Counterfeiting Case.

United States Circuit Court.- Before Judge Irwin.

United States vs. John Chesrown. Indictment. passing counterfeit coin. The second day of this trial was witnessed by a large number of persons who manifested a great deal of interest in the proceedings, inasmuch as the parties implicated have heretofore been considered respectable citizens of Washington county.

District Attorney Shaler and R. H. Kountz appeared for the prosecution; for the defence, Mr. S. W. Black, R. P. Flenniken and Gibson, of Washington county. The following is the testimony:

Robert Hague, sworn.—Am police officer. In November I was sent for by Layer: got information there: had a warrant issued for Chesrown; went down to Monongahela city; he had gone to Washington; found him there, in Koonz' office; he pulled out some specie, and said he had passed it on Dutch John for flour; Layer was present: he was warned not to say anything: he said he had passed it and redeemed it; that was all that was said.

[Witness opens a bag of counterfeit coin from Licking county. Objected to by defendants, and objection sustained.]

Otto Koonz sworn.—Last winter Hague left with me one counterfeit half dollar, and two counterfeit gold dollars; this is the basis of both gold and silver. [Applies nitrate of silver to a half dollar.]

Abraham Teeters sworn.—Live in Monongahela city: am a constable; was last winter; arrested Chesrown and took him before a magistrate in the latter part of November, 1855, searched his house: told him I had a search warrant, and that he might as well deliver up if he had any spurious money: he and we went up stairs: he pulled out his drawer and we found $107,50 in gold—quarter eagles and dollars—and $34,50 in silver half dollars. I took the paper and coin to 'Squire Clemens, it was found in a small drawer in Chesrown's house; a few gold $1 pieces were found in his waist-coat pocket; he put the money in Wm. Alexander's hands, who took charge of it. Asked him if he had any money of the kind: he said he had: he took us up stairs and showed some: it was in an old-fashioned desk: he opened the drawer for us: we found the gold dollars: after he got the other he went and took down the vest and showed us the dollars; he said he had worn it that morning and had taken it off; we took him to the 'Squire's, and some remained at Chesrown's; neither John nor his wife manifested any unwillingness as to the search: found a half dollar in his son's drawer; he said it belonged to him: it was mixed with other specie; this was the same day that Chesrown's oath was taken by the 'Squire: he gave bail next day; he told me he had money, supposed to be counterfeit, which he had got from Robt. Cooper; he was held to bail to answer at the Washington county court.

Jno. Clemens, Esq., sworn.—Chesrown was brought before me; coin was brought in and put in Alexander's hands; Cooper and Chesrown were in my office together; they had a great deal of conversation: Cooper told Chesrown that what he had sworn against him was false: Chesrown did not say a word in reply, in my presence; Chesrown told me he had given Earnest a portion of the money, and John M'Feeley a large amount, nearly $100, part in coin and part in paper; M'Feeley is a butcher; had loaned it to him; had given it to several: he and I had a good deal of conversation about it after he was arrested: I took him into a room and asked him; he told me he had got the money from Cooper, of Washington: that Cooper borrowed $400 before that, and he had got this money in exchange, that is, for payment: something was said about Bentley: he told me that Cooper came down expecting to get money from Bentley: that Bentley was not at home, and that Cooper had induced him to give him (Cooper) the money he had expected to get from Bentey. Chesrown said he had passed money on John Kammerer and others, and that he got this money from Cooper in return for a loan which he had made Cooper some time before: that Cooper had intended to get the money from Bentley: M'Feeley butchers near our town: he said he had got $400 from Cooper: he said he had given Cooper good money: I think he said he was getting good money in return, and passed it off as such among his neighbors.

Wm. Alexander sworn. I received the money at 'Squire Clemens', put it up in a package kept it; this is the same, (looking at it:) and this is the paper money, (looking at it.) whole $157,50 coin, and $50, $573 in all.

John Camerer sworn. I am a farmer and miller and store-keeper: got $8,50 in counterfeit money from Chesrown, on the Monday before he was arrested; it was $8 in gold and fifty cents in silver; I had sent him the flour before that time: I got the money at his house. I got home Wednesday, and found out that the money was bad, at 10 or 11 o'clock the constable told me that Chesrown was arrested I gave the money to Peter Griffin, and Chesrown sent me good money for it; when he paid me first he had a $50 note, and asked me if it was good: I told him it was altered from $5; I asked where he got it; he said from Bob Cooper: Jim Kerr was present, and Cooper had given him two $5 notes that were not worth five cents; he said, I am afraid I have some more counterfeit money which I got from Cooper, and if I were not engaged to go to Pittsburgh, I would go right up to Cooper and return it to him.

Cross-examined.—The $8,50 was for flour got two weeks before; he usually bought from me for fifteen years past: he showed me a $50 note, asked me if it was good and I told him it was bad: he said he had got it from Cooper: this was when he was paying me on Monday: I took the money supposing it to be good, and thought it so until I was told of Chesrown's arrest: I then examined it and found it bad: got it at 10 o'clock.

Peter Griffin sworn.—Live in Brownsville: I helped arrest Chesrown: when we first went to the house he objected giving the money, as he had got it from Cooper and wanted to return it to him; I told him we would give him a schedule, and he could make return to Cooper: I did this: he asked the constable, Teeters, to go up stairs: he gave me the money: he took it from his vest pocket, a drawer and a porte monaie: we afterwards found $25 in paper money in another place: he said he had loaned Cooper $360, and Cooper had given his note for $400, and that he had promised Cooper never to exhibit this note: that he had shown the note to one person, but hadn't shown the names: he said M'Creary and Cooper were on the note: the note called for $400: had loaned $350: Received $400 at Washington during the week of Court: the note was given in Monongahela City at least that is my recollection: it was a short time previous that he got this money as good from Cooper in payment for the note: obtained schedule: there was $35 in silver and $107,50 in other money: he said M'Creary was security on the note: that Cooper had represented to him that M'Creary owned two houses and lots in Washington.

Cross-examined.—Was with the constable: Chesrown said he had given Cooper $360, and Cooper gave him a note for $400, with M'Creary for security; that he had exhibited the note to Stephen Earnest, except the names, as Cooper wished him to keep it secret: that he got all the money, with the exception of $13, from Cooper; said he'd been to Pittsburgh and found the money bad: had been to Washington to return the money to Cooper: the $25 in paper money found was on the Merch. & Mech. Bank; Chesrown requested me to go up stairs: I was aware that morning that he had got $400 from Cooper: he told us the omission as to $25 was accidental.

Abraham Teeters, recalled.—Chesrown said he had got the money from Cooper, who had borrowed money from him, and paid him back in this kind of money: he said, I think, that he had loaned Cooper in the neighborhood of $400, and Cooper paid him back $400 in that kind of money; this was his story on all occasions: said it was paid him in Cooper's house at Washington: think I was sent the same day with a warrant for Cooper. Griffin was with me at Chesrown's at search: Chesrown said in my presence that Cooper had give his note, with McCreary as security, for $400; Chesrown always stated it in this way: he said also that he had gone to Washington with Cooper the day he (Chesrown) gave him the money.

Stephen Earnest, sworn.—Live in Monongahela city: he (Chesrown,) told me he had loaned Cooper some money, and took his note for $400, and got that amount from him at Washington: I wanted money; he told me he could not give it to me until week of court: Saturday following I got $75 of the money from him; I paid out $60 of it on Saturday evening: had $50 bill returned to me on Monday: went with it to Chesrown and he gave me other money: said he had got the $50 from Cooper: next day a $5 bill on Metropolis Bank, was returned and said it was not thought to be good; he gave me five gold dollars: he told me to try them, and if they were not good he would make them good when he returned from Pittsburgh: I gave this money to the man who had retuened the $5 note; $50 note was a Virginia Bank: have $19 of the money: I lifted my note in the squire's office: he said he did lend Cooper money, and would get it on Monday: he said he had lent it to Cooper; showed a judgment note for $400, borrowed money: he said he was to get it back in par money: he did not show the names to the note, saying he had promised not to do so, and he had done more now than he should.

Cross-examined.—First applied to him to buy my horse; this was a week or ten days before I asked to borrow money; I wanted to give the money to Sheplar: I asked him two or three times: he said he would lend me the money, but could not until he would go up to Washington to court; the note was in the plural: to wit: "we:" the date was Nov., somewhere about the thirteenth: it was written by a good scribe: don't know Cooper's hand writing; the word "borrowed" was in it; he said that the note was on good men in Washington: I told him that if the names pleased me, I would give him a house and lot for it: the five gold dollars he said he got of Cooper.

Robert S. Huey, sworn.—One of the boys sold Chesrown goods on first week of court; he paid in two $5 notes on Metropolitan Bank, one came back, the other never did; I gave it to Chesround, he gave me a good one in return: he showed me money which I considered counterfeit: he said he got it from Cooper: he showed this voluntarily: he commenced to tell how he got it, but I was called away.

Cross-examined.—The note came in on Wednesday: think it passed out that day; on Monday 3d Dec. he took it back: this was after Cooper and he were arrested at Monongahela City: he was shown the coin, and said, this is a specimen of the money: he had got the note from Cooper; had another of the same kind, and one on Waynesburgh Bank, and one on the Suthern Bank of Kentucky, all counterfeit; Chesrown was in the store alone.

John M'Feeley sworn.—Got money from Chesrown on the 22d of November, $75 in gold, $25 paper; I took it back, but gave him my note for it on Monday, the 26th of November; said I had not made use of it; and if he would give me the note I would give the money; he gave the note; I poured out the money, saying it was bad; he said it would be no loss to him; he got it from Cooper about the 12th of November; I asked him for the loan; he studied a bit, and did not answer; he then said, I have the money, but it is all par money, and if you get it you must pay me in the same kind; I told him it was a hard kind to get; this was at his house: I did get it then, for I did not need it until the next Tuesday week; on Wednesday the 21st I got it, and next Monday I took it back; I went to buy cattle and found the money bad; my note had to run from 10 to 15 days.

Cross Examined.—First tried to borrow of him on the 12th: he said his was par; I did not want the money until the next Tuesday week; I went to him on next Wednesday after the 12th, and his wife said he was away, and would not be back till Saturday; I met him on the road the next Thursday, and he said he could not give the money, according to promise; this must have been on the 15th: if I could come on Wednesday evening he could get the money, as he was going up to Washington on Tuesday, and expected to get it.

Jas. R. Sheplar, sworn.—I went to Chesrown in company with Earnest with a $50 note; he took it and returned with 5's and 10's—35 good, 15 on Metropolitan bank—I exchanged part of the earnest money and gave it to M'Feeley.

Wm. H. Atkins sworn.—Dealt with Chesrown before his arrest to the amount of $1,50; sold it to another; agreed to make him another; he said he would pay me for it then, and he then paid me in bad coin; I made the article, but he never sent for it: I gave it to his son to give to him.

Wm. Wenoun, sworn—Know Chesrown; got 75 cents from him: I gave it back to him after he was arrested; he didn't say anything, but took it back and gave me good change for it.

William Lynn, sworn.—I am Prosecuting Attorney for Washington county; Chesrown and I conversed on Tuesday morning after the arrest of Cooper. Chesrown was then under arrest; he said, Bill, this is rather a bad scrape; I said it was. He said, You know I have always had as much confidence in Bob Cooper as in any other man, but I was deceived in the man, and he ruined me. He then said he would tell me all about it—that Cooper and M'Creary came to Monongahela City, and Cooper introduced M'Creary—that they wished to borrow money from him, and that Cooper represented that M'Creary owned two or three houses and lots in Washington—that they wanted $400 for ten or fifteen days, and would pay him $25 for use of it for that time—that Cooper exhibited to him a $2,50 gold piece and $1 in gold—that it was genuine, but lacked in weight—that he took them to Joseph Wilson, and asked if they were good; Wilson said they were—that he loaned them $400, and took their judgment note for $425—then said they wanted him to go with them to Ohio, where this money could be had—that he didn't want his family to know of his going, and told his wife that he was going to Washington, and came up in Cooper's buggy, with Cooper—that when he came to Washington he changed his mind, and went home—that he came to Washington on Tuesday of first week of Court, and got from Cooper, in his parlor, $425—that he went home and gave one hundred dollars to McPheely—That he either gave or loaned a quarter, fifty, seventy five, or $1 to Earnest; that he paid Dutch John $1,50 for a barrel of flour; that he desired to lay in a stock of goods and started to Pittsburgh for that purpose; paid his fare on the boat with the coin and before he landed at Pittsburgh, the clerk told him the money was bad and he redeemed it; went to Andrew Wells and told him of his intention to lay in goods, but that his money was bad; that Wells looked at it and said it was bad; that he came back to Monongahela city determined to go direct to Washington and make Cooper take it back; but that arriving at home he was arrested. I heard the conversation Hague alluded to, and think he correctly detailed it; only that Chesrown said, on coming in, that he was as innocent as either of us; this was about the 1st December.

Cross examined—He said he loaned money to Cooper and M'Creary to the amount of $400 in par funds, and said Cooper was to pay him in the kind of money he exhibited, and Wilson pronounced it good; he said they came to Monongahela city, and Cooper introduced M'Creary, and he agreed to let them have the money, and took a judgment bond; did'nt say bond was given there; that he went to Washington with Cooper in his buggy; he did not say how McCreary got to Washington; that himself and Cooper stopped at the Mansion House, and there he changed his mind; He showed me the money he gave to Dutch John—John Carnerter; he said he had showed the judgment note to Earnest, but concealed the signatures.

Thornton F. Miller, sworn.—I kept the Mansion House in Washington last fall. Chesrown and Cooper came to my house on the evening of the 13th of November about dark; Cooper said he and Chesrown had business to transact, and he would sup with Chesrown at my house. After supper M'Creary came in, and all three of them talked awhile, and then went in the direction of Cooper's office; were gone for some time, and came back, and Chesrown sat down by the stove, and Cooper and M'Creary whispered in a corner, and then Cooper would come and whisper to Chesrown; then M'Creary said, D—n it, he is not sharp enough (in a whisper) [illegible]. Chesrown then sat at the stove; Cooper then threw his arms over Chesrown, and whispered to him, and then said to M'Creary that that was the best way, and told M'Creary to get a buggy from [illegible]. I asked him where he was going, and he said to Ohio. When M'Creary came in, Cooper asked if he had got the buggy; M'Creary said it was all right on the goose question. I took Cooper home, and [illegible] M'Creary [illegible] at four o'clock [illegible] did not hear Chesrown speak a word, he sat by the stove, and the other two did all the talk and whispering. In the morning, M'Creary came up, asked for Cooper, and he and Cooper went away in a buggy.

Cross examined.—Cooper and Chesrown came alone, that evening; don't know—think half an hour afterward McCreary came in; he did not come with Chesrown and Cooper. The Bar-room is a large room—one-half as large as this (Court room). Chesrown sat by the stove—it is a large one. I could hear some parts of the whispering of Cooper and M'Creary. Could not hear what Cooper said to Chesrown. I was nearer the corner where Cooper and M'Creary were whispering than Chesrown.

Stephen Earnest, recalled.—The day he (Chesrown) gave me the five gold dollars in exchange for the $5 note was the Tuesday preceding his arrest. He said if it was not good to bring it back and he would make it all right.

Dr. Aaron Gamble, sworn.—Tuesday evening prior to our November Court, Cooper, McCreary and Chesrown came in to my office; Chesrown said to them let us fix this thing and let me go, I am in a hurry to be off; this was half past nine o'clock. Cooper said he was going to harm himself.

Cross-examined.—Chesrown asked Cooper to fix this thing. Cooper replied he did not do business in Dr. Gamble's office. Chesrown stood at the door and Cooper near the fire. Cooper was intoxicated; he asked for stimulants, I refused him.

Stephen Earnest, recalled by Defence.—It was the same day Dutch John qualifies to I returned the $10 note.

James M. Byers, sworn.—I was in Esq. Judson's office on business; there is a thin partition between it and Cooper's; saw Cooper and Chesrown go in—draw their chairs together and converse. Cooper said, Chesrown, you have acted the d—d fool—you know, and then his voice fell; then he said you know you told your wife you were going to Ohio, and got in my buggy and came to Washington on purpose to go to Ohio with McCreary; you know that McCreary objected to you going; that you got me to go along with him; Chesrown said that is all true; Cooper then said, why in the name of God did you make that oath against me in Monongahela City; Chesrown replied that they told him if he would swear to the person from whom he got the money it would clear him; they then lowered their voices; heard no more; fore part of the conversation I heard pretty much all they said; the first sentence Cooper uttered I could not hear.

Cross-examined.—Was in an adjoining office near a door that formerly opened; it was there, and a crack was in the door; they had more conversation which I couldn't hear; heard Chesrown say that he was told that if he would swear from whom he got the money, it would clear him. I first mentioned that to Judge Shaler.

Here the prosecution rested, when Col. S. W. Black opened the case for the defence in a few remarks premising what they would do. He then called up the

TESTIMONY FOR THE DEFENCE.

Sheph. Bentley, sworn.—I know defendant; and also Bob Cooper; I mind the circumstance of Chesrown's arrest; the day previous to Cooper's arrest I went to Washington; before starting, this spurious coin matter had leaked out, and Dr. Biddle, Cooper's brother-in-law, told me that Chesrown was alleging that he got the counterfeit money from Cooper; I saw Dr. Biddle at Williamsport between twelve and one o'clock I think, the day before Cooper's arrest; Dr. said Chesrown charged Cooper with giving him all the money; Dr. requested me to state this charge to Cooper; I went to Washington and told Dr. Gamble, my son-in-law, that I wished to see Cooper; he said Cooper was intoxicated or drinking; I said if that was the case I did not wish to see him; I went to the Valentine house, and Cooper came in and stated that I had said I wished to see him; I told him I had; he asked me into a room and we sat down; I had not intended to mention the matter at that time, as he is excitable when in liquor; he knew well enough what he was doing; I asked him what his great anxiety was to see me when at Williamsport the time he and Chesrown went up to Washington; I told him my family told me Cooper had said he would rather see me than make $20; he answered that he had wanted to borrow money from me; I told him I had no money; he said I had $500 at Lemoine's; I told him I had that money to meet a note in bank; he said if he had seen me and got it he only needed it for a short time; am not certain if he inquired for the whole or a portion of the $500; he said it now made no difference as, so far as I was concerned, the speculation had passed by; that it might have been a good object for me to have loaned it to him; while this conversation was passing, I thought of the Chesrown matter, and asked him if he had got the money from me what money would he have paid me in? he then pulled out two or three pieces of silver from his pocket, and said that kind; I said, Bob, this is not good; he replied, it is as good money as there is to be had anywhere; I said it was counterfeit; supper was then ready, and I told him I wanted to see him in the morning; he insisted on knowing what I wanted; I refused; met him in the morning at his office; I then told him what Dr. Biddle stated; he then swore oath after oath that there was no truth in the assertion of Chesrown, that he had got the money from him; he ended by saying he would go down with two revolvers, and bring Chesrown before me and Dr. Biddle, and if Chesrown did not take it back he would kill him on the spot; he swore repeatedly that Chesrown never got the money from him; I was then convinced that he had not given Chesrown a dollar; I think he was not under the influence of liquor that morning; he went to Williamsport that day Father Earnest or Sheplar told me of Chesrown's having a $400 note, and that made me ask Cooper the kind of money he would have paid me; next morning he convinced me that Chesrown had never loaned Cooper any money; he swore solemnly that he had not.

At a little after 5 P M, the Court adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning.

Iron City Commercial College.—This is one of the most rapidly growing educational institutions in Pittsburgh. It is under the care of F. W. Jenkins, Esq., assisted by five accomplished instructors, who assiduously attend to their respective duties. The apartments are most ample in size, and most excellent in arrangement. The facilities for ladies and gentlemen seeking an elegant handwriting or a thorough knowledge of book-keeping, &c., to qualify themselves for success in business, cannot find superior opportunities than are here offered.

The Allegheny Valley Railroad.—The propriety of granting the right of way through the city to this road via Pike street, was defeated in Common Council on Thursday night, by a tie vote. It had previously passed the Select Branch. Another meeting will be held on Monday night, when the defeated motion will probably prevail.

☞ Batchelor's Hair Dye.—Why has no one succeeded in making a Reliable Hair Dye, except BATCHELOR? Because they would avoid the cares, the thought, the time, patience and labor necessary. THE STATE TREASURER.—H. S. MAGRAW Esq., of Lancaster, the State Treasurer elect, entered upon the discharge of the duties of his office on Monday last—Hon. ELI SLIFER, of Union county, retiring. Of Mr. S. it is but just to say that he was one of the best Treasurers we have had for many years. He was accomodating, attentive to his duties, and always actuated by the highest motives of integrity. If the Treasury of the Commonwealth lost anything during the past year, the loss is not chargeable to intentional neglect on the part of Mr. SLIFER. The new Treasurer, Mr. MAGRAW, is a gentleman of very superior abilities. He is a lawyer by profession, and when egaged in the practice, in Pittsburgh, was one of the most promising members of that able bar. HAZEL EYED GIRLS.—Major Noah says that a "hazel" eye inspires at first a Platonic sentiment, which gradually and surely expands into love as securely founded as the rock of Gibraltar. A woman with a hazel eye "never slopes from her husband!" Never chats scandal, never finds fault, never talks too much nor too little, always is an entertaining, intellectual, agreeable and lovely creature. "We never knew," says a brother editor, "but one uninteresting and unamiable woman with a hazel eye, and she had a nose which looked, as the Yankee says, 'like the end of nothing whittled down to a point.'" The grey is a sign of shrewdness and talent. Great thinkers and captains have it. The dark hazel is noble in significance, as in its beauty. The blue eye is amiable, but may be feeble. The black—take care.

RIVER NEWS.

The River.—Last evening at dusk there was 10 feet water in the channel, and rising. Weather cloudy, with every prospect of rain.

The fine passenger steamer "Forest City" is the regular packet for Wheeling this morning—leaving at 10 o'clock.

The fine passenger steamer "Buckeye State" is the regular Sunday packet for Cincinnati—leaving at 10 o'clock, A. M.

The steamer "North Star" is loaded for St. Paul and designs leaving this evening. Her accommodations for passengers are equal to any steamer floating on the Ohio river.

The fine steamer "Messenger" will leave this morning for Louisville and all intermediate ports. She has the best of accommodations for passengers, with experienced and obliging officers. Give her a call.

The steamer "Monongahela," Capt. M. Cox, is advertised to leave on Monday next for St. Louis. She brought to this port $1,750,000 of bullion belonging to Uncle Sam, which was forwarded east by Adams & Co.'s Express.

The fine new steamer "J. H. Conn" leaves this evening for the Illinois river. Capt. Woodburn and his polite clerk, Mr. J. W. Chambers, are officers of this boat, and all who know them will agree in praise of their merits as gentlemen and practical boatmen.

The new steamer "Hannibal," just finished at our port, is a fine and substantial built boat. She is commanded by Capt. Wm. Hazlett, and will run in the St. Louis and Missouri river trade, and will leave during the coming week. We know the officers of this steamer and know them to be gentlemen of merit. Passengers will find the "Hannibal" a fine boat and one well qualified to meet their wants.

The large and commodious steamer "Pittsburgh," the regular Cincinnati packet, will leave this morning for that port at 10 o'clock, without fail. Her accommodations for passengers are so well known that they require no notice from us, and her Captain—a very prince of Captains—the most accommodating in the world; and Mr. Bears, the clerk, is just what a clerk ought to be, obliging and pleasant to all. In fact, if you wish to enjoy a pleasant trip to the Queen City of the West, on a first class boat, engage your passage on the steamer "Pittsburgh."

ANOTHER GREAT MANUFACTURING ESTABLISHMENT AT ROCHESTER, for building Locomotives, Steam Engines, Fire Engines, Mechanical and Agricultural Implements, and machinery in general.

ROCHESTER, though the YOUNGEST of ten sister villages grouped about the MOUTH AND FALLS OF BEAVER, is destined to take the lead, and be NOTED FOR MANUFACTURES, as she is and must continue to be in commerce. This is obvious to all who look at her position, with reference to Rivers, Canals and Railroads. Though aspiring to become a CITY, and to have a name of HER OWN among the cities and towns of the West, she is at present proud to consider herself a SUBURB OF PITTSBURGH. To be in reference to PITTSBURGH what Lowell is to BOSTON, or what Paterson and Newark are to NEW YORK—the benefits and advantages are mutual and reciprocal.

The recent establishment of Steam Mills, Foundry, Car Factory, Barrel Factory, Fire Brick Yards, &c., and the building of two or three Churches at Rochester, have called for a great amount of additional labor, and caused a considerable influx of families from Pittsburg and other places, so that it is at present extremely difficult to procure tenements or lodgings for those who are daily arriving, to make their homes.

At least 100 new houses are required, and must, at some rate, be built the coming season, to say nothing of the Manufacturing Establishments, and completion of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad from Wellsville into Rochester, by the 4th of July, 1856. Stone, Brick, Lime, Sand and Lumber are convenient and abundant, but labor is very scarce, and must come from other places.

The undersigned, having control of about 1500 eligible Building Lots, will continue to hold out the most liberal inducements to builders and mechanics of almost every description. Cheap tenements will readily rent for 10 to 15 per cent. upon their cost. Here's a chance for builders.

☞ The subscriber will be at the Allegheny Rail Road Depot on Saturday of each week, from 12 till 3 o'clock, with maps, plots, descriptions, &c., and will be happy to meet Builders, Purchasers or Enquirers—and particularly any who purchased lots at last year's sales, for their lots have generally advanced in value about 100 per cent. since they bought, and the same will happen again.

M. T. C. GOULD.

Rochester, Feb. 15, 1856.

[illegible]

GRIST-MILL, WOOLLEN MANUFACTORY, Saw-Mill, &c., For Sale. The subscriber, wishing to retire from business, offers his Grist Mill, Woollen Factory, Dwelling Houses, Blacksmith Shop, Carpenter Shop, &c., with about one hundred and fifty acres of land for sale.

The Grist-Mill has three run of stones, two of which are Burr stones, with all the necessary appliances, such as Corn Cracker, Smut Mill, new bolting cloths, &c., all in good order.

The Manufactory in connection with the Mill has a double Carding Machine, Condenser, Spinning Jenny, Looms, &c., in complete running condition.

Both Mill and Factory are propelled nine months in the year by water, the other three months by steam power. The machinery is almost all new, and in the best running order. Coal is brought to the establishment by cars, on an inclined plane, recently constructed for that purpose.

The land is of good quality, mostly all inclosed, about sixty acres cleared, with Cannel Coal, Bituminous Coal, Lime Stone, and Iron Ore in abundance.

The subscriber will likewise sell, in connection with the above property, if desired, a new Saw Mill, good Frame House, Stable, &c., with forty-five acres of land. Also, if desired, one hundred and forty acres of land adjoining the above, about one hundred acres cleared, twenty-five of which are meadow, a good frame house, frame barn, tenant buildings, &c., &c.

The above property is situated in Kiskiminetas township, Armstrong county, one and a half miles from the Pennsylvania Canal and the North-Western Railroad, and three miles from Apollo. The surrounding country is good and productive. The Mills and Factory are doing a good custom work, and all in successful operation.

It is desirable for purchasers to visit the property, where the subscriber will give all the information required.

JACOB M'CARTNEY.

MEDICAL.

BOERHAVE'S HOLLAND BITTERS

JE MAINTIENDRAI

ELECTRO-CHEMISCHEAROMA

Echt Hollandsch Kruiden Bitters.

TWO YEARS have elapsed since the introduction of this valuable medicine into the United States During this time it has gained universal popularity as remedy for

Fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Headache,
Loss of Appetite, Debility, Costiveness,
Blind and Bleeding Piles, &c.

Many of our most worthy citizens testify to its wonderful efficacy in all affections of the stomach and liver. As a tonic, it never has been equalled, for the relief it affords in all cases of debility or weakness of any kind is almost instantaneous. In nervous, rheumatic and neuralgic affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

When eminent physicians prescribe, and their patients so unhesitatingly recommend, surely we may cease to doubt, and eagerly test its virtues for ourselves.

FEVER AND AGUE.

A Case of Eight Months' Standing Cured by Boerhave's Holland Bitters.—Michael Kelly, No. 117 Grant, near Smithfield street, says: "Last July, while running on the river, on a cotton boat plying between Natchez and New Orleans, I was taken with fever and ague. For eight long months I suffered with this dreadful disease. The greater part of this time I was unable to work, and spent at least fifty dollars for different medicines, but I found no permanent relief. Three weeks ago, one of my friends insisted upon my trying Boerhave's Holland Bitters, saying that a cure was guaranteed. After taking it for one week, I must state I was a sound man. I have been at work now for two weeks, and have had no return of the chills and fever whatever."

I certify the above statement is true.
THOMAS ADAMS, Diamond House,
Or at R. Chester's, Gothic Hall.

HEADACHE AND DEBILITY.

Mr. Silas Liscomb, of Birmingham, says: "I have found in Boerhave's Bitters a remedy for headache and debility. My wife has also used it with the greatest benefit."

Mr. A. S. Nicholson, of Pittsburgh, also remarks that he has experienced much relief from its use for headache.

READ THIS!

A Hollander's Testimony.—Jacob Rinskes, living in the Holland settlement of Sheboygan, Wisconsin, says: "After suffering for some time the misery attending an utter prostration of mind and body, I have been restored, by using Boerhave's Holland Bitters, to perfect health."

The fact of this remedy being in such high repute among the Hollanders in Wisconsin, Michigan, New York—in fact, in every Holland settlement in the United States—argues much in its favor.

STRENGTH AND HEALTH RESTORED.

Mr. John Davidson, living ten miles above Pittsburgh, on the Pennsylvania Canal, says: "When I commenced taking Boerhave's Holland Bitters, I could hardly walk—now, I enjoy excellent health."

WEAKNESS OF THE STOMACH AND INDIGESTION.

Another Great Cure Effected by Boerhave's Holland Bitters.—The wife of Peter De Witte, living in Holland Town, Sheboygan county, Wisconsin, suffered much from weakness of the stomach and indigestion. She had been under a physician's care for some time, but the disease seemed to baffle even his skill. She purchased some Holland Bitters at our office, which has given tone to her stomach, her appetite and strength are returning, and we firmly believe that this is another great cure effected by your medicine.

We have still to record many wonderful cures effected by this remedy, but must wait another opportunity. One thing you can rely upon, what we have published are from persons much respected in our community, and are literally true.
J. QUINTUS,
Editor Sheboygan Nieuwbode, Sheboygan, Wis.

RHEUMATISM.

A Case of Two Months' Standing Cured by Boerhave's Holland Bitters.—George Henderson, of Pittsburgh, says: "After suffering for three months with rheumatism—a part of the time so severely as to confine me to my bed—I have been entirely cured by using Boerhave's Holland Bitters. I have had one attack since, but found almost instantaneous relief in the same medicine. It is, in my opinion, a sure remedy for rheumatism."

NERVOUS AND RHEUMATIC AFFECTIONS.

This changeable weather is likely to produce a great deal of sickness. To persons troubled with nervous or rheumatic affections, we would recommend Boerhave's Holland Bitters. On referring to our columns you will find certificates from some of our first German and English citizens.—Pennsylvania Staats Zeitung.

THE WORST FORM OF PILES CAN BE CURED.

We are at liberty to refer to several well known gentlemen, who have used, thoroughly tested, and now recommend Boerhave's Holland Bitters as a remedy for piles. We are not at liberty to publish their names, but will take pleasure in referring any person to them who denies this statement.

For this affection, one-half of the prescribed dose should be taken—say half-teaspoonful—morning, noon and night, one hour before meals.

CAUTION!

The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

Joseph White's Carriage Repository.

JOSEPH WHITE, now carrying on business in his spacious premises, (now lately enlarged,) on the Pittsburgh and Greensburg Turnpike, near the Two Mile Run, between Pittsburgh and Lawrenceville, respectfully invites the public to inspect his stock of CARRIAGES, BUGGIES, &c. And he particularly informs gentlemen purchasers, that one price only is made.

Fourteen years' experience in the business enables him to place before his patrons the same choice collection of Carriages which, so many years past it has been his particular department to select, from the various and most talented Eastern manufacturers. The success of his new system is complete—the economy of his arrangements will supply the best and most fashionable manufactures at moderate prices.
