Hoyt on Finance.

Professing to be an honest man, the candidate of an honest organization I favor honest money.

The volume of the currency should be regulated by legitimate demand, and not by the requirements of bankrupts and wild speculators.

The currency should be redeemable as early as the exigencies of the Government will permit, in the currency recognized by all civilized nations.

The contracts of the Government should be held as sacred as the contracts of individuals, and the bonds, the evidence of its indebtedness, should be paid according to the understanding between the Government and the lender.-[Speech at Butler, Sept. 2,

Each of these, too, is a bondholder, and it becomes necessary to "sweep away" all sayings-bank depositors and every man who cares enough for his family to insure his life.-Hartfort Courant.

-Ex-Governor Curtin proposes to conduct his share of the campaign on the point that the State Administration is corrupt. He dilates with all his peculiar forensic floridity on this allegation, meekly impressing those who listen to him, that the evil of maladministration is the cause of all the suffering of the people. Would it not be well for the gay and festive Andy to adjust his own affairs with history? If he has such abhorrence for mal-administration let him confess his own sins and repent, and not stand on the portals of the political temple striking himself on the breast and thanking God he is not like other men. And in the meantime let him explain the following pertinent epistle:

ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE, HARRISBURG, May 24, 1861.

To Andrew G. Curtin,

Governor of Pennsylvania: For reasons which appeal to my selfrespect, I cannot consent to continue any longer in connection with your administration.

I therefore tender you my resignation of the office of Attorney General of the State.

SAMUEL A. PURVIANCE.

And while he is engaged in explaining this will he be good enough to tell the people how much he received for placing his signature to Peter Herdic's boom bill?

Also, what was his "divie" in the repeal of the tonnage tax? And what was his receipts from the profits in the tailor shop in the Girard House at the beginning of the war?

Let us have a clearing up discussion, as apostles of reform like Dill and Curtin are now braying so loudly about corruption. Answer, gentlemen, answer!-Harrisburg Telegraph. -The house of Mrs. Abby Davol, in Portsmouth, R. I., was discovered on fire. When neighbors reached the scene nothing could be saved. The body of Mrs Davol could be seen on a ner in which he had discharged the bed, burned to a crisp. By the side of duties of his position. the stove was a kerosene can, which probably explains the disaster.

-The Democratic party in 1860 issued $4,840,000 in Treasury notes, at a istration was again hard up. Bonds amounting to $18,415,000 were sold at words, the Government received only $89,10 for 5 per cent, bonds, the par value of each of which was $100. Uncle Sam was never before nor since comfor the use of a small amount of pocket money. The Democratic party turned over the Government to their successors with a debt of over $90,000,000 a portion of it drawing over $3,000,000 in nterest per annum.

Soon after the Republican party came into power Secretary Chase paid these claims and stopped the interest. The public credit began almost immediately to strengthen, even against the inauguration of the pro-slavery rebellion. Government bonds were at par, and went up rapidly after the suppression of the war. In August, 1875, the Secretary of the Treasury was receiving $105.05 in gold for $100 in 5 per cent. bonds and about the same rate of premium for other denominations. About the same time (August 24, 1875) a contract was entered into for placing 4½ per cent. bonds at par in exchange for bonds bearing 6 per cent. interest. And now 4 per cent. bonds are in demand at home and abroad. It will thus be seen that, was at its lowest point in 1860-'61, it has now reached the highest and strongest condition ever attained. A CATECHISM.-What is a Govern-

-James Mullen, a wealthy farmer and bachelor, residing near Gower, Mo., was found lying near his barn, dead. The body was frightfully maneaten off the bones by hogs. EMPLOYMENT FOR LADIES AND GEN-TLEMEN AT HOME.

Our attention was recently attracted by an advertisement in another paper to the "American Housekeepers". Scale and the extremely low price induced us to send for one to use in our kitchen.

We find the scale the most convenient and Mr. Warner, of Cameron, nominated | worth five times its cost, in testing grocers' packages, putting up preserves, making cake etc. W. H. Thompson & Co., No. 235 Washington street, Boston, Mass., are the manufacturers, and they have the most complimentary Testimonials of the Scale possible to be written. They have as yet no General Agent for this County; and as the Scales are sold exclusively by canvassjourned to meet at Rhines' Hall at 7 ers to families, we cheerfully recommend the article for the benefit of our numerous lady readers, and parties wanting honorable employment. We would say that the "Church Journal," N. Y., "Christian Union," N. Y., "Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper," New York, "Church Union," N.
