa. on Wednesday, by the gable of a stone stable falling upon him.

☞Professor Whitney, the elocutionist, is to make his debut at one of the New York Theatres shortly, in the character of Shylock.

YOUTHFUL DEPRAVITY.—A lad was arrested in New York a few days since for Gambling in the streets.

☞Volunteers are arriving at Cincinnati and Louisville, by the boat load.

GEN. WOOL and suit arrived at Louisville on Tuesday the 9th inst.

PENNSYLVANIA VOLUNTEERS.—The Harrisburgh Argus of June 10th says, that the following Volunteer companies, through his Excellency Gov. SHUNK, have tendered their services to the President of the United States. In every section of this good old Commonwealth, the military spirit of the people is fully aroused:

NATIONAL JUBILEE OF THE SONS OF TEMPERANCE.

The gathering, yesterday, of the representatives of the Temperance Reformation from the different States of the Union, was the greatest ever known in this city, or probably in the country.—The streets were crowded during the day by the immense concourse of spectators who had turned out to witness the procession and the scenes of the day. The procession itself was one of the largest that ever formed in our streets, and it has been estimated that it must have contained twenty thousand persons.

The day was ushered in by the ringing of the church bells in this and the neighboring cities—At sunrise, national flags fluttered in the breeze, from the City Hall, the Battery, the State Arsenal, the public buildings, hotels, theatres, places of amusements, and several other buildings, and the fountains throughout the day poured forth the fullest streams of the pure and sparkling Croton.—At noon a national salute was fired from the Battery. Colonel Thomas B. Lawrence of Pennsylvania, was the Marshal-in-Chief of the day.

We learn that nearly every State in the Union was represented on the occasion.

The Grand line took up its march from the corner of Hudson and Chamber street, at one o clock, and the procession, four abreast moved up Hudson to Fourteenth street, through Fourteenth street, around Union Park to Broadway, down Broadway to Bond street, thence to the Bowery, down the Bowery to Grand street, up Grand to East Broadway, though East Broadway to Chatham street, through Chatham street to the Park.

The procesion made a grand appearance with its gorgeous banners, its members in their splendid regalia, and accompanied by several bands, which discoursed most eloquent and spirit-stirring music.

The States were represented in the procession in the following order: New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, Massachusetts, District of Columbia, Virginia, Ohio, Delaware, Indiana, Tennessee, North Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi, Kentucky, Illinois, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Louisiana, Missouri, and Wisconsin Territory.

The procession reached the stand at about half past 4 o'clock, and formed in front of the City Hall, around a large staging, on which were seated the officers of the meeting, guests, orators, &c.—M. W. P. Daniel A. Sands presided, assisted by D. W. Morris. M. W. A.

The following was sung by the members of the Order, led by P. W. P. S. Macdonough, Bulkley, and Meeks:

Thrice welcome brother, here we meet,
In Friendship's close communion join'd;
Ye Sons of Temp'rance, loud repeat
Your triumph with one heart and mind.
No angry persons here should mar
Our peace, or move our social band—
For Friendship is our beacon star—
Our motto—"Union, Hand-in-Hand."

After a prayer, a statement of the order was read by J. U. Oliver, M. W. Scribe—singing again by members of the Order, and then an address by Phillip S. White of Pa. M. W. T. One or two more addresses were delivered, when the exercises were closed by singing. This has been a proud day for the friends of temperance, and with all our heart we say, God speed them in their work which we regard as one of the noblest and most momentous movements of the Nineteenth Century.

S. P. STICKNEY'S

NEW ORLEANS AND SOUTHERN GYMNASIUM.

First performance on Friday evening June 19, in front of the American Hotel.

MR. STICKNEY begs leave most respectfully to announce to his old friends and the public of Pittsburgh and vicinity, that he has with the greatest pains collected a company, male and female, the complement in every department of which is so completely filled, that hitherto no additions or alterations have been suggested by the discerning public of New Orleans, the skill of some of whom in their respective vocations, have gained them a celebrity that places them at the "acme" among Gymnastic and the profession of Equitation.

In offering a synopsis of the performances, which the Manager takes pride in offering this season, he is congrained to express his gratefulness for the liberal patronage bestowed upon his exertions during the past season, and the many kindnesses everywhere evinced towards himself and the various members of his company.

In the Stud of variegated and beautiful horses, the luxurious conveniences of the Tent, the Music, the Profuse Outlay, Expensive Appliances, Tasteful Paraphernelia, Appropriate Costumes, Brilliant Trappings Gorgeous Pageantry, and above all, assidious attention to the comforts of the spectators, the Manager courts criticisms.

In fine, he thinks that in affording the greatest possible innocent amusement, with the greatest amount of interesting instruction, he has reduced the feats and sports of the circle to a science.

The Manager, ever anxious to cater for the public, has at a great expense engaged the celebrated Ethiopean Serenaders from Boston, with little Ole Bull, the greatest Violinist of the age (11 years) in the world; and Sweeny, the best Banjo player; and Mr. Sanford in the Virginia Jigs.

Clown—Old Fred Garson.
Equestrian Manager—B. Jennings.
Riding Master—H. Long.
